

SECTION 1 — IMPORT-READY SOURCE FILE

AP World History: Modern MCQ Practice Exam 3

PART A — QUESTIONS

APWH-MCQ3-001

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 1 — The Global Tapestry

Period: c. 1200–1450

Theme: GOV — Governance

Skill: Sourcing and Situation

Prompt:

Originalized royal chronicle, Ethiopian highlands, c. 1320: “The king restored the church lands and ordered the nobles to protect the plow villages. Priests blessed his line as descended from ancient kings, and the court sent judges to settle disputes among the mountain districts.” What was the most likely purpose of this chronicle?

- A) To encourage Ethiopia to abandon Christianity and adopt steppe traditions
 - B) To promote merchant control over the monarchy
 - C) To legitimize royal authority through religion, lineage, and protection of agrarian society
 - D) To argue that Ethiopian rulers had no authority outside coastal ports
- A) To encourage Ethiopia to abandon Christianity and adopt steppe traditions
 - B) To promote merchant control over the monarchy
 - C) To legitimize royal authority through religion, lineage, and protection of agrarian society
 - D) To argue that Ethiopian rulers had no authority outside coastal ports

APWH-MCQ3-002

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 1 — The Global Tapestry

Period: c. 1200–1450

Theme: CDI — Cultural Developments and Interactions

Skill: Contextualization

Prompt:

Originalized royal chronicle, Ethiopian highlands, c. 1320: “The king restored the church lands and ordered the nobles to protect the plow villages. Priests blessed his line as descended from ancient kings, and the court sent judges to settle disputes among the mountain districts.” Which broader context best explains the chronicle’s emphasis on priests and church lands?

- A) Christianity remained an important source of political and cultural legitimacy in Ethiopia.
 - B) Buddhism replaced Christianity as the official religion of the Ethiopian court.
 - C) Ethiopian rulers rejected written religious traditions after 1200.
 - D) The Ethiopian state depended entirely on Atlantic plantation exports.
- A) Christianity remained an important source of political and cultural legitimacy in Ethiopia.
 - B) Buddhism replaced Christianity as the official religion of the Ethiopian court.
 - C) Ethiopian rulers rejected written religious traditions after 1200.
 - D) The Ethiopian state depended entirely on Atlantic plantation exports.

APWH-MCQ3-003

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 1 — The Global Tapestry

Period: c. 1200–1450

Theme: SIO — Social Interactions and Organization

Skill: Claims and Evidence in Sources

Prompt:

Originalized royal chronicle, Ethiopian highlands, c. 1320: “The king restored the church lands and ordered the nobles to protect the plow villages. Priests blessed his line as descended from ancient kings, and the court sent judges to settle disputes among the mountain districts.” Which phrase best supports the claim that royal power was linked to social order?

- A) “Priests blessed his line”
- B) “Ancient kings”
- C) “Ethiopian highlands”
- D) “Sent judges to settle disputes among the mountain districts”
- A) “Priests blessed his line”
- B) “Ancient kings”
- C) “Ethiopian highlands”
- D) “Sent judges to settle disputes among the mountain districts”

APWH-MCQ3-004

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 1 — The Global Tapestry

Period: c. 1200–1450

Theme: TEC — Technology and Innovation

Skill: Visual / Material Culture Analysis

Prompt:

Secondary-source interpretation: “The stone walls of Great Zimbabwe were built without mortar, enclosed elite spaces, and stood near areas where imported glass beads, local cattle wealth, and gold-working evidence have been found.” Which interpretation is best supported by this description?

- A) Great Zimbabwe was an isolated village with no social hierarchy.
- B) Monumental architecture and luxury goods reflected elite power and regional exchange.
- C) Great Zimbabwe’s rulers depended on gunpowder weapons to build authority.
- D) The city was a European colonial settlement founded after 1750.
- A) Great Zimbabwe was an isolated village with no social hierarchy.
- B) Monumental architecture and luxury goods reflected elite power and regional exchange.
- C) Great Zimbabwe’s rulers depended on gunpowder weapons to build authority.
- D) The city was a European colonial settlement founded after 1750.

APWH-MCQ3-005

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 1 — The Global Tapestry

Period: c. 1200–1450

Theme: ECN — Economic Systems

Skill: Developments and Processes

Prompt:

Secondary-source interpretation: “The stone walls of Great Zimbabwe were built without mortar, enclosed elite spaces, and stood near areas where imported glass beads, local cattle wealth, and gold-working evidence have been found.” The description most directly reflects which development in southern Africa?

- A) The decline of all trade connections between inland and coastal regions
- B) The replacement of cattle wealth by industrial wage labor
- C) The rise of a powerful inland state connected to regional commerce
- D) The creation of a plantation colony by European settlers
- A) The decline of all trade connections between inland and coastal regions
- B) The replacement of cattle wealth by industrial wage labor
- C) The rise of a powerful inland state connected to regional commerce
- D) The creation of a plantation colony by European settlers

APWH-MCQ3-006

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 2 — Networks of Exchange

Period: c. 1200–1450

Theme: ECN — Economic Systems

Skill: Contextualization

Prompt:

Secondary-source interpretation: “The stone walls of Great Zimbabwe were built without mortar, enclosed elite spaces, and stood near areas where imported glass beads, local cattle wealth, and gold-working evidence have been found.” Which broader exchange context best explains the presence of imported glass beads?

- A) Inland southern African communities had connections to Indian Ocean commercial networks through coastal intermediaries.
- B) The Atlantic slave trade supplied Great Zimbabwe with manufactured goods after 1600.
- C) European railroads carried glass beads into the interior before 1200.
- D) Great Zimbabwe’s elites banned all foreign goods from entering their territory.
- A) Inland southern African communities had connections to Indian Ocean commercial networks through coastal intermediaries.
- B) The Atlantic slave trade supplied Great Zimbabwe with manufactured goods after 1600.
- C) European railroads carried glass beads into the interior before 1200.
- D) Great Zimbabwe’s elites banned all foreign goods from entering their territory.

APWH-MCQ3-007

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 2 — Networks of Exchange

Period: c. 1200–1450

Theme: SIO — Social Interactions and Organization

Skill: Claims and Evidence in Sources

Prompt:

Secondary-source interpretation: “The stone walls of Great Zimbabwe were built without mortar, enclosed elite spaces, and stood near areas where imported glass beads, local cattle wealth, and gold-working evidence have been found.” Which evidence best supports the claim that social hierarchy existed at Great Zimbabwe?

- A) The use of unmortared stone
- B) The location in southern Africa
- C) The presence of cattle wealth
- D) The enclosed elite spaces
- A) The use of unmortared stone
- B) The location in southern Africa

- C) The presence of cattle wealth
- D) The enclosed elite spaces

APWH-MCQ3-008

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 2 — Networks of Exchange

Period: c. 1200–1450

Theme: CDI — Cultural Developments and Interactions

Skill: Developments and Processes

Prompt:

Described map and visual source: “A map of Central and East Asia c. 800–1400 shows Buddhist cave sites near Dunhuang, Turfan, and Kucha along caravan corridors. A described cave mural shows donors wearing Central Asian clothing beside painted Buddhist figures.” Which development is best reflected by the map and mural?

- A) Religious and artistic traditions spread through Silk Road exchange.
- B) Buddhism originated in Central Asia after 1400.
- C) Caravan routes prevented the movement of religious ideas.
- D) East Asian religions disappeared because of merchant travel.
- A) Religious and artistic traditions spread through Silk Road exchange.
- B) Buddhism originated in Central Asia after 1400.
- C) Caravan routes prevented the movement of religious ideas.
- D) East Asian religions disappeared because of merchant travel.

APWH-MCQ3-009

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 2 — Networks of Exchange

Period: c. 1200–1450

Theme: CDI — Cultural Developments and Interactions

Skill: Visual / Material Culture Analysis

Prompt:

Described map and visual source: “A map of Central and East Asia c. 800–1400 shows Buddhist cave sites near Dunhuang, Turfan, and Kucha along caravan corridors. A described cave mural shows donors wearing Central Asian clothing beside painted Buddhist figures.” Which feature most directly shows cultural blending?

- A) The use of a map
- B) The cave location
- C) The dates c. 800–1400
- D) Central Asian donors shown beside Buddhist figures
- A) The use of a map
- B) The cave location
- C) The dates c. 800–1400
- D) Central Asian donors shown beside Buddhist figures

APWH-MCQ3-010

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 2 — Networks of Exchange

Period: c. 1200–1450

Theme: ENV — Humans and the Environment

Skill: Claims and Evidence in Sources

Prompt:

Described map and visual source: “A map of Central and East Asia c. 800–1400 shows Buddhist cave sites near Dunhuang, Turfan, and Kucha along caravan corridors. A described cave mural shows donors wearing Central Asian clothing beside painted Buddhist figures.” Which claim is best supported by the location of the cave sites?

- A) Buddhist sites were built only in coastal port cities.
 - B) Cultural exchange often followed routes shaped by oasis geography and caravan travel.
 - C) Central Asian deserts prevented all long-distance interaction.
 - D) Religious art had no relationship to trade routes.
- A) Buddhist sites were built only in coastal port cities.
 - B) Cultural exchange often followed routes shaped by oasis geography and caravan travel.
 - C) Central Asian deserts prevented all long-distance interaction.
 - D) Religious art had no relationship to trade routes.

APWH-MCQ3-011

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 3 — Land-Based Empires

Period: c. 1450–1750

Theme: GOV — Governance

Skill: Contextualization

Prompt:

Originalized Asante court statement, c. 1720: “The golden stool is the soul of the people. Let chiefs bring cases to Kumasi, let roads be cleared for messengers, and let gold weights be tested so that trade and tribute may be just.” Which broader context best explains this statement?

- A) The disappearance of centralized states in West Africa after 1450
 - B) The rise of constitutional monarchy in industrial Europe
 - C) The growth of a West African state that combined sacred kingship, administration, and commerce
 - D) The creation of an overseas settler colony in southern Africa
- A) The disappearance of centralized states in West Africa after 1450
 - B) The rise of constitutional monarchy in industrial Europe
 - C) The growth of a West African state that combined sacred kingship, administration, and commerce
 - D) The creation of an overseas settler colony in southern Africa

APWH-MCQ3-012

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 3 — Land-Based Empires

Period: c. 1450–1750

Theme: CDI — Cultural Developments and Interactions

Skill: Sourcing and Situation

Prompt:

Originalized Asante court statement, c. 1720: “The golden stool is the soul of the people. Let chiefs bring cases to Kumasi, let roads be cleared for messengers, and let gold weights be tested so that trade and tribute may be just.” Which point of view most likely shaped the statement?

- A) A European abolitionist’s criticism of plantation slavery
- B) A court-centered view emphasizing the sacred and administrative authority of the Asante ruler
- C) A Buddhist monk’s description of monastery life

- D) A factory owner's defense of child labor
- A) A European abolitionist's criticism of plantation slavery
- B) A court-centered view emphasizing the sacred and administrative authority of the Asante ruler
- C) A Buddhist monk's description of monastery life
- D) A factory owner's defense of child labor

APWH-MCQ3-013

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 3 — Land-Based Empires

Period: c. 1450–1750

Theme: ECN — Economic Systems

Skill: Claims and Evidence in Sources

Prompt:

Originalized Asante court statement, c. 1720: "The golden stool is the soul of the people. Let chiefs bring cases to Kumasi, let roads be cleared for messengers, and let gold weights be tested so that trade and tribute may be just." Which phrase most directly supports the claim that the state regulated economic activity?

- A) "Soul of the people"
- B) "Chiefs bring cases"
- C) "Trade and tribute may be just"
- D) "The golden stool"
- A) "Soul of the people"
- B) "Chiefs bring cases"
- C) "Trade and tribute may be just"
- D) "The golden stool"

APWH-MCQ3-014

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 3 — Land-Based Empires

Period: c. 1450–1750

Theme: TEC — Technology and Innovation

Skill: Developments and Processes

Prompt:

Originalized Asante court statement, c. 1720: "The golden stool is the soul of the people. Let chiefs bring cases to Kumasi, let roads be cleared for messengers, and let gold weights be tested so that trade and tribute may be just." The reference to roads and messengers most directly reflects which state-building process?

- A) The use of communication systems to integrate political authority
- B) The replacement of African trade with European railroads
- C) The abandonment of inland administration
- D) The creation of industrial telegraph networks
- A) The use of communication systems to integrate political authority
- B) The replacement of African trade with European railroads
- C) The abandonment of inland administration
- D) The creation of industrial telegraph networks

APWH-MCQ3-015

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 3 — Land-Based Empires

Period: c. 1450–1750

Theme: GOV — Governance

Skill: Sourcing and Situation

Prompt:

Originalized Ming provincial memorial, c. 1580: “The magistrate reports that households have been registered, granaries inspected, and corvée duties converted into silver payments where local conditions allow. Yet villages complain that clerks hide exemptions and demand extra fees.” What was the most likely purpose of this memorial?

- A) To report administrative conditions and abuses to higher officials
 - B) To invite European companies to govern Chinese provinces
 - C) To abolish taxation throughout the empire
 - D) To announce the end of village agriculture
- A) To report administrative conditions and abuses to higher officials
 - B) To invite European companies to govern Chinese provinces
 - C) To abolish taxation throughout the empire
 - D) To announce the end of village agriculture

APWH-MCQ3-016

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 3 — Land-Based Empires

Period: c. 1450–1750

Theme: ECN — Economic Systems

Skill: Developments and Processes

Prompt:

Originalized Ming provincial memorial, c. 1580: “The magistrate reports that households have been registered, granaries inspected, and corvée duties converted into silver payments where local conditions allow. Yet villages complain that clerks hide exemptions and demand extra fees.” Which development is most directly reflected by the conversion of labor duties into silver payments?

- A) The end of monetized exchange in East Asia
 - B) The growing importance of silver in taxation and state finance
 - C) The replacement of agriculture by factory production
 - D) The disappearance of local officials from imperial governance
- A) The end of monetized exchange in East Asia
 - B) The growing importance of silver in taxation and state finance
 - C) The replacement of agriculture by factory production
 - D) The disappearance of local officials from imperial governance

APWH-MCQ3-017

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 3 — Land-Based Empires

Period: c. 1450–1750

Theme: SIO — Social Interactions and Organization

Skill: Making Connections / Historical Reasoning

Prompt:

Originalized Ming provincial memorial, c. 1580: “The magistrate reports that households have been registered, granaries inspected, and corvée duties converted into silver payments where local conditions allow. Yet villages complain that clerks hide exemptions and demand extra fees.” Which social tension is most directly suggested by the passage?

- A) Conflict between village households and local officials over taxation and labor obligations
- B) Conflict between industrial workers and factory owners over wages
- C) Conflict between nomadic herders and Buddhist monks over pilgrimage sites
- D) Conflict between overseas settlers and Indigenous peoples over plantation land
- A) Conflict between village households and local officials over taxation and labor obligations
- B) Conflict between industrial workers and factory owners over wages
- C) Conflict between nomadic herders and Buddhist monks over pilgrimage sites
- D) Conflict between overseas settlers and Indigenous peoples over plantation land

APWH-MCQ3-018

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 4 — Transoceanic Interconnections

Period: c. 1450–1750

Theme: ECN — Economic Systems

Skill: Quantitative, Map, or Data Interpretation

Prompt:

Table: Potosí silver mining, simplified colonial pattern

Element | Pattern described by officials

Labor | Rotating draft labor from Andean communities

Output | Large quantities of silver sent to colonial treasuries

Supplies | Mercury, mules, food, and cloth brought from other regions

Which conclusion is best supported by the table?

- A) Potosí was economically isolated from surrounding regions.
- B) Silver mining depended only on voluntary wage labor.
- C) Mining eliminated the need for colonial administration.
- D) American silver extraction connected coerced labor, regional supply networks, and imperial revenue.
- A) Potosí was economically isolated from surrounding regions.
- B) Silver mining depended only on voluntary wage labor.
- C) Mining eliminated the need for colonial administration.
- D) American silver extraction connected coerced labor, regional supply networks, and imperial revenue.

APWH-MCQ3-019

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 4 — Transoceanic Interconnections

Period: c. 1450–1750

Theme: SIO — Social Interactions and Organization

Skill: Claims and Evidence in Sources

Prompt:

Table: Potosí silver mining, simplified colonial pattern

Element | Pattern described by officials

Labor | Rotating draft labor from Andean communities

Output | Large quantities of silver sent to colonial treasuries

Supplies | Mercury, mules, food, and cloth brought from other regions

Which evidence most directly supports the claim that coercive labor was central to silver production?

- A) “Rotating draft labor from Andean communities”
- B) “Large quantities of silver”

- C) “Food, and cloth”
- D) “Colonial treasuries”
- A) “Rotating draft labor from Andean communities”
- B) “Large quantities of silver”
- C) “Food, and cloth”
- D) “Colonial treasuries”

APWH-MCQ3-020

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 4 — Transoceanic Interconnections

Period: c. 1450–1750

Theme: ENV — Humans and the Environment

Skill: Contextualization

Prompt:

Table: Potosí silver mining, simplified colonial pattern

Element | Pattern described by officials

Labor | Rotating draft labor from Andean communities

Output | Large quantities of silver sent to colonial treasuries

Supplies | Mercury, mules, food, and cloth brought from other regions

Which environmental consequence was most directly associated with mining systems like Potosí?

- A) The restoration of forests around mining sites
- B) The end of pollution from metal production
- C) Landscape disruption and toxic contamination from mining and mercury use
- D) The disappearance of urban settlement in mining regions
- A) The restoration of forests around mining sites
- B) The end of pollution from metal production
- C) Landscape disruption and toxic contamination from mining and mercury use
- D) The disappearance of urban settlement in mining regions

APWH-MCQ3-021

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 4 — Transoceanic Interconnections

Period: c. 1450–1750

Theme: GOV — Governance

Skill: Argumentation / Claim-Evidence

Prompt:

Table: Potosí silver mining, simplified colonial pattern

Element | Pattern described by officials

Labor | Rotating draft labor from Andean communities

Output | Large quantities of silver sent to colonial treasuries

Supplies | Mercury, mules, food, and cloth brought from other regions

Which argument is best supported by the table?

- A) Spanish colonial rule avoided involvement in economic extraction.
- B) Colonial states used administrative power to mobilize labor and resources for imperial profit.
- C) Silver mining weakened all imperial governments immediately.
- D) Mining centers depended entirely on local self-sufficiency.
- A) Spanish colonial rule avoided involvement in economic extraction.
- B) Colonial states used administrative power to mobilize labor and resources for imperial profit.

- C) Silver mining weakened all imperial governments immediately.
- D) Mining centers depended entirely on local self-sufficiency.

APWH-MCQ3-022

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 4 — Transoceanic Interconnections

Period: c. 1450–1750

Theme: CDI — Cultural Developments and Interactions

Skill: Quantitative, Map, or Data Interpretation

Prompt:

Secondary-source interpretation of a Nahua pictorial annal, central Mexico, sixteenth century: “The painted sequence shows a town before conquest, then riders and armed men arriving, then rows of small burial bundles, and finally local leaders presenting tribute under a new Spanish-style building.” Which change over time is best shown by the sequence?

- A) The disappearance of all Indigenous political structures before Europeans arrived
 - B) The replacement of disease by industrial pollution as the main cause of mortality
 - C) Conquest brought political disruption, demographic catastrophe, and new tribute arrangements.
 - D) Spanish rule immediately ended tribute obligations in central Mexico.
- A) The disappearance of all Indigenous political structures before Europeans arrived
 - B) The replacement of disease by industrial pollution as the main cause of mortality
 - C) Conquest brought political disruption, demographic catastrophe, and new tribute arrangements.
 - D) Spanish rule immediately ended tribute obligations in central Mexico.

APWH-MCQ3-023

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 4 — Transoceanic Interconnections

Period: c. 1450–1750

Theme: ENV — Humans and the Environment

Skill: Making Connections / Historical Reasoning

Prompt:

Secondary-source interpretation of a Nahua pictorial annal, central Mexico, sixteenth century: “The painted sequence shows a town before conquest, then riders and armed men arriving, then rows of small burial bundles, and finally local leaders presenting tribute under a new Spanish-style building.” The rows of burial bundles most directly reflect which broader process?

- A) The spread of epidemic diseases in the Americas after transoceanic contact
 - B) The growth of industrial cities in Latin America
 - C) The end of biological exchange after 1450
 - D) The survival of the Aztec Empire as an independent state
- A) The spread of epidemic diseases in the Americas after transoceanic contact
 - B) The growth of industrial cities in Latin America
 - C) The end of biological exchange after 1450
 - D) The survival of the Aztec Empire as an independent state

APWH-MCQ3-024

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 4 — Transoceanic Interconnections

Period: c. 1450–1750

Theme: GOV — Governance

Skill: Argumentation / Claim-Evidence

Prompt:

Secondary-source interpretation of a Nahua pictorial annal, central Mexico, sixteenth century: “The painted sequence shows a town before conquest, then riders and armed men arriving, then rows of small burial bundles, and finally local leaders presenting tribute under a new Spanish-style building.” Which statement best evaluates the value of the pictorial annal as evidence?

A) It is useful because it shows how Indigenous artists recorded conquest, disease, and colonial tribute from a local perspective.

B) It is useless because visual sources cannot contain historical information.

C) It proves that Indigenous communities welcomed conquest without resistance.

D) It shows only European opinions about industrialization.

A) It is useful because it shows how Indigenous artists recorded conquest, disease, and colonial tribute from a local perspective.

B) It is useless because visual sources cannot contain historical information.

C) It proves that Indigenous communities welcomed conquest without resistance.

D) It shows only European opinions about industrialization.

APWH-MCQ3-025

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 5 — Revolutions

Period: c. 1750–1900

Theme: CDI — Cultural Developments and Interactions

Skill: Sourcing and Situation

Prompt:

Originalized letter by an Indian social reformer, c. 1830: “A society cannot call itself enlightened while widows are burned, girls are denied learning, and sacred words are guarded from public reason. We must use both moral law and useful knowledge to reform custom.” Which audience was the letter most likely intended to influence?

A) Mongol commanders organizing relay stations

B) Educated Indians and colonial officials debating social and educational reform

C) Plantation owners defending slavery in the Caribbean

D) Cold War leaders negotiating military alliances

A) Mongol commanders organizing relay stations

B) Educated Indians and colonial officials debating social and educational reform

C) Plantation owners defending slavery in the Caribbean

D) Cold War leaders negotiating military alliances

APWH-MCQ3-026

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 5 — Revolutions

Period: c. 1750–1900

Theme: SIO — Social Interactions and Organization

Skill: Contextualization

Prompt:

Originalized letter by an Indian social reformer, c. 1830: “A society cannot call itself enlightened while widows are burned, girls are denied learning, and sacred words are guarded from public reason. We must use both moral law and useful knowledge to reform custom.” Which broader context best explains the ideas expressed in the letter?

A) The spread of reform movements that challenged social customs and promoted education

- B) The disappearance of social hierarchy across South Asia before 1750
- C) The end of British influence in India before reform debates began
- D) The rise of fascist ideology in South Asia during the 1830s
- A) The spread of reform movements that challenged social customs and promoted education
- B) The disappearance of social hierarchy across South Asia before 1750
- C) The end of British influence in India before reform debates began
- D) The rise of fascist ideology in South Asia during the 1830s

APWH-MCQ3-027

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 5 — Revolutions

Period: c. 1750–1900

Theme: GOV — Governance

Skill: Argumentation / Claim-Evidence

Prompt:

Originalized letter by an Indian social reformer, c. 1830: “A society cannot call itself enlightened while widows are burned, girls are denied learning, and sacred words are guarded from public reason. We must use both moral law and useful knowledge to reform custom.” Which statement best evaluates the reformer’s argument?

- A) The reformer rejects education as a threat to social improvement.
- B) The reformer defends inherited custom as beyond criticism.
- C) The reformer combines moral criticism and rational inquiry to justify social reform.
- D) The reformer argues that political independence is impossible without industrialization.
- A) The reformer rejects education as a threat to social improvement.
- B) The reformer defends inherited custom as beyond criticism.
- C) The reformer combines moral criticism and rational inquiry to justify social reform.
- D) The reformer argues that political independence is impossible without industrialization.

APWH-MCQ3-028

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 5 — Revolutions

Period: c. 1750–1900

Theme: TEC — Technology and Innovation

Skill: Making Connections / Historical Reasoning

Prompt:

Originalized letter by an Indian social reformer, c. 1830: “A society cannot call itself enlightened while widows are burned, girls are denied learning, and sacred words are guarded from public reason. We must use both moral law and useful knowledge to reform custom.” The call for “useful knowledge” most closely connects the letter to which nineteenth-century development?

- A) The growing prestige of print culture, secular education, and public debate in reform movements
- B) The decline of all literacy in colonial societies
- C) The replacement of written debate by oral-only political traditions
- D) The use of nuclear technology in social reform
- A) The growing prestige of print culture, secular education, and public debate in reform movements
- B) The decline of all literacy in colonial societies
- C) The replacement of written debate by oral-only political traditions
- D) The use of nuclear technology in social reform

APWH-MCQ3-029

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 5 — Revolutions

Period: c. 1750–1900

Theme: ECN — Economic Systems

Skill: Quantitative, Map, or Data Interpretation

Prompt:

Table: Brazil, labor transition in coffee regions, approximate pattern

Period | Enslaved labor | Immigrant wage labor | Political debate

1850s | High | Low | Gradual abolition discussed

1880s | Declining | Rising | Abolitionist pressure increases

1890s | Legally abolished | High | Planters recruit workers from Europe and Japan

Which conclusion is best supported by the table?

- A) Abolition ended plantation agriculture immediately in Brazil.
 - B) Coffee planters shifted labor strategies as slavery declined and was abolished.
 - C) Brazil industrialized before plantation exports developed.
 - D) Immigrant labor disappeared after abolition.
- A) Abolition ended plantation agriculture immediately in Brazil.
 - B) Coffee planters shifted labor strategies as slavery declined and was abolished.
 - C) Brazil industrialized before plantation exports developed.
 - D) Immigrant labor disappeared after abolition.

APWH-MCQ3-030

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 5 — Revolutions

Period: c. 1750–1900

Theme: SIO — Social Interactions and Organization

Skill: Claims and Evidence in Sources

Prompt:

Table: Brazil, labor transition in coffee regions, approximate pattern

Period | Enslaved labor | Immigrant wage labor | Political debate

1850s | High | Low | Gradual abolition discussed

1880s | Declining | Rising | Abolitionist pressure increases

1890s | Legally abolished | High | Planters recruit workers from Europe and Japan

Which evidence best supports the claim that abolition was connected to changing labor systems?

- A) “Planters recruit workers from Europe and Japan”
 - B) “Gradual abolition discussed”
 - C) “1850s”
 - D) “Political debate”
- A) “Planters recruit workers from Europe and Japan”
 - B) “Gradual abolition discussed”
 - C) “1850s”
 - D) “Political debate”

APWH-MCQ3-031

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 5 — Revolutions

Period: c. 1750–1900

Theme: GOV — Governance

Skill: Developments and Processes

Prompt:

Table: Brazil, labor transition in coffee regions, approximate pattern

Period | Enslaved labor | Immigrant wage labor | Political debate

1850s | High | Low | Gradual abolition discussed

1880s | Declining | Rising | Abolitionist pressure increases

1890s | Legally abolished | High | Planters recruit workers from Europe and Japan

The legal abolition of slavery in Brazil was part of which broader nineteenth-century development?

- A) The expansion of serfdom across the Americas
- B) The global decline of coerced chattel slavery under abolitionist pressure
- C) The restoration of hereditary monarchy in every Atlantic society
- D) The disappearance of export agriculture in Latin America
- A) The expansion of serfdom across the Americas
- B) The global decline of coerced chattel slavery under abolitionist pressure
- C) The restoration of hereditary monarchy in every Atlantic society
- D) The disappearance of export agriculture in Latin America

APWH-MCQ3-032

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 5 — Revolutions

Period: c. 1750–1900

Theme: CDI — Cultural Developments and Interactions

Skill: Making Connections / Historical Reasoning

Prompt:

Table: Brazil, labor transition in coffee regions, approximate pattern

Period | Enslaved labor | Immigrant wage labor | Political debate

1850s | High | Low | Gradual abolition discussed

1880s | Declining | Rising | Abolitionist pressure increases

1890s | Legally abolished | High | Planters recruit workers from Europe and Japan

Which broader social change is most directly suggested by the table?

- A) The end of all migration to Latin America
- B) The complete equality of formerly enslaved people after abolition
- C) The replacement of plantation society by subsistence farming
- D) The growth of multiethnic labor forces in some export economies
- A) The end of all migration to Latin America
- B) The complete equality of formerly enslaved people after abolition
- C) The replacement of plantation society by subsistence farming
- D) The growth of multiethnic labor forces in some export economies

APWH-MCQ3-033

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 6 — Consequences of Industrialization

Period: c. 1750–1900

Theme: TEC — Technology and Innovation

Skill: Quantitative, Map, or Data Interpretation

Prompt:

Described map: “A map of British India c. 1880 shows rail lines radiating from cotton, jute, wheat, and tea districts toward Bombay, Calcutta, Madras, and Karachi. Port symbols mark export docks, while shaded areas show regions linked to plantation or cash-crop production.” Which conclusion is best supported by the map?

- A) Railways helped connect colonial production zones to export ports.
 - B) British India’s economy became isolated from global markets.
 - C) Railroads were used mainly to end cash-crop production.
 - D) Indian ports declined as rail lines expanded.
- A) Railways helped connect colonial production zones to export ports.
 - B) British India’s economy became isolated from global markets.
 - C) Railroads were used mainly to end cash-crop production.
 - D) Indian ports declined as rail lines expanded.

APWH-MCQ3-034

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 6 — Consequences of Industrialization

Period: c. 1750–1900

Theme: ECN — Economic Systems

Skill: Developments and Processes

Prompt:

Described map: “A map of British India c. 1880 shows rail lines radiating from cotton, jute, wheat, and tea districts toward Bombay, Calcutta, Madras, and Karachi. Port symbols mark export docks, while shaded areas show regions linked to plantation or cash-crop production.” The pattern shown most directly reflects which process?

- A) The collapse of imperial economic planning
 - B) Colonial integration into global capitalist markets
 - C) The replacement of railroads by caravan transport
 - D) The end of agricultural exports from South Asia
- A) The collapse of imperial economic planning
 - B) Colonial integration into global capitalist markets
 - C) The replacement of railroads by caravan transport
 - D) The end of agricultural exports from South Asia

APWH-MCQ3-035

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 6 — Consequences of Industrialization

Period: c. 1750–1900

Theme: ENV — Humans and the Environment

Skill: Claims and Evidence in Sources

Prompt:

Described map: “A map of British India c. 1880 shows rail lines radiating from cotton, jute, wheat, and tea districts toward Bombay, Calcutta, Madras, and Karachi. Port symbols mark export docks, while shaded areas show regions linked to plantation or cash-crop production.” Which map feature most directly supports the claim that imperial infrastructure reshaped environments for export production?

- A) The name “British India”
 - B) The location of the Indian Ocean
 - C) The presence of several port cities
 - D) The shaded cash-crop and plantation regions linked to rail lines
- A) The name “British India”
 - B) The location of the Indian Ocean

- C) The presence of several port cities
- D) The shaded cash-crop and plantation regions linked to rail lines

APWH-MCQ3-036

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 6 — Consequences of Industrialization

Period: c. 1750–1900

Theme: GOV — Governance

Skill: Argumentation / Claim-Evidence

Prompt:

Described map: “A map of British India c. 1880 shows rail lines radiating from cotton, jute, wheat, and tea districts toward Bombay, Calcutta, Madras, and Karachi. Port symbols mark export docks, while shaded areas show regions linked to plantation or cash-crop production.” Which argument is best supported by the map?

- A) Railways were politically neutral and unrelated to empire.
- B) Colonial governments built infrastructure only for local food security.
- C) Industrial-era imperial rule often used infrastructure to strengthen extraction and export.
- D) Railroads ended British administrative control in South Asia.
- A) Railways were politically neutral and unrelated to empire.
- B) Colonial governments built infrastructure only for local food security.
- C) Industrial-era imperial rule often used infrastructure to strengthen extraction and export.
- D) Railroads ended British administrative control in South Asia.

APWH-MCQ3-037

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 6 — Consequences of Industrialization

Period: c. 1750–1900

Theme: GOV — Governance

Skill: Sourcing and Situation

Prompt:

Originalized testimony from East Africa, early twentieth century: “Officials ordered cotton fields planted where food had grown. Men were beaten when the quotas failed. Some elders said the water medicine would turn bullets aside, for the people could no longer endure tax, labor, and forced crops.” What was the most likely purpose of this testimony?

- A) To praise colonial agricultural policy as voluntary cooperation
- B) To encourage European settlement in New Zealand
- C) To describe local grievances and beliefs that contributed to anti-colonial resistance
- D) To defend the end of all taxation in European colonies
- A) To praise colonial agricultural policy as voluntary cooperation
- B) To encourage European settlement in New Zealand
- C) To describe local grievances and beliefs that contributed to anti-colonial resistance
- D) To defend the end of all taxation in European colonies

APWH-MCQ3-038

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 6 — Consequences of Industrialization

Period: c. 1750–1900

Theme: SIO — Social Interactions and Organization

Skill: Argumentation / Claim-Evidence

Prompt:

Originalized testimony from East Africa, early twentieth century: “Officials ordered cotton fields planted where food had grown. Men were beaten when the quotas failed. Some elders said the water medicine would turn bullets aside, for the people could no longer endure tax, labor, and forced crops.” Which statement best evaluates the causes of resistance described?

- A) Resistance was caused only by European religious teachings.
 - B) Resistance resulted from resentment against forced labor, taxation, and coerced cash-crop production.
 - C) Resistance was unrelated to colonial economic demands.
 - D) Resistance occurred because local communities wanted more plantation quotas.
- A) Resistance was caused only by European religious teachings.
 - B) Resistance resulted from resentment against forced labor, taxation, and coerced cash-crop production.
 - C) Resistance was unrelated to colonial economic demands.
 - D) Resistance occurred because local communities wanted more plantation quotas.

APWH-MCQ3-039

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 6 — Consequences of Industrialization

Period: c. 1750–1900

Theme: CDI — Cultural Developments and Interactions

Skill: Claims and Evidence in Sources

Prompt:

Originalized testimony from East Africa, early twentieth century: “Officials ordered cotton fields planted where food had grown. Men were beaten when the quotas failed. Some elders said the water medicine would turn bullets aside, for the people could no longer endure tax, labor, and forced crops.” Which phrase best shows that cultural belief shaped resistance?

- A) “Water medicine would turn bullets aside”
 - B) “Cotton fields planted”
 - C) “Tax, labor, and forced crops”
 - D) “Officials ordered”
- A) “Water medicine would turn bullets aside”
 - B) “Cotton fields planted”
 - C) “Tax, labor, and forced crops”
 - D) “Officials ordered”

APWH-MCQ3-040

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 6 — Consequences of Industrialization

Period: c. 1750–1900

Theme: ECN — Economic Systems

Skill: Making Connections / Historical Reasoning

Prompt:

Originalized testimony from East Africa, early twentieth century: “Officials ordered cotton fields planted where food had grown. Men were beaten when the quotas failed. Some elders said the water medicine would turn bullets aside, for the people could no longer endure tax, labor, and forced crops.” The testimony most directly connects colonial rule to which economic process?

- A) The abolition of export agriculture

- B) The use of forced production to supply global markets with raw materials
- C) The creation of independent African industrial corporations
- D) The decline of cash-crop cultivation under imperial rule
- A) The abolition of export agriculture
- B) The use of forced production to supply global markets with raw materials
- C) The creation of independent African industrial corporations
- D) The decline of cash-crop cultivation under imperial rule

APWH-MCQ3-041

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 7 — Global Conflict

Period: c. 1900–present

Theme: CDI — Cultural Developments and Interactions

Skill: Visual / Material Culture Analysis

Prompt:

Described propaganda poster, Japanese-occupied Southeast Asia, c. 1943: “A smiling Japanese soldier points toward a rising sun while farmers from Burma, Malaya, and Indonesia stand beside sacks of rice. The caption says, ‘Asia prospers when Asia is freed from the West.’ Small military aircraft appear in the background.” Which interpretation is best supported by the poster?

- A) Japan presented its wartime expansion as anti-Western liberation while using military power to control resources.
- B) Japan rejected propaganda as a tool of empire.
- C) Southeast Asian farmers controlled Japanese military policy.
- D) The poster criticizes Japanese imperialism from an Allied perspective.
- A) Japan presented its wartime expansion as anti-Western liberation while using military power to control resources.
- B) Japan rejected propaganda as a tool of empire.
- C) Southeast Asian farmers controlled Japanese military policy.
- D) The poster criticizes Japanese imperialism from an Allied perspective.

APWH-MCQ3-042

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 7 — Global Conflict

Period: c. 1900–present

Theme: ECN — Economic Systems

Skill: Claims and Evidence in Sources

Prompt:

Described propaganda poster, Japanese-occupied Southeast Asia, c. 1943: “A smiling Japanese soldier points toward a rising sun while farmers from Burma, Malaya, and Indonesia stand beside sacks of rice. The caption says, ‘Asia prospers when Asia is freed from the West.’ Small military aircraft appear in the background.” Which detail most directly suggests the economic importance of occupied territories?

- A) The smiling soldier
- B) The rising sun
- C) The sacks of rice beside Southeast Asian farmers
- D) The anti-Western caption
- A) The smiling soldier
- B) The rising sun

- C) The sacks of rice beside Southeast Asian farmers
- D) The anti-Western caption

APWH-MCQ3-043

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 7 — Global Conflict

Period: c. 1900–present

Theme: GOV — Governance

Skill: Argumentation / Claim-Evidence

Prompt:

Described propaganda poster, Japanese-occupied Southeast Asia, c. 1943: “A smiling Japanese soldier points toward a rising sun while farmers from Burma, Malaya, and Indonesia stand beside sacks of rice. The caption says, ‘Asia prospers when Asia is freed from the West.’ Small military aircraft appear in the background.” Which statement best evaluates the poster’s argument?

- A) It openly admits that Japan intended to restore European colonial rule.
 - B) It denies that military force played any role in wartime Asia.
 - C) It argues that Southeast Asian independence should be delayed until after industrialization.
 - D) It uses anti-colonial language to justify Japanese imperial control during World War II.
- A) It openly admits that Japan intended to restore European colonial rule.
 - B) It denies that military force played any role in wartime Asia.
 - C) It argues that Southeast Asian independence should be delayed until after industrialization.
 - D) It uses anti-colonial language to justify Japanese imperial control during World War II.

APWH-MCQ3-044

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 7 — Global Conflict

Period: c. 1900–present

Theme: GOV — Governance

Skill: Quantitative, Map, or Data Interpretation

Prompt:

Described map: “A map of Korea, 1950–1953, shows rapid movement of front lines from the 38th parallel southward, then northward near the Yalu River, and finally back close to the 38th parallel. Symbols mark United Nations forces, North Korean forces, Chinese intervention, and heavy civilian displacement.” Which conclusion is best supported by the map?

- A) The Korean War ended all Cold War tensions in East Asia.
 - B) The conflict remained entirely within North Korea.
 - C) The Korean War involved international intervention and shifting front lines before ending near its starting boundary.
 - D) The United Nations refused to participate in the conflict.
- A) The Korean War ended all Cold War tensions in East Asia.
 - B) The conflict remained entirely within North Korea.
 - C) The Korean War involved international intervention and shifting front lines before ending near its starting boundary.
 - D) The United Nations refused to participate in the conflict.

APWH-MCQ3-045

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 7 — Global Conflict

Period: c. 1900–present

Theme: SIO — Social Interactions and Organization

Skill: Making Connections / Historical Reasoning

Prompt:

Described map: “A map of Korea, 1950–1953, shows rapid movement of front lines from the 38th parallel southward, then northward near the Yalu River, and finally back close to the 38th parallel. Symbols mark United Nations forces, North Korean forces, Chinese intervention, and heavy civilian displacement.” Which social consequence is most directly shown by the map?

- A) The disappearance of refugees from twentieth-century wars
 - B) Large-scale civilian displacement caused by military conflict
 - C) The complete protection of civilians by Cold War armies
 - D) The end of urban destruction in modern warfare
- A) The disappearance of refugees from twentieth-century wars
 - B) Large-scale civilian displacement caused by military conflict
 - C) The complete protection of civilians by Cold War armies
 - D) The end of urban destruction in modern warfare

APWH-MCQ3-046

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 8 — Cold War and Decolonization

Period: c. 1900–present

Theme: GOV — Governance

Skill: Contextualization

Prompt:

Described map: “A map of Korea, 1950–1953, shows rapid movement of front lines from the 38th parallel southward, then northward near the Yalu River, and finally back close to the 38th parallel. Symbols mark United Nations forces, North Korean forces, Chinese intervention, and heavy civilian displacement.” Which broader context best explains the conflict shown?

- A) Cold War rivalry and the division of Korea into competing political systems
 - B) The decline of all communist movements after World War I
 - C) The creation of the Indian Ocean trade network
 - D) The unification of East Asia under one democratic government
- A) Cold War rivalry and the division of Korea into competing political systems
 - B) The decline of all communist movements after World War I
 - C) The creation of the Indian Ocean trade network
 - D) The unification of East Asia under one democratic government

APWH-MCQ3-047

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 8 — Cold War and Decolonization

Period: c. 1900–present

Theme: TEC — Technology and Innovation

Skill: Visual / Material Culture Analysis

Prompt:

Described map: “A map of Korea, 1950–1953, shows rapid movement of front lines from the 38th parallel southward, then northward near the Yalu River, and finally back close to the 38th parallel. Symbols mark United Nations forces, North Korean forces, Chinese intervention, and heavy civilian displacement.” Which feature of the map best illustrates the internationalization of the conflict?

- A) The Korean peninsula's coastline
- B) The position of the 38th parallel
- C) The location of rivers and mountains
- D) The symbols marking United Nations forces and Chinese intervention
- A) The Korean peninsula's coastline
- B) The position of the 38th parallel
- C) The location of rivers and mountains
- D) The symbols marking United Nations forces and Chinese intervention

APWH-MCQ3-048

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 8 — Cold War and Decolonization

Period: c. 1900–present

Theme: SIO — Social Interactions and Organization

Skill: Sourcing and Situation

Prompt:

Originalized refugee agency report, late 1970s: “Families fleeing war in Indochina crowd boats and camps; others cross mountains from Afghanistan or leave drought-stricken areas in the Horn of Africa. Relief workers ask governments for resettlement places, food, and legal protection.” What was the most likely purpose of the report?

- A) To mobilize international assistance and legal protection for displaced populations
- B) To encourage states to abolish all refugee laws
- C) To prove that migration ended after decolonization
- D) To defend colonial rule in Asia and Africa
- A) To mobilize international assistance and legal protection for displaced populations
- B) To encourage states to abolish all refugee laws
- C) To prove that migration ended after decolonization
- D) To defend colonial rule in Asia and Africa

APWH-MCQ3-049

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 8 — Cold War and Decolonization

Period: c. 1900–present

Theme: ENV — Humans and the Environment

Skill: Claims and Evidence in Sources

Prompt:

Originalized refugee agency report, late 1970s: “Families fleeing war in Indochina crowd boats and camps; others cross mountains from Afghanistan or leave drought-stricken areas in the Horn of Africa. Relief workers ask governments for resettlement places, food, and legal protection.” Which phrase best supports the claim that displacement had multiple causes?

- A) “Crowd boats and camps”
- B) “Relief workers”
- C) “War in Indochina,” “Afghanistan,” and “drought-stricken areas”
- D) “Legal protection”
- A) “Crowd boats and camps”
- B) “Relief workers”
- C) “War in Indochina,” “Afghanistan,” and “drought-stricken areas”
- D) “Legal protection”

APWH-MCQ3-050

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 8 — Cold War and Decolonization

Period: c. 1900–present

Theme: GOV — Governance

Skill: Making Connections / Historical Reasoning

Prompt:

Originalized refugee agency report, late 1970s: “Families fleeing war in Indochina crowd boats and camps; others cross mountains from Afghanistan or leave drought-stricken areas in the Horn of Africa. Relief workers ask governments for resettlement places, food, and legal protection.” The report most directly reflects which post-1945 development?

- A) The disappearance of international institutions
 - B) The growth of global humanitarian and refugee-protection systems
 - C) The end of war-related migration
 - D) The return of mandate systems after World War II
- A) The disappearance of international institutions
 - B) The growth of global humanitarian and refugee-protection systems
 - C) The end of war-related migration
 - D) The return of mandate systems after World War II

APWH-MCQ3-051

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 9 — Globalization

Period: c. 1900–present

Theme: SIO — Social Interactions and Organization

Skill: Making Connections / Historical Reasoning

Prompt:

Originalized refugee agency report, late 1970s: “Families fleeing war in Indochina crowd boats and camps; others cross mountains from Afghanistan or leave drought-stricken areas in the Horn of Africa. Relief workers ask governments for resettlement places, food, and legal protection.” Which later globalization-era issue shows continuity with the report?

- A) The end of cross-border migration after the Cold War
 - B) The decline of humanitarian organizations after 1945
 - C) The disappearance of legal debates over asylum
 - D) Ongoing international debates over refugees, borders, and humanitarian responsibility
- A) The end of cross-border migration after the Cold War
 - B) The decline of humanitarian organizations after 1945
 - C) The disappearance of legal debates over asylum
 - D) Ongoing international debates over refugees, borders, and humanitarian responsibility

APWH-MCQ3-052

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 9 — Globalization

Period: c. 1900–present

Theme: ENV — Humans and the Environment

Skill: Quantitative, Map, or Data Interpretation

Prompt:

Table: Global consumption of ozone-depleting CFCs, simplified index

Year	Global CFC consumption index, 1986 = 100
1986	100
1995	42
2010	3

Which conclusion is best supported by the table?

- A) CFC use increased steadily after 1986.
- B) Environmental regulation had no effect on industrial chemicals.
- C) International efforts helped sharply reduce CFC consumption.
- D) CFCs were used only before World War II.
- A) CFC use increased steadily after 1986.
- B) Environmental regulation had no effect on industrial chemicals.
- C) International efforts helped sharply reduce CFC consumption.
- D) CFCs were used only before World War II.

APWH-MCQ3-053

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 9 — Globalization

Period: c. 1900–present

Theme: GOV — Governance

Skill: Sourcing and Situation

Prompt:

Table: Global consumption of ozone-depleting CFCs, simplified index

Year	Global CFC consumption index, 1986 = 100
1986	100
1995	42
2010	3

Which purpose would international environmental agreements most likely have had in relation to the trend shown?

- A) To increase CFC production for export
- B) To coordinate state action to phase out chemicals damaging the ozone layer
- C) To end all scientific research on the atmosphere
- D) To transfer environmental authority to colonial empires
- A) To increase CFC production for export
- B) To coordinate state action to phase out chemicals damaging the ozone layer
- C) To end all scientific research on the atmosphere
- D) To transfer environmental authority to colonial empires

APWH-MCQ3-054

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 9 — Globalization

Period: c. 1900–present

Theme: TEC — Technology and Innovation

Skill: Claims and Evidence in Sources

Prompt:

Table: Global consumption of ozone-depleting CFCs, simplified index

Year	Global CFC consumption index, 1986 = 100
1986	100
1995	42
2010	3

Which evidence best supports the claim that consumption declined dramatically?

- A) The index fell from 100 in 1986 to 3 in 2010.
 - B) The index begins in 1986.
 - C) The table uses index values.
 - D) The year 1995 appears between 1986 and 2010.
- A) The index fell from 100 in 1986 to 3 in 2010.
 - B) The index begins in 1986.
 - C) The table uses index values.
 - D) The year 1995 appears between 1986 and 2010.

APWH-MCQ3-055

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 9 — Globalization

Period: c. 1900–present

Theme: CDI — Cultural Developments and Interactions

Skill: Making Connections / Historical Reasoning

Prompt:

Table: Global consumption of ozone-depleting CFCs, simplified index

Year | Global CFC consumption index, 1986 = 100

1986 | 100

1995 | 42

2010 | 3

The trend in the table most directly illustrates which broader feature of globalization?

- A) Environmental problems became entirely local after 1945.
 - B) Global cooperation eliminated all disagreements between rich and poor countries.
 - C) Scientific knowledge ceased to influence public policy.
 - D) Transnational scientific and political cooperation could address shared environmental risks.
- A) Environmental problems became entirely local after 1945.
 - B) Global cooperation eliminated all disagreements between rich and poor countries.
 - C) Scientific knowledge ceased to influence public policy.
 - D) Transnational scientific and political cooperation could address shared environmental risks.

PART B — ANSWER KEY + EXPLANATIONS

APWH-MCQ3-001 — Correct: C — Correct Answer: To legitimize royal authority through religion, lineage, and protection of agrarian society — Explanation: The chronicle links the king to church lands, ancient lineage, judges, nobles, and village protection.

APWH-MCQ3-002 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: Christianity remained an important source of political and cultural legitimacy in Ethiopia. — Explanation: The reference to priests, church lands, and sacred royal lineage reflects Ethiopia's Christian political culture.

APWH-MCQ3-003 — Correct: D — Correct Answer: "Sent judges to settle disputes among the mountain districts" — Explanation: This phrase directly connects royal authority to maintaining order across communities.

APWH-MCQ3-004 — Correct: B — Correct Answer: Monumental architecture and luxury goods reflected elite power and regional exchange. — Explanation: Elite enclosures, stone walls, imported beads, cattle wealth, and gold-working all suggest hierarchy and exchange.

APWH-MCQ3-005 — Correct: C — Correct Answer: The rise of a powerful inland state connected to regional commerce — Explanation: Great Zimbabwe was an inland state whose wealth was connected to cattle, gold, and regional trade.

APWH-MCQ3-006 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: Inland southern African communities had connections to Indian Ocean commercial networks through coastal intermediaries. — Explanation: Imported glass beads suggest indirect links between inland elites and coastal Indian Ocean trade.

APWH-MCQ3-007 — Correct: D — Correct Answer: The enclosed elite spaces — Explanation: Separate elite spaces are direct evidence of social hierarchy.

APWH-MCQ3-008 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: Religious and artistic traditions spread through Silk Road exchange. — Explanation: Buddhist cave sites along caravan corridors show religious and artistic diffusion through trade networks.

APWH-MCQ3-009 — Correct: D — Correct Answer: Central Asian donors shown beside Buddhist figures — Explanation: Central Asian donors represented in Buddhist art show cultural blending along the Silk Roads.

APWH-MCQ3-010 — Correct: B — Correct Answer: Cultural exchange often followed routes shaped by oasis geography and caravan travel. — Explanation: Cave sites near oasis routes indicate that geography shaped cultural and religious exchange.

APWH-MCQ3-011 — Correct: C — Correct Answer: The growth of a West African state that combined sacred kingship, administration, and commerce — Explanation: The golden stool, chiefs, Kumasi, messengers, gold weights, trade, and tribute show sacred and administrative state power.

APWH-MCQ3-012 — Correct: B — Correct Answer: A court-centered view emphasizing the sacred and administrative authority of the Asante ruler — Explanation: The statement presents Asante authority from the perspective of the court and ruler.

APWH-MCQ3-013 — Correct: C — Correct Answer: “Trade and tribute may be just” — Explanation: This phrase directly shows state concern with regulating commerce and tribute.

APWH-MCQ3-014 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: The use of communication systems to integrate political authority — Explanation: Roads and messengers helped connect chiefs and regions to the Asante capital.

APWH-MCQ3-015 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: To report administrative conditions and abuses to higher officials — Explanation: The memorial reports household registration, granaries, tax changes, and clerk abuses to the state.

APWH-MCQ3-016 — Correct: B — Correct Answer: The growing importance of silver in taxation and state finance — Explanation: The conversion of labor duties into silver payments reflects silver’s role in Ming fiscal systems.

APWH-MCQ3-017 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: Conflict between village households and local officials over taxation and labor obligations — Explanation: Villagers complain about clerks hiding exemptions and demanding extra fees.

APWH-MCQ3-018 — Correct: D — Correct Answer: American silver extraction connected coerced labor, regional supply networks, and imperial revenue. — Explanation: The table links draft labor, silver sent to treasuries, and supplies brought from multiple regions.

APWH-MCQ3-019 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: “Rotating draft labor from Andean communities” — Explanation: Rotating draft labor shows coerced labor mobilization for mining.

APWH-MCQ3-020 — Correct: C — Correct Answer: Landscape disruption and toxic contamination from mining and mercury use — Explanation: Silver mining and mercury processing damaged landscapes and created toxic pollution.

APWH-MCQ3-021 — Correct: B — Correct Answer: Colonial states used administrative power to mobilize labor and resources for imperial profit. — Explanation: Draft labor, treasuries, and supply networks show colonial administrative extraction.

APWH-MCQ3-022 — Correct: C — Correct Answer: Conquest brought political disruption, demographic catastrophe, and new tribute arrangements. — Explanation: The annal sequence shows conquest, death, and tribute under Spanish colonial rule.

APWH-MCQ3-023 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: The spread of epidemic diseases in the Americas after transoceanic contact — Explanation: Burial bundles after conquest point to demographic catastrophe from epidemic disease.

APWH-MCQ3-024 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: It is useful because it shows how Indigenous artists recorded conquest, disease, and colonial tribute from a local perspective. — Explanation: The pictorial annal preserves Indigenous visual evidence of colonial transformation.

APWH-MCQ3-025 — Correct: B — Correct Answer: Educated Indians and colonial officials debating social and educational reform — Explanation: The letter addresses reform of custom, education, and public reason in a colonial Indian reform context.

APWH-MCQ3-026 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: The spread of reform movements that challenged social customs and promoted education — Explanation: The letter fits nineteenth-century reform movements focused on education, gender, and social practices.

APWH-MCQ3-027 — Correct: C — Correct Answer: The reformer combines moral criticism and rational inquiry to justify social reform. — Explanation: The reformer invokes moral law, useful knowledge, public reason, and criticism of harmful customs.

APWH-MCQ3-028 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: The growing prestige of print culture, secular education, and public debate in reform movements — Explanation: “Useful knowledge” and public reason connect the letter to education and print-based reform debates.

APWH-MCQ3-029 — Correct: B — Correct Answer: Coffee planters shifted labor strategies as slavery declined and was abolished. — Explanation: The table shows enslaved labor declining while immigrant wage labor rises.

APWH-MCQ3-030 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: “Planters recruit workers from Europe and Japan” — Explanation: This directly shows a new labor strategy after abolition.

APWH-MCQ3-031 — Correct: B — Correct Answer: The global decline of coerced chattel slavery under abolitionist pressure — Explanation: Brazil's abolition was part of a wider nineteenth-century abolitionist movement.

APWH-MCQ3-032 — Correct: D — Correct Answer: The growth of multiethnic labor forces in some export economies — Explanation: Recruitment from Europe and Japan suggests increasingly diverse labor forces in Brazilian coffee regions.

APWH-MCQ3-033 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: Railways helped connect colonial production zones to export ports. — Explanation: The map shows rail lines linking cash-crop regions to major export ports.

APWH-MCQ3-034 — Correct: B — Correct Answer: Colonial integration into global capitalist markets — Explanation: Railroads, cash crops, and export ports show colonial integration into global markets.

APWH-MCQ3-035 — Correct: D — Correct Answer: The shaded cash-crop and plantation regions linked to rail lines — Explanation: These features directly show environmental and economic reorganization for exports.

APWH-MCQ3-036 — Correct: C — Correct Answer: Industrial-era imperial rule often used infrastructure to strengthen extraction and export. — Explanation: Railways connected colonial production zones to ports, supporting imperial extraction.

APWH-MCQ3-037 — Correct: C — Correct Answer: To describe local grievances and beliefs that contributed to anti-colonial resistance — Explanation: The testimony highlights forced cotton, violence, taxes, labor, and cultural beliefs tied to resistance.

APWH-MCQ3-038 — Correct: B — Correct Answer: Resistance resulted from resentment against forced labor, taxation, and coerced cash-crop production. — Explanation: The passage directly identifies tax, labor, forced crops, and punishment as grievances.

APWH-MCQ3-039 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: "Water medicine would turn bullets aside" — Explanation: This phrase shows the role of spiritual belief in resistance.

APWH-MCQ3-040 — Correct: B — Correct Answer: The use of forced production to supply global markets with raw materials — Explanation: Forced cotton cultivation links colonial rule to raw-material production for global markets.

APWH-MCQ3-041 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: Japan presented its wartime expansion as anti-Western liberation while using military power to control resources. — Explanation: The poster combines anti-Western liberation language with rice resources, soldiers, aircraft, and occupation.

APWH-MCQ3-042 — Correct: C — Correct Answer: The sacks of rice beside Southeast Asian farmers — Explanation: The rice sacks indicate the economic importance of agricultural resources in occupied territories.

APWH-MCQ3-043 — Correct: D — Correct Answer: It uses anti-colonial language to justify Japanese imperial control during World War II. — Explanation: The caption presents Japan as liberating Asia while the military imagery reveals imperial control.

APWH-MCQ3-044 — Correct: C — Correct Answer: The Korean War involved international intervention and shifting front lines before ending near its starting boundary. — Explanation: The map shows UN forces, Chinese intervention, major front-line shifts, and a final boundary near the 38th parallel.

APWH-MCQ3-045 — Correct: B — Correct Answer: Large-scale civilian displacement caused by military conflict — Explanation: The map's displacement symbols directly show civilians forced to move by war.

APWH-MCQ3-046 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: Cold War rivalry and the division of Korea into competing political systems — Explanation: The conflict grew from Cold War division and competing communist and anti-communist governments.

APWH-MCQ3-047 — Correct: D — Correct Answer: The symbols marking United Nations forces and Chinese intervention — Explanation: Those symbols show that the conflict involved outside powers, not only Korean forces.

APWH-MCQ3-048 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: To mobilize international assistance and legal protection for displaced populations — Explanation: The report asks governments for resettlement, food, and legal protection.

APWH-MCQ3-049 — Correct: C — Correct Answer: "War in Indochina," "Afghanistan," and "drought-stricken areas" — Explanation: These examples show that displacement came from war, invasion, and environmental stress.

APWH-MCQ3-050 — Correct: B — Correct Answer: The growth of global humanitarian and refugee-protection systems — Explanation: The report reflects post-1945 institutions and norms for refugees and displaced people.

APWH-MCQ3-051 — Correct: D — Correct Answer: Ongoing international debates over refugees, borders, and humanitarian responsibility — Explanation: Modern globalization continues to involve debates over refugee protection, migration, and state borders.

APWH-MCQ3-052 — Correct: C — Correct Answer: International efforts helped sharply reduce CFC consumption. — Explanation: The index falls from 100 to 3, consistent with successful global regulation of ozone-depleting chemicals.

APWH-MCQ3-053 — Correct: B — Correct Answer: To coordinate state action to phase out chemicals damaging the ozone layer — Explanation: Environmental agreements sought coordinated action against chemicals that harmed the ozone layer.

APWH-MCQ3-054 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: The index fell from 100 in 1986 to 3 in 2010. — Explanation: The large decline in the index directly supports the claim of dramatic reduction.

APWH-MCQ3-055 — Correct: D — Correct Answer: Transnational scientific and political cooperation could address shared environmental risks. — Explanation: The trend reflects global cooperation based on scientific evidence and international policy.

SECTION 2 — SERIES DO-NOT-REPEAT BANK UPDATE — DO NOT IMPORT

SERIES DO-NOT-REPEAT BANK UPDATE — APWH-MCQ3

- APWH-MCQ3-001–003: Unit 1; c. 1200–1450; Ethiopian highlands; original royal chronicle; Christian kingship, church lands, nobles, agrarian villages, judges; reasoning paths include purpose, religious contextualization, evidence for social order; source type: primary-style chronicle; misconception targeted: treating African state legitimacy as nonreligious or coastal-only.
- APWH-MCQ3-004–007: Units 1 and 2; c. 1200–1450; Great Zimbabwe/southern Africa; secondary-source interpretation of architecture and material evidence; stone enclosures, elite spaces, imported glass beads, cattle wealth, gold-working; reasoning paths include material culture analysis, state formation, Indian Ocean-linked exchange, social hierarchy evidence; visual/material type: monumental stone architecture and luxury goods; misconception targeted: treating Great Zimbabwe as isolated or European-founded.
- APWH-MCQ3-008–010: Unit 2; c. 1200–1450; Central and East Asia; described Silk Road map and Buddhist cave mural; Dunhuang, Turfan, Kucha, oasis geography, Central Asian donors, Buddhist figures; reasoning paths include religious diffusion, cultural blending, geographic reasoning; visual/map type: cave art plus caravan-route map; misconception targeted: assuming trade routes moved goods but not religious or artistic traditions.
- APWH-MCQ3-011–014: Unit 3; c. 1450–1750; Asante/West Africa; original court statement; golden stool, Kumasi, chiefs, roads, messengers, gold weights, trade and tribute; reasoning paths include contextualization, court POV, economic regulation evidence, communication infrastructure; source type: primary-style court statement; misconception targeted: reducing Asante power to trade alone or ignoring sacred kingship.
- APWH-MCQ3-015–017: Unit 3; c. 1450–1750; Ming China; original provincial memorial; household registration, granaries, corvée conversion to silver, clerk abuses, village complaints; reasoning paths include administrative purpose, silver taxation, local social tension; source type: bureaucratic memorial; misconception targeted: treating Ming governance as locally frictionless or non-monetized.
- APWH-MCQ3-018–021: Unit 4; c. 1450–1750; Potosí/Andes/Spanish America; data table; rotating draft labor, mercury, mules, food, cloth, silver to colonial treasuries; reasoning paths include data interpretation, coerced labor evidence, mining environmental effects, colonial extraction argument; table type: simplified mining labor-output-supply table; misconception targeted: treating silver mining as voluntary, local, or environmentally neutral.
- APWH-MCQ3-022–024: Unit 4; c. 1450–1750; central Mexico/Nahua communities; secondary-source interpretation of pictorial annal; conquest sequence, riders, burial bundles, tribute under Spanish-style building; reasoning paths include CCOT, epidemic disease causation, Indigenous visual-source evaluation; visual type: Indigenous pictorial annal; misconception targeted: assuming Indigenous perspectives are absent or that conquest ended tribute obligations.
- APWH-MCQ3-025–028: Unit 5; c. 1750–1900; India/South Asia; original reformer letter; widow burning, girls' education, sacred texts, public reason, useful knowledge; reasoning paths include audience, social reform context, argument evaluation, print/education connection; source type: primary-style reform letter; misconception targeted: treating reform movements as only European or purely political.

- APWH-MCQ3-029–032: Unit 5; c. 1750–1900; Brazil/coffee regions; data table; decline of enslaved labor, rise of immigrant wage labor, abolitionist pressure, recruitment from Europe and Japan; reasoning paths include labor-transition data, evidence for changing labor systems, abolition as global process, multiethnic export labor; table type: labor transition table; misconception targeted: assuming abolition ended plantation exports or migration.

- APWH-MCQ3-033–036: Unit 6; c. 1750–1900; British India/South Asia; described colonial railway map; cotton, jute, wheat, tea districts, Bombay, Calcutta, Madras, Karachi, export docks; reasoning paths include map interpretation, colonial capitalist integration, environmental export reshaping, infrastructure-extraction argument; map type: rail-cash crop-port export map; misconception targeted: treating colonial railways as politically neutral or unrelated to export extraction.

- APWH-MCQ3-037–040: Unit 6; c. 1750–1900; East Africa/German colonial rule context; original testimony; forced cotton, quotas, punishment, taxes, labor, water medicine, resistance; reasoning paths include purpose, anti-colonial causation, cultural belief evidence, forced raw-material production; source type: testimony/petition-style account; misconception targeted: treating African resistance as irrational or unrelated to colonial economic coercion.

- APWH-MCQ3-041–043: Unit 7; c. 1900–present; Japanese-occupied Southeast Asia; described propaganda poster; rising sun, rice sacks, Japanese soldier, Burma/Malaya/Indonesia farmers, anti-Western liberation caption, aircraft; reasoning paths include propaganda visual analysis, resource evidence, argument evaluation; visual type: wartime propaganda poster; misconception targeted: accepting anti-colonial rhetoric without recognizing Japanese imperial control.

- APWH-MCQ3-044–047: Units 7 and 8; c. 1900–present; Korea/East Asia; described Korean War map; 38th parallel, UN forces, North Korean forces, Chinese intervention, Yalu River, civilian displacement; reasoning paths include map interpretation, civilian consequence, Cold War contextualization, internationalization evidence; map type: shifting-fronts and intervention map; misconception targeted: viewing the Korean War as purely domestic or as ending Cold War tensions.

- APWH-MCQ3-048–051: Units 8 and 9; c. 1900–present; Indochina, Afghanistan, Horn of Africa; original refugee agency report; boats, camps, mountains, drought, resettlement, food, legal protection; reasoning paths include institutional purpose, multiple-cause evidence, post-1945 humanitarian systems, continuity with globalization-era refugee debates; source type: international agency report; misconception targeted: assuming migration ended after decolonization or that displacement has a single cause.

- APWH-MCQ3-052–055: Unit 9; c. 1900–present; global environmental governance; CFC consumption index table; ozone-depleting chemicals, 1986–2010 decline, international agreements, scientific-policy cooperation; reasoning paths include data interpretation, purpose of environmental agreements, evidence of decline, globalization and shared environmental risks; table type: environmental regulation index; misconception targeted: treating environmental problems as local-only or global cooperation as ineffective by definition.