

SECTION 1 — IMPORT-READY SOURCE FILE

AP World History: Modern MCQ Practice Exam 4

PART A — QUESTIONS

APWH-MCQ4-001

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 1 — The Global Tapestry

Period: c. 1200–1450

Theme: GOV — Governance

Skill: Sourcing and Situation

Prompt:

Originalized West African court account, Mali, c. 1350: “The mansa receives petitions beneath a canopy while learned men recite law and merchants display gold dust sealed in leather pouches. Envoys say that justice in the capital is known from the desert edge to the forest markets.” What was the most likely purpose of this account?

- A) To portray Mali’s ruler as a source of justice, wealth, and legitimate authority
- B) To argue that Mali had no connection to long-distance commerce
- C) To show that merchants replaced the mansa as the head of state
- D) To describe an industrial bureaucracy based on factory labor

APWH-MCQ4-002

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 1 — The Global Tapestry

Period: c. 1200–1450

Theme: CDI — Cultural Developments and Interactions

Skill: Claims and Evidence in Sources

Prompt:

Originalized West African court account, Mali, c. 1350: “The mansa receives petitions beneath a canopy while learned men recite law and merchants display gold dust sealed in leather pouches. Envoys say that justice in the capital is known from the desert edge to the forest markets.” Which phrase best supports the claim that Islamic learning influenced Mali’s political culture?

- A) “Gold dust sealed in leather pouches”
- B) “Learned men recite law”
- C) “Forest markets”
- D) “Beneath a canopy”

APWH-MCQ4-003

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 1 — The Global Tapestry

Period: c. 1200–1450

Theme: ECN — Economic Systems

Skill: Contextualization

Prompt:

Originalized West African court account, Mali, c. 1350: “The mansa receives petitions beneath a canopy while learned men recite law and merchants display gold dust sealed in leather pouches. Envoys say that justice in the capital is known from the desert edge to the forest markets.” Which broader economic context best explains the display of gold dust?

- A) The collapse of Saharan routes before 1200
- B) The rise of plantation slavery in the Atlantic world
- C) Mali's participation in regional and trans-Saharan gold commerce
- D) The spread of industrial mining corporations in West Africa

APWH-MCQ4-004

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 1 — The Global Tapestry

Period: c. 1200–1450

Theme: SIO — Social Interactions and Organization

Skill: Making Connections / Historical Reasoning

Prompt:

Originalized West African court account, Mali, c. 1350: “The mansa receives petitions beneath a canopy while learned men recite law and merchants display gold dust sealed in leather pouches. Envoys say that justice in the capital is known from the desert edge to the forest markets.” The account most directly suggests which feature of Mali's society?

- A) The absence of urban centers in West Africa
- B) The complete separation of religion, trade, and government
- C) The replacement of royal authority by nomadic councils
- D) The interaction of rulers, scholars, merchants, and regional communities

APWH-MCQ4-005

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 2 — Networks of Exchange

Period: c. 1200–1450

Theme: ECN — Economic Systems

Skill: Developments and Processes

Prompt:

Originalized merchant letter, Red Sea port, c. 1275: “Send pepper through the Aden broker, and have the cloth marked before it leaves the warehouse. The captain waits for safe passage north, and our partner in Cairo will settle the debt by letter rather than coin.” Which development is best reflected in the letter?

- A) Long-distance merchants used brokers, credit instruments, and port networks to organize trade.
- B) Red Sea commerce ended because merchants rejected credit.
- C) Cairo was isolated from Indian Ocean and Mediterranean exchange.
- D) Maritime trade required the direct rule of every port by one empire.

APWH-MCQ4-006

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 2 — Networks of Exchange

Period: c. 1200–1450

Theme: TEC — Technology and Innovation

Skill: Claims and Evidence in Sources

Prompt:

Originalized merchant letter, Red Sea port, c. 1275: “Send pepper through the Aden broker, and have the cloth marked before it leaves the warehouse. The captain waits for safe passage north, and our partner in Cairo will settle the debt by letter rather than coin.” Which phrase most directly supports the claim that commercial technologies reduced the need to move metal currency?

- A) “The captain waits”
- B) “The cloth marked”
- C) “Through the Aden broker”
- D) “Settle the debt by letter rather than coin”

APWH-MCQ4-007

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 2 — Networks of Exchange

Period: c. 1200–1450

Theme: CDI — Cultural Developments and Interactions

Skill: Sourcing and Situation

Prompt:

Originalized merchant letter, Red Sea port, c. 1275: “Send pepper through the Aden broker, and have the cloth marked before it leaves the warehouse. The captain waits for safe passage north, and our partner in Cairo will settle the debt by letter rather than coin.” Which audience would most likely have used a document like this?

- A) Factory inspectors regulating child labor
- B) Merchants coordinating transactions across distant ports
- C) Kings claiming divine descent in mountain kingdoms
- D) Soldiers mobilized during a twentieth-century total war

APWH-MCQ4-008

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 2 — Networks of Exchange

Period: c. 1200–1450

Theme: ENV — Humans and the Environment

Skill: Making Connections / Historical Reasoning

Prompt:

Originalized merchant letter, Red Sea port, c. 1275: “Send pepper through the Aden broker, and have the cloth marked before it leaves the warehouse. The captain waits for safe passage north, and our partner in Cairo will settle the debt by letter rather than coin.” The movement described in the letter was most directly shaped by which geographic factor?

- A) The Red Sea’s position linking Indian Ocean goods with Mediterranean and Nile routes
- B) The absence of navigable sea routes between Africa and Asia
- C) The freezing of Arabian ports for much of the year
- D) The isolation of Egypt from Afro-Eurasian exchange

APWH-MCQ4-009

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 1 — The Global Tapestry

Period: c. 1200–1450

Theme: ENV — Humans and the Environment

Skill: Visual / Material Culture Analysis

Prompt:

Secondary-source description of a Mississippian center, c. 1200: “A large earthen mound rises beside a plaza. Nearby are fields of maize, elite residences, and traces of copper ornaments and marine shells brought from distant regions.” Which interpretation is best supported by the description?

- A) The center combined agriculture, social hierarchy, and regional exchange.
- B) The center depended on ocean-going merchant fleets.
- C) The center was built by European settlers after 1500.
- D) The center lacked evidence of organized labor or elite status.

APWH-MCQ4-010

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 2 — Networks of Exchange

Period: c. 1200–1450

Theme: SIO — Social Interactions and Organization

Skill: Claims and Evidence in Sources

Prompt:

Secondary-source description of a Mississippian center, c. 1200: “A large earthen mound rises beside a plaza. Nearby are fields of maize, elite residences, and traces of copper ornaments and marine shells brought from distant regions.” Which evidence best supports the claim that exchange networks existed beyond the immediate settlement?

- A) “Fields of maize”
- B) “A large earthen mound”
- C) “Marine shells brought from distant regions”
- D) “Beside a plaza”

APWH-MCQ4-011

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 3 — Land-Based Empires

Period: c. 1450–1750

Theme: GOV — Governance

Skill: Sourcing and Situation

Prompt:

Originalized Safavid royal decree, early seventeenth century: “Let the shrine road be repaired, and let the judges ensure that the Friday sermon names the shah. The tribal cavalry shall serve at the frontier, but tax collectors must send the silk dues to Isfahan without delay.” What was the most likely purpose of this decree?

- A) To coordinate religious legitimacy, military service, and revenue collection for the state
- B) To invite European parliaments to govern Persia
- C) To abolish all trade in silk
- D) To end the political role of Shi’a religious institutions

APWH-MCQ4-012

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 3 — Land-Based Empires

Period: c. 1450–1750

Theme: CDI — Cultural Developments and Interactions

Skill: Claims and Evidence in Sources

Prompt:

Originalized Safavid royal decree, early seventeenth century: “Let the shrine road be repaired, and let the judges ensure that the Friday sermon names the shah. The tribal cavalry shall serve at the frontier, but tax collectors must send the silk dues to Isfahan without delay.” Which phrase best supports the claim that religion helped legitimize Safavid rule?

- A) “Tribal cavalry”
- B) “Silk dues”
- C) “Friday sermon names the shah”
- D) “Without delay”

APWH-MCQ4-013

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 3 — Land-Based Empires

Period: c. 1450–1750

Theme: ECN — Economic Systems

Skill: Developments and Processes

Prompt:

Originalized Safavid royal decree, early seventeenth century: “Let the shrine road be repaired, and let the judges ensure that the Friday sermon names the shah. The tribal cavalry shall serve at the frontier, but tax collectors must send the silk dues to Isfahan without delay.” The reference to silk dues most directly reflects which common feature of early modern empires?

- A) The disappearance of luxury trade from state finance
- B) The reliance of states on commercial revenue and taxation
- C) The end of bureaucratic record keeping
- D) The replacement of agrarian taxes by industrial income taxes

APWH-MCQ4-014

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 3 — Land-Based Empires

Period: c. 1450–1750

Theme: SIO — Social Interactions and Organization

Skill: Making Connections / Historical Reasoning

Prompt:

Originalized Safavid royal decree, early seventeenth century: “Let the shrine road be repaired, and let the judges ensure that the Friday sermon names the shah. The tribal cavalry shall serve at the frontier, but tax collectors must send the silk dues to Isfahan without delay.” Which social tension is most directly suggested by the decree?

- A) Conflict between factory workers and industrial owners
- B) Competition between royal centralization and the autonomy of tribal military elites
- C) Conflict between abolitionists and enslavers in the Atlantic world
- D) Rivalry between Cold War superpowers over nuclear weapons

APWH-MCQ4-015

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 3 — Land-Based Empires

Period: c. 1450–1750

Theme: GOV — Governance

Skill: Visual / Material Culture Analysis

Prompt:

Described Benin palace plaque, early modern West Africa: “A bronze plaque shows the oba larger than the attendants beside him. Portuguese traders appear at the edge carrying metal goods, while palace officials hold coral regalia and ceremonial weapons.” Which interpretation is best supported by the plaque description?

- A) Benin's ruler used visual hierarchy and court regalia to display authority.
- B) Portuguese traders controlled the oba's palace.
- C) Benin had no contact with overseas commerce.
- D) Palace art rejected political symbolism.

APWH-MCQ4-016

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 3 — Land-Based Empires

Period: c. 1450–1750

Theme: ECN — Economic Systems

Skill: Contextualization

Prompt:

Described Benin palace plaque, early modern West Africa: “A bronze plaque shows the oba larger than the attendants beside him. Portuguese traders appear at the edge carrying metal goods, while palace officials hold coral regalia and ceremonial weapons.” Which broader context best explains the presence of Portuguese traders in the image?

- A) West African states engaged selectively with Atlantic commercial contacts after 1450.
- B) European traders founded Benin as a settler colony.
- C) Benin's economy depended on industrial factories.
- D) Portuguese traders ended all local political authority in West Africa.

APWH-MCQ4-017

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 3 — Land-Based Empires

Period: c. 1450–1750

Theme: CDI — Cultural Developments and Interactions

Skill: Argumentation / Claim-Evidence

Prompt:

Described Benin palace plaque, early modern West Africa: “A bronze plaque shows the oba larger than the attendants beside him. Portuguese traders appear at the edge carrying metal goods, while palace officials hold coral regalia and ceremonial weapons.” Which argument is best supported by the plaque?

- A) Early modern African states lacked artistic traditions.
- B) Benin's court used material culture to present political authority while engaging foreign trade.
- C) European merchants replaced African rulers wherever they appeared.
- D) Atlantic trade immediately eliminated African court culture.

APWH-MCQ4-018

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 4 — Transoceanic Interconnections

Period: c. 1450–1750

Theme: GOV — Governance

Skill: Sourcing and Situation

Prompt:

Originalized report from a Spanish viceroy in Lima, c. 1600: “Local officials must record tribute villages carefully, for false counts reduce the king's revenue. Native nobles who collect tribute shall keep their honors if they provide laborers for roads and town works. Priests request more interpreters for confession and instruction.” What was the most likely purpose of the report?

- A) To explain how colonial officials organized tribute, labor, and religious administration
- B) To abolish all Indigenous offices in the Andes
- C) To announce the end of Spanish rule in South America
- D) To promote equal citizenship for all colonial subjects

APWH-MCQ4-019

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 4 — Transoceanic Interconnections

Period: c. 1450–1750

Theme: SIO — Social Interactions and Organization

Skill: Claims and Evidence in Sources

Prompt:

Originalized report from a Spanish viceroy in Lima, c. 1600: “Local officials must record tribute villages carefully, for false counts reduce the king’s revenue. Native nobles who collect tribute shall keep their honors if they provide laborers for roads and town works. Priests request more interpreters for confession and instruction.” Which phrase best supports the claim that Spanish authorities incorporated some Indigenous elites into colonial rule?

- A) “False counts reduce the king’s revenue”
- B) “Native nobles who collect tribute shall keep their honors”
- C) “Priests request more interpreters”
- D) “Roads and town works”

APWH-MCQ4-020

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 4 — Transoceanic Interconnections

Period: c. 1450–1750

Theme: CDI — Cultural Developments and Interactions

Skill: Contextualization

Prompt:

Originalized report from a Spanish viceroy in Lima, c. 1600: “Local officials must record tribute villages carefully, for false counts reduce the king’s revenue. Native nobles who collect tribute shall keep their honors if they provide laborers for roads and town works. Priests request more interpreters for confession and instruction.” Which broader process best explains the priests’ request?

- A) The spread of Protestantism through South America
- B) The use of Christian missionary activity to reshape Indigenous religious life
- C) The end of Catholic influence in Spanish colonies
- D) The replacement of missionary work by industrial education

APWH-MCQ4-021

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 4 — Transoceanic Interconnections

Period: c. 1450–1750

Theme: ECN — Economic Systems

Skill: Argumentation / Claim-Evidence

Prompt:

Originalized report from a Spanish viceroy in Lima, c. 1600: “Local officials must record tribute villages carefully, for false counts reduce the king's revenue. Native nobles who collect tribute shall keep their honors if they provide laborers for roads and town works. Priests request more interpreters for confession and instruction." Which statement best evaluates the colonial system described?

- A) It relied only on voluntary contracts between equal citizens.
- B) It combined imperial revenue extraction with adapted local hierarchies and missionary goals.
- C) It ended the use of tribute in Spanish America.
- D) It separated economic administration entirely from political rule.

APWH-MCQ4-022

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 4 — Transoceanic Interconnections

Period: c. 1450–1750

Theme: ECN — Economic Systems

Skill: Quantitative, Map, or Data Interpretation

Prompt:

Table: Atlantic slave-trade records for one West Central African port, simplified pattern

Period | Major destination | Recorded pattern

1670s | Brazil | Mostly young adult men shipped for plantation and mining labor

1720s | Caribbean | Larger shipments during sugar expansion

1780s | Multiple American ports | Continued forced migration despite abolitionist criticism

Which conclusion is best supported by the table?

- A) The forced movement of enslaved Africans was tied to labor demands in American plantation and mining economies.
- B) The Atlantic slave trade ended before sugar plantation expansion.
- C) Enslaved Africans migrated mainly as independent merchants.
- D) West Central Africa was isolated from Atlantic commerce.

APWH-MCQ4-023

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 4 — Transoceanic Interconnections

Period: c. 1450–1750

Theme: SIO — Social Interactions and Organization

Skill: Claims and Evidence in Sources

Prompt:

Table: Atlantic slave-trade records for one West Central African port, simplified pattern

Period | Major destination | Recorded pattern

1670s | Brazil | Mostly young adult men shipped for plantation and mining labor

1720s | Caribbean | Larger shipments during sugar expansion

1780s | Multiple American ports | Continued forced migration despite abolitionist criticism

Which evidence best supports the claim that the slave trade disrupted African societies demographically?

- A) "Abolitionist criticism"
- B) "Multiple American ports"
- C) "Mostly young adult men shipped"
- D) "Sugar expansion"

APWH-MCQ4-024

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 4 — Transoceanic Interconnections

Period: c. 1450–1750

Theme: GOV — Governance

Skill: Making Connections / Historical Reasoning

Prompt:

Table: Atlantic slave-trade records for one West Central African port, simplified pattern

Period | Major destination | Recorded pattern

1670s | Brazil | Mostly young adult men shipped for plantation and mining labor

1720s | Caribbean | Larger shipments during sugar expansion

1780s | Multiple American ports | Continued forced migration despite abolitionist criticism

Which broader political consequence was most associated with the trade pattern shown?

A) The complete disappearance of warfare in West Central Africa

B) The weakening of all European maritime empires

C) The separation of Atlantic commerce from state power

D) The growth of African and European states that profited from slave raiding, taxation, or commercial regulation

APWH-MCQ4-025

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 5 — Revolutions

Period: c. 1750–1900

Theme: TEC — Technology and Innovation

Skill: Sourcing and Situation

Prompt:

Originalized Qing reform essay, c. 1870: “The steamship arrives whether we debate or not. To preserve the dynasty, arsenals must cast modern guns, schools must translate foreign science, and officials must learn that machines can serve moral order rather than destroy it.” Which purpose is most evident in the essay?

A) To argue that selective adoption of foreign technology could strengthen the state

B) To demand the abolition of all Confucian learning

C) To promote immediate republican revolution

D) To reject all military and educational reform

APWH-MCQ4-026

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 5 — Revolutions

Period: c. 1750–1900

Theme: GOV — Governance

Skill: Contextualization

Prompt:

Originalized Qing reform essay, c. 1870: “The steamship arrives whether we debate or not. To preserve the dynasty, arsenals must cast modern guns, schools must translate foreign science, and officials must learn that machines can serve moral order rather than destroy it.” Which broader context best explains the essay?

A) The absence of European and Japanese pressure on Qing China

B) The collapse of all Asian states before industrialization

C) Qing attempts to respond to military defeats, foreign pressure, and technological gaps

D) The spread of Cold War alliances in East Asia

APWH-MCQ4-027

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 5 — Revolutions

Period: c. 1750–1900

Theme: CDI — Cultural Developments and Interactions

Skill: Claims and Evidence in Sources

Prompt:

Originalized Qing reform essay, c. 1870: “The steamship arrives whether we debate or not. To preserve the dynasty, arsenals must cast modern guns, schools must translate foreign science, and officials must learn that machines can serve moral order rather than destroy it.” Which phrase best supports the claim that the author wanted reform without fully rejecting existing values?

- A) “Steamship arrives”
- B) “Foreign science”
- C) “Machines can serve moral order”
- D) “Arsenals must cast modern guns”

APWH-MCQ4-028

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 5 — Revolutions

Period: c. 1750–1900

Theme: TEC — Technology and Innovation

Skill: Argumentation / Claim-Evidence

Prompt:

Originalized Qing reform essay, c. 1870: “The steamship arrives whether we debate or not. To preserve the dynasty, arsenals must cast modern guns, schools must translate foreign science, and officials must learn that machines can serve moral order rather than destroy it.” Which statement best evaluates the author’s argument?

- A) The author rejects technology because it is foreign.
- B) The author claims that technological and educational reform can preserve, rather than overturn, the dynasty.
- C) The author argues that industrialization is irrelevant to military power.
- D) The author claims that all political legitimacy must come from elected parliaments.

APWH-MCQ4-029

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 5 — Revolutions

Period: c. 1750–1900

Theme: GOV — Governance

Skill: Developments and Processes

Prompt:

Originalized Mexican liberal reform statement, c. 1857: “Citizenship cannot grow where corporate privileges place clergy, army, and village lands outside equal law. The republic must make law common, property transferable, and office open to merit.” Which development is most directly reflected in the statement?

- A) Liberal reform efforts to reduce corporate privileges and strengthen republican citizenship
- B) A defense of absolute monarchy in Mexico
- C) The restoration of encomienda labor after independence
- D) The rejection of private property by communist revolutionaries

APWH-MCQ4-030

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 5 — Revolutions

Period: c. 1750–1900

Theme: SIO — Social Interactions and Organization

Skill: Sourcing and Situation

Prompt:

Originalized Mexican liberal reform statement, c. 1857: “Citizenship cannot grow where corporate privileges place clergy, army, and village lands outside equal law. The republic must make law common, property transferable, and office open to merit.” Which point of view most likely shaped the statement?

- A) A conservative defense of clerical and military privilege
- B) A liberal belief that legal equality and property reform would create a modern republic
- C) A colonial official’s support for tribute labor
- D) A fascist argument for one-party rule

APWH-MCQ4-031

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 5 — Revolutions

Period: c. 1750–1900

Theme: ECN — Economic Systems

Skill: Claims and Evidence in Sources

Prompt:

Originalized Mexican liberal reform statement, c. 1857: “Citizenship cannot grow where corporate privileges place clergy, army, and village lands outside equal law. The republic must make law common, property transferable, and office open to merit.” Which phrase most directly supports the claim that the reformers wanted to transform property relations?

- A) “Property transferable”
- B) “Office open”
- C) “Citizenship cannot grow”
- D) “Equal law”

APWH-MCQ4-032

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 5 — Revolutions

Period: c. 1750–1900

Theme: CDI — Cultural Developments and Interactions

Skill: Making Connections / Historical Reasoning

Prompt:

Originalized Mexican liberal reform statement, c. 1857: “Citizenship cannot grow where corporate privileges place clergy, army, and village lands outside equal law. The republic must make law common, property transferable, and office open to merit.” Which broader ideological trend most directly influenced the statement?

- A) Conservative restoration of hereditary privilege
- B) Liberal nationalism emphasizing citizenship, constitutions, and equality before the law
- C) Social Darwinism used to justify imperial conquest
- D) Nonalignment during the Cold War

APWH-MCQ4-033

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 6 — Consequences of Industrialization

Period: c. 1750–1900

Theme: ENV — Humans and the Environment

Skill: Quantitative, Map, or Data Interpretation

Prompt:

Described map: “A map of French Algeria, c. 1880–1910, shows European settler vineyards expanding near coastal cities, rail lines carrying wine and grain to ports, and shaded zones marking communal lands transferred from Algerian communities to colonial owners.” Which conclusion is best supported by the map?

- A) Settler colonialism reshaped land use and connected colonial agriculture to export markets.
- B) Algerian communities gained full control of coastal railroads.
- C) French Algeria avoided integration into global trade.
- D) Colonial railways were built only for pilgrimage travel.

APWH-MCQ4-034

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 6 — Consequences of Industrialization

Period: c. 1750–1900

Theme: ECN — Economic Systems

Skill: Developments and Processes

Prompt:

Described map: “A map of French Algeria, c. 1880–1910, shows European settler vineyards expanding near coastal cities, rail lines carrying wine and grain to ports, and shaded zones marking communal lands transferred from Algerian communities to colonial owners.” The pattern shown most directly reflects which process?

- A) The decline of export agriculture under imperial rule
- B) The end of European migration to North Africa
- C) The use of colonial infrastructure and land policies to support settler economies
- D) The replacement of colonial production by subsistence farming

APWH-MCQ4-035

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 6 — Consequences of Industrialization

Period: c. 1750–1900

Theme: SIO — Social Interactions and Organization

Skill: Visual / Material Culture Analysis

Prompt:

Described map: “A map of French Algeria, c. 1880–1910, shows European settler vineyards expanding near coastal cities, rail lines carrying wine and grain to ports, and shaded zones marking communal lands transferred from Algerian communities to colonial owners.” Which map feature most directly shows the social impact of settler colonialism?

- A) The location of coastal cities
- B) The rail lines to ports
- C) The shaded zones of communal land transfer
- D) The labels for wine and grain

APWH-MCQ4-036

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 6 — Consequences of Industrialization

Period: c. 1750–1900

Theme: GOV — Governance

Skill: Argumentation / Claim-Evidence

Prompt:

Described map: “A map of French Algeria, c. 1880–1910, shows European settler vineyards expanding near coastal cities, rail lines carrying wine and grain to ports, and shaded zones marking communal lands transferred from Algerian communities to colonial owners.” Which argument is best supported by the map?

- A) Colonial states could use law, settlement, and transportation to reorganize conquered territories.
- B) Settler colonialism always protected Indigenous communal landholding.
- C) French rule in Algeria avoided involvement in agriculture.
- D) Railroads made imperial land policies unnecessary.

APWH-MCQ4-037

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 6 — Consequences of Industrialization

Period: c. 1750–1900

Theme: SIO — Social Interactions and Organization

Skill: Quantitative, Map, or Data Interpretation

Prompt:

Table: Eastern Mediterranean migration, approximate pattern

Period | Common destinations | Common motives recorded in letters

1880s | Egypt and western Africa | Trade, craft work, debt repayment

1900s | Argentina and Brazil | Wages, land opportunities, family networks

1920s | North America and Australia | Chain migration and education

Which conclusion is best supported by the table?

- A) Migration from the eastern Mediterranean was shaped by economic opportunity and family networks across several regions.
- B) Industrial-era migration moved only from Europe to North America.
- C) Migrants avoided destinations in Latin America and Africa.
- D) Long-distance migration ended before 1900.

APWH-MCQ4-038

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 6 — Consequences of Industrialization

Period: c. 1750–1900

Theme: ECN — Economic Systems

Skill: Claims and Evidence in Sources

Prompt:

Table: Eastern Mediterranean migration, approximate pattern

Period | Common destinations | Common motives recorded in letters

1880s | Egypt and western Africa | Trade, craft work, debt repayment

1900s | Argentina and Brazil | Wages, land opportunities, family networks

1920s | North America and Australia | Chain migration and education

Which evidence best supports the claim that migration was often sustained by social networks?

- A) “Debt repayment”
- B) “Argentina and Brazil”
- C) “Chain migration and education”
- D) “Trade, craft work”

APWH-MCQ4-039

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 6 — Consequences of Industrialization

Period: c. 1750–1900

Theme: CDI — Cultural Developments and Interactions

Skill: Contextualization

Prompt:

Table: Eastern Mediterranean migration, approximate pattern

Period | Common destinations | Common motives recorded in letters

1880s | Egypt and western Africa | Trade, craft work, debt repayment

1900s | Argentina and Brazil | Wages, land opportunities, family networks

1920s | North America and Australia | Chain migration and education

Which broader context best explains the pattern shown?

- A) The isolation of migrants from global transportation systems
- B) The complete end of diaspora communities after 1800
- C) Steamship travel, expanding labor markets, and migrant communication networks
- D) The disappearance of wage labor in the Atlantic world

APWH-MCQ4-040

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 6 — Consequences of Industrialization

Period: c. 1750–1900

Theme: GOV — Governance

Skill: Making Connections / Historical Reasoning

Prompt:

Table: Eastern Mediterranean migration, approximate pattern

Period | Common destinations | Common motives recorded in letters

1880s | Egypt and western Africa | Trade, craft work, debt repayment

1900s | Argentina and Brazil | Wages, land opportunities, family networks

1920s | North America and Australia | Chain migration and education

Which political issue most commonly accompanied migration patterns like those shown?

- A) The end of citizenship laws in receiving societies
- B) Debates over immigration restrictions, legal status, and assimilation
- C) The abolition of all passports and border controls
- D) The disappearance of ethnic communities abroad

APWH-MCQ4-041

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 7 — Global Conflict

Period: c. 1900–present

Theme: SIO — Social Interactions and Organization

Skill: Sourcing and Situation

Prompt:

Originalized diary entry, Chinese city under Japanese occupation, 1938: “The school is closed, the hospital full, and families sleep in alleys after the bombing. Officials speak of empire and order, but soldiers take grain and carts for the army.” What was the most likely purpose of preserving such a diary entry?

- A) To record civilian experiences of occupation and wartime violence
- B) To promote tourism in occupied cities
- C) To praise total war as beneficial to civilians
- D) To argue that aerial warfare had no social effects

APWH-MCQ4-042

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 7 — Global Conflict

Period: c. 1900–present

Theme: TEC — Technology and Innovation

Skill: Claims and Evidence in Sources

Prompt:

Originalized diary entry, Chinese city under Japanese occupation, 1938: “The school is closed, the hospital full, and families sleep in alleys after the bombing. Officials speak of empire and order, but soldiers take grain and carts for the army.” Which phrase best supports the claim that technology intensified civilian suffering?

- A) “Officials speak”
- B) “After the bombing”
- C) “Take grain and carts”
- D) “Empire and order”

APWH-MCQ4-043

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 7 — Global Conflict

Period: c. 1900–present

Theme: GOV — Governance

Skill: Argumentation / Claim-Evidence

Prompt:

Originalized diary entry, Chinese city under Japanese occupation, 1938: “The school is closed, the hospital full, and families sleep in alleys after the bombing. Officials speak of empire and order, but soldiers take grain and carts for the army.” Which statement best evaluates the diary’s historical value?

- A) It is valuable because it shows how civilians experienced occupation, requisitioning, and bombing.
- B) It is useless because personal accounts cannot reveal wartime conditions.
- C) It proves that occupied populations always supported imperial armies.
- D) It shows only the viewpoint of military commanders.

APWH-MCQ4-044

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 7 — Global Conflict

Period: c. 1900–present

Theme: ECN — Economic Systems

Skill: Quantitative, Map, or Data Interpretation

Prompt:

Table: Export commodity prices during the Great Depression, simplified index, 1928 = 100

Commodity and region | 1932 index

Tin, Malaya | 45

Nitrates, Chile | 38

Cocoa, Gold Coast | 52

Which conclusion is best supported by the table?

- A) Export economies in several regions were harmed by falling global commodity prices.
- B) The Great Depression affected only industrial Europe and North America.
- C) Commodity prices rose steadily during the early 1930s.
- D) Colonized regions avoided economic disruption during the depression.

APWH-MCQ4-045

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 7 — Global Conflict

Period: c. 1900–present

Theme: GOV — Governance

Skill: Making Connections / Historical Reasoning

Prompt:

Table: Export commodity prices during the Great Depression, simplified index, 1928 = 100

Commodity and region | 1932 index

Tin, Malaya | 45

Nitrates, Chile | 38

Cocoa, Gold Coast | 52

Which political effect most directly followed from economic disruption like that shown in the table?

- A) The permanent end of labor protest in export economies
- B) Greater confidence in colonial and liberal economic management everywhere
- C) Increased criticism of imperial rule, export dependence, and existing political systems
- D) The disappearance of nationalist movements in the Global South

APWH-MCQ4-046

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 8 — Cold War and Decolonization

Period: c. 1900–present

Theme: CDI — Cultural Developments and Interactions

Skill: Visual / Material Culture Analysis

Prompt:

Described Cuban literacy campaign poster, 1961: “A young volunteer holds a lantern and a primer while rural adults sit outside a house at night. The slogan reads, ‘To read is to be free and to build the revolution.’ A small national flag appears beside a schoolbook.” Which interpretation is best supported by the poster?

- A) Revolutionary governments could use education campaigns to promote political identity and social mobilization.
- B) The Cuban revolution rejected mass education.
- C) Literacy campaigns were unrelated to political ideology.
- D) Rural adults were excluded from postrevolutionary programs.

APWH-MCQ4-047

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 8 — Cold War and Decolonization

Period: c. 1900–present

Theme: SIO — Social Interactions and Organization

Skill: Claims and Evidence in Sources

Prompt:

Described Cuban literacy campaign poster, 1961: “A young volunteer holds a lantern and a primer while rural adults sit outside a house at night. The slogan reads, ‘To read is to be free and to build the revolution.’ A small national flag appears beside a schoolbook.” Which detail most directly supports the claim that the campaign sought broad social participation?

- A) The small national flag
- B) The rural adults studying outside a house
- C) The poster’s date
- D) The presence of a slogan

APWH-MCQ4-048

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 8 — Cold War and Decolonization

Period: c. 1900–present

Theme: GOV — Governance

Skill: Contextualization

Prompt:

Described Cuban literacy campaign poster, 1961: “A young volunteer holds a lantern and a primer while rural adults sit outside a house at night. The slogan reads, ‘To read is to be free and to build the revolution.’ A small national flag appears beside a schoolbook.” Which broader context best explains the poster?

- A) The use of social programs by revolutionary states during Cold War ideological competition
- B) The collapse of all socialist movements before World War II
- C) The spread of nineteenth-century settler colonialism in Oceania
- D) The decline of national identity in postrevolutionary societies

APWH-MCQ4-049

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 8 — Cold War and Decolonization

Period: c. 1900–present

Theme: GOV — Governance

Skill: Quantitative, Map, or Data Interpretation

Prompt:

Described map: “A map of Southeast Asia, 1945–1965, marks the Dutch return to Indonesia after World War II, Indonesian republican centers in Java and Sumatra, diplomatic negotiations at The Hague, and later recognition of Indonesian sovereignty.” Which conclusion is best supported by the map?

- A) Indonesia’s independence struggle combined armed resistance, republican organization, and international diplomacy.
- B) Dutch colonial authority ended without conflict or negotiation.
- C) Indonesia became independent before World War II began.
- D) Decolonization in Southeast Asia was unrelated to the collapse of Japanese occupation.

APWH-MCQ4-050

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 8 — Cold War and Decolonization

Period: c. 1900–present

Theme: ECN — Economic Systems

Skill: Making Connections / Historical Reasoning

Prompt:

Described map: “A map of Southeast Asia, 1945–1965, marks the Dutch return to Indonesia after World War II, Indonesian republican centers in Java and Sumatra, diplomatic negotiations at The Hague, and later recognition of Indonesian sovereignty.” The struggle shown most directly reflects which broader postwar process?

- A) The strengthening of all European colonial empires after 1945
- B) The expansion of anticolonial nationalism and the creation of new sovereign states
- C) The disappearance of diplomacy from independence movements
- D) The replacement of nationalism by mercantilist trading companies

APWH-MCQ4-051

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 9 — Globalization

Period: c. 1900–present

Theme: ENV — Humans and the Environment

Skill: Quantitative, Map, or Data Interpretation

Prompt:

Table: Global climate indicators, simplified pattern

Indicator | c. 1960 | c. 2020

Atmospheric CO₂ | About 317 ppm | More than 410 ppm

Global mean temperature anomaly | Near 0.0 °C | About +1.2 °C

Annual climate-related disaster reports | Lower | Higher

Which conclusion is best supported by the table?

- A) Environmental change became a major global issue linked to industrial emissions and climate impacts.
- B) Atmospheric CO₂ declined after 1960.
- C) Climate-related disasters disappeared by 2020.
- D) Global environmental change affected only one region.

APWH-MCQ4-052

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 9 — Globalization

Period: c. 1900–present

Theme: GOV — Governance

Skill: Sourcing and Situation

Prompt:

Originalized statement by a Pacific island delegate at an international climate conference, c. 2015:

“Our islands did not build the factories that filled the sky, yet the sea reaches our gardens and graves. We ask not for charity, but for justice, adaptation funds, and a future in our own homeland.”

What was the most likely purpose of the statement?

- A) To deny that climate change had political consequences
- B) To argue for international responsibility and support for vulnerable states

- C) To demand a return to nineteenth-century imperial rule
- D) To oppose all environmental agreements

APWH-MCQ4-053

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 9 — Globalization

Period: c. 1900–present

Theme: SIO — Social Interactions and Organization

Skill: Claims and Evidence in Sources

Prompt:

Originalized statement by a Pacific island delegate at an international climate conference, c. 2015:
“Our islands did not build the factories that filled the sky, yet the sea reaches our gardens and graves. We ask not for charity, but for justice, adaptation funds, and a future in our own homeland.”
Which phrase best supports the claim that climate change raised questions of global inequality?

- A) “International climate conference”
- B) “The sea reaches our gardens”
- C) “Did not build the factories that filled the sky”
- D) “Future in our own homeland”

APWH-MCQ4-054

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 9 — Globalization

Period: c. 1900–present

Theme: TEC — Technology and Innovation

Skill: Making Connections / Historical Reasoning

Prompt:

Originalized statement by a Pacific island delegate at an international climate conference, c. 2015:
“Our islands did not build the factories that filled the sky, yet the sea reaches our gardens and graves. We ask not for charity, but for justice, adaptation funds, and a future in our own homeland.”
The statement most directly connects present environmental problems to which earlier development?

- A) The spread of caravanserais across Central Asia
- B) The rise of fossil-fuel-based industrialization and mass production
- C) The decline of print culture in reform movements
- D) The formation of early agrarian river-valley states

APWH-MCQ4-055

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 9 — Globalization

Period: c. 1900–present

Theme: CDI — Cultural Developments and Interactions

Skill: Argumentation / Claim-Evidence

Prompt:

Originalized statement by a Pacific island delegate at an international climate conference, c. 2015:
“Our islands did not build the factories that filled the sky, yet the sea reaches our gardens and graves. We ask not for charity, but for justice, adaptation funds, and a future in our own homeland.”
Which statement best evaluates the delegate’s argument?

- A) The delegate argues that environmental problems should be solved only by private companies.

- B) The delegate rejects international cooperation as unnecessary.
- C) The delegate frames climate change as both an environmental crisis and a justice issue involving unequal responsibility.
- D) The delegate claims that sea-level rise has no connection to industrial history.

PART B — ANSWER KEY + EXPLANATIONS

APWH-MCQ4-001 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: To portray Mali’s ruler as a source of justice, wealth, and legitimate authority — Explanation: The account emphasizes petitions, law, gold, envoys, and the ruler’s reputation for justice.

APWH-MCQ4-002 — Correct: B — Correct Answer: “Learned men recite law” — Explanation: Learned men reciting law points to Islamic legal and scholarly influence at court.

APWH-MCQ4-003 — Correct: C — Correct Answer: Mali’s participation in regional and trans-Saharan gold commerce — Explanation: Mali’s wealth was closely tied to gold production and trade across Saharan and regional networks.

APWH-MCQ4-004 — Correct: D — Correct Answer: The interaction of rulers, scholars, merchants, and regional communities — Explanation: The account links royal justice, Islamic learning, merchants, gold, and regional markets.

APWH-MCQ4-005 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: Long-distance merchants used brokers, credit instruments, and port networks to organize trade. — Explanation: The letter mentions a broker, marked cloth, a partner in Cairo, and settlement by letter.

APWH-MCQ4-006 — Correct: D — Correct Answer: “Settle the debt by letter rather than coin” — Explanation: This phrase directly shows use of credit or written commercial instruments instead of metal currency.

APWH-MCQ4-007 — Correct: B — Correct Answer: Merchants coordinating transactions across distant ports — Explanation: The details about Aden, Cairo, goods, brokers, and debt settlement are commercial instructions.

APWH-MCQ4-008 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: The Red Sea’s position linking Indian Ocean goods with Mediterranean and Nile routes — Explanation: The Red Sea connected goods from the Indian Ocean world to Egypt and the Mediterranean.

APWH-MCQ4-009 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: The center combined agriculture, social hierarchy, and regional exchange. — Explanation: Maize fields, elite residences, mound construction, copper, and shells show agriculture, hierarchy, and exchange.

APWH-MCQ4-010 — Correct: C — Correct Answer: “Marine shells brought from distant regions” — Explanation: Marine shells at an inland center show exchange beyond the immediate settlement.

APWH-MCQ4-011 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: To coordinate religious legitimacy, military service, and revenue collection for the state — Explanation: The decree links shrine roads, Friday sermons, cavalry, silk dues, and Isfahan.

APWH-MCQ4-012 — Correct: C — Correct Answer: “Friday sermon names the shah” — Explanation: Naming the shah in the Friday sermon connected religious practice to political legitimacy.

APWH-MCQ4-013 — Correct: B — Correct Answer: The reliance of states on commercial revenue and taxation — Explanation: Silk dues show the use of trade-related revenue in imperial finance.

APWH-MCQ4-014 — Correct: B — Correct Answer: Competition between royal centralization and the autonomy of tribal military elites — Explanation: The decree requires tribal cavalry service while directing revenue to the capital, suggesting central control over elite groups.

APWH-MCQ4-015 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: Benin’s ruler used visual hierarchy and court regalia to display authority. — Explanation: The larger oba, palace officials, regalia, and ceremonial weapons display political authority visually.

APWH-MCQ4-016 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: West African states engaged selectively with Atlantic commercial contacts after 1450. — Explanation: Portuguese traders at the edge of the plaque show external contact without erasing Benin’s court authority.

APWH-MCQ4-017 — Correct: B — Correct Answer: Benin’s court used material culture to present political authority while engaging foreign trade. — Explanation: The plaque combines court symbolism, regalia, hierarchy, and Portuguese commercial presence.

APWH-MCQ4-018 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: To explain how colonial officials organized tribute, labor, and religious administration — Explanation: The report discusses tribute counts, laborers, Native nobles, priests, and interpreters.

APWH-MCQ4-019 — Correct: B — Correct Answer: “Native nobles who collect tribute shall keep their honors” — Explanation: This phrase shows Spanish incorporation of some Indigenous elites into colonial administration.

APWH-MCQ4-020 — Correct: B — Correct Answer: The use of Christian missionary activity to reshape Indigenous religious life — Explanation: Priests needing interpreters for confession and instruction reflects missionary conversion efforts.

APWH-MCQ4-021 — Correct: B — Correct Answer: It combined imperial revenue extraction with adapted local hierarchies and missionary goals. — Explanation: The report links tribute, labor, Native nobles, priests, and interpreters.

APWH-MCQ4-022 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: The forced movement of enslaved Africans was tied to labor demands in American plantation and mining economies. — Explanation: The table links forced shipments to plantation, mining, sugar, and American destinations.

APWH-MCQ4-023 — Correct: C — Correct Answer: “Mostly young adult men shipped” — Explanation: The forced removal of many young adult men would have major demographic effects.

APWH-MCQ4-024 — Correct: D — Correct Answer: The growth of African and European states that profited from slave raiding, taxation, or commercial regulation — Explanation: The Atlantic slave trade shaped political power by enriching states and elites involved in capture, taxation, or trade.

APWH-MCQ4-025 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: To argue that selective adoption of foreign technology could strengthen the state — Explanation: The essay supports arsenals, foreign science, and modern machines while aiming to preserve the dynasty.

APWH-MCQ4-026 — Correct: C — Correct Answer: Qing attempts to respond to military defeats, foreign pressure, and technological gaps — Explanation: The reform essay fits the Qing effort to strengthen the dynasty after foreign military and technological challenges.

APWH-MCQ4-027 — Correct: C — Correct Answer: “Machines can serve moral order” — Explanation: This phrase shows the author wants technology to support existing moral values rather than replace them.

APWH-MCQ4-028 — Correct: B — Correct Answer: The author claims that technological and educational reform can preserve, rather than overturn, the dynasty. — Explanation: The author argues that arsenals, science, and machines can help preserve Qing rule.

APWH-MCQ4-029 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: Liberal reform efforts to reduce corporate privileges and strengthen republican citizenship — Explanation: The statement criticizes corporate privileges and promotes common law, property reform, and merit.

APWH-MCQ4-030 — Correct: B — Correct Answer: A liberal belief that legal equality and property reform would create a modern republic — Explanation: The statement emphasizes citizenship, equal law, transferable property, and merit.

APWH-MCQ4-031 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: “Property transferable” — Explanation: This phrase directly supports the claim that reformers wanted to change property relations.

APWH-MCQ4-032 — Correct: B — Correct Answer: Liberal nationalism emphasizing citizenship, constitutions, and equality before the law — Explanation: The statement reflects liberal ideas about citizenship, republicanism, legal equality, and merit.

APWH-MCQ4-033 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: Settler colonialism reshaped land use and connected colonial agriculture to export markets. — Explanation: The map shows vineyards, land transfers, rail lines, and exports through ports.

APWH-MCQ4-034 — Correct: C — Correct Answer: The use of colonial infrastructure and land policies to support settler economies — Explanation: Railways, ports, vineyard expansion, and land transfer show infrastructure and policy supporting settlers.

APWH-MCQ4-035 — Correct: C — Correct Answer: The shaded zones of communal land transfer — Explanation: These areas directly show Algerian communities losing land to colonial owners.

APWH-MCQ4-036 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: Colonial states could use law, settlement, and transportation to reorganize conquered territories. — Explanation: The map links land transfer, settler agriculture, railways, and export ports.

APWH-MCQ4-037 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: Migration from the eastern Mediterranean was shaped by economic opportunity and family networks across several regions. — Explanation: The table shows destinations across Africa, Latin America, North America, and Australia, with motives including wages and family networks.

APWH-MCQ4-038 — Correct: C — Correct Answer: “Chain migration and education” — Explanation: Chain migration directly indicates migration supported by existing social and family networks.

APWH-MCQ4-039 — Correct: C — Correct Answer: Steamship travel, expanding labor markets, and migrant communication networks — Explanation: These factors made long-distance migration more possible and sustained migrant communities.

APWH-MCQ4-040 — Correct: B — Correct Answer: Debates over immigration restrictions, legal status, and assimilation — Explanation: Industrial-era migration often prompted receiving states to debate entry restrictions, legal status, and assimilation.

APWH-MCQ4-041 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: To record civilian experiences of occupation and wartime violence — Explanation: The diary describes school closure, hospital crowding, homelessness, bombing, requisitioning, and occupation.

APWH-MCQ4-042 — Correct: B — Correct Answer: “After the bombing” — Explanation: Bombing shows how modern military technology intensified harm to civilians.

APWH-MCQ4-043 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: It is valuable because it shows how civilians experienced occupation, requisitioning, and bombing. — Explanation: The diary gives civilian evidence of wartime social disruption and military occupation.

APWH-MCQ4-044 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: Export economies in several regions were harmed by falling global commodity prices. — Explanation: Tin, nitrates, and cocoa all fell sharply from the 1928 index of 100.

APWH-MCQ4-045 — Correct: C — Correct Answer: Increased criticism of imperial rule, export dependence, and existing political systems — Explanation: Depression-era commodity collapses intensified criticism of export dependence and colonial or liberal economic systems.

APWH-MCQ4-046 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: Revolutionary governments could use education campaigns to promote political identity and social mobilization. — Explanation: The poster links literacy, revolution, rural education, volunteers, and national identity.

APWH-MCQ4-047 — Correct: B — Correct Answer: The rural adults studying outside a house — Explanation: This detail shows the campaign reaching adults in rural settings.

APWH-MCQ4-048 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: The use of social programs by revolutionary states during Cold War ideological competition — Explanation: The Cuban literacy campaign was tied to revolutionary social mobilization during the Cold War.

APWH-MCQ4-049 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: Indonesia’s independence struggle combined armed resistance, republican organization, and international diplomacy. — Explanation: The map includes Dutch return, republican centers, negotiations, and recognition of sovereignty.

APWH-MCQ4-050 — Correct: B — Correct Answer: The expansion of anticolonial nationalism and the creation of new sovereign states — Explanation: Indonesia’s independence reflected the broader post-1945 wave of decolonization.

APWH-MCQ4-051 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: Environmental change became a major global issue linked to industrial emissions and climate impacts. — Explanation: Rising CO₂, temperature anomaly, and disaster reports indicate global climate change.

APWH-MCQ4-052 — Correct: B — Correct Answer: To argue for international responsibility and support for vulnerable states — Explanation: The statement asks for justice, adaptation funds, and protection for vulnerable island communities.

APWH-MCQ4-053 — Correct: C — Correct Answer: “Did not build the factories that filled the sky” — Explanation: This phrase highlights unequal responsibility for emissions and unequal vulnerability.

APWH-MCQ4-054 — Correct: B — Correct Answer: The rise of fossil-fuel-based industrialization and mass production — Explanation: The delegate connects climate change to factories and industrial emissions.

APWH-MCQ4-055 — Correct: C — Correct Answer: The delegate frames climate change as both an environmental crisis and a justice issue involving unequal responsibility. — Explanation: The statement links sea-level impacts, industrial emissions, justice, and adaptation funding.

SECTION 2 — SERIES DO-NOT-REPEAT BANK UPDATE — DO NOT IMPORT

SERIES DO-NOT-REPEAT BANK UPDATE — APWH-MCQ4

· APWH-MCQ4-001–004: Unit 1; c. 1200–1450; Mali/West Africa; original court account; mansa’s justice, Islamic learned men, gold dust, desert-to-forest regional authority; reasoning paths include purpose, Islamic learning evidence, gold-commerce contextualization, social interaction among rulers/scholars/merchants; source type: court account; misconception targeted: treating Mali as isolated or purely commercial without political-religious legitimacy.

· APWH-MCQ4-005–008: Unit 2; c. 1200–1450; Red Sea, Aden, Cairo, Afro-Eurasian exchange; original merchant letter; brokers, marked cloth, pepper, debt settlement by letter, port networks; reasoning paths include commercial process, credit evidence, audience, geographic position of Red Sea routes; source type: merchant correspondence; misconception targeted: assuming trade required coin movement or one empire controlling all ports.

· APWH-MCQ4-009–010: Units 1 and 2; c. 1200–1450; Mississippian North America; secondary-source material description; earthen mound, plaza, maize fields, elite residences, copper ornaments, marine shells; reasoning paths include material culture analysis and evidence for regional exchange; source type: archaeological description; misconception targeted: treating the Americas as lacking hierarchy or exchange before 1492.

· APWH-MCQ4-011–014: Unit 3; c. 1450–1750; Safavid Empire/Persia; original royal decree; shrine road, Friday sermon naming shah, tribal cavalry, silk dues, Isfahan; reasoning paths include purpose, religious legitimacy evidence, commercial taxation, royal centralization versus tribal military elites; source type: imperial decree; misconception targeted: separating Safavid rule from Shi’a legitimacy or commercial revenue.

· APWH-MCQ4-015–017: Unit 3; c. 1450–1750; Benin/West Africa; described palace bronze plaque; oba visual hierarchy, Portuguese traders, coral regalia, ceremonial weapons; reasoning paths include visual hierarchy, Atlantic commercial context, material-culture argument; visual type:

palace plaque; misconception targeted: assuming Portuguese contact erased African political authority or that African states lacked court art.

· APWH-MCQ4-018–021: Unit 4; c. 1450–1750; Spanish Peru/Lima and Andean colonial administration; original viceroy report; tribute villages, Native nobles, laborers, roads, priests, interpreters; reasoning paths include purpose, Indigenous elite incorporation, missionary contextualization, colonial system evaluation; source type: administrative report; misconception targeted: viewing Spanish colonial rule as either fully European-only or based on equal voluntary contracts.

· APWH-MCQ4-022–024: Unit 4; c. 1450–1750; West Central Africa, Brazil, Caribbean, Atlantic world; slave-trade records table; young adult men, plantation and mining labor, sugar expansion, abolitionist criticism; reasoning paths include data interpretation, demographic disruption evidence, political consequences for African and European states; table type: slave-trade port-destination pattern; misconception targeted: treating enslaved migration as voluntary or disconnected from labor demand and state power.

· APWH-MCQ4-025–028: Unit 5; c. 1750–1900; Qing China; original reform essay; steamships, arsenals, foreign science, translation schools, moral order, dynasty preservation; reasoning paths include purpose, foreign-pressure contextualization, reform-with-continuity evidence, argument evaluation; source type: Self-Strengthening-style reform essay; misconception targeted: assuming reformers either rejected all foreign technology or sought immediate revolution.

· APWH-MCQ4-029–032: Unit 5; c. 1750–1900; Mexico/Latin America; original liberal reform statement; corporate privileges, clergy, army, village lands, citizenship, transferable property, merit; reasoning paths include liberal reform development, POV, property evidence, liberal-nationalist ideology; source type: constitutional reform statement; misconception targeted: treating Latin American postindependence politics as unrelated to liberalism, property, or citizenship debates.

· APWH-MCQ4-033–036: Unit 6; c. 1750–1900; French Algeria/North Africa; described settler-colonial map; vineyards, coastal cities, rail lines, wine and grain exports, communal land transfer; reasoning paths include map interpretation, settler economy process, visual evidence of land dispossession, colonial-state argument; map type: settler agriculture-land transfer-rail export map; misconception targeted: viewing settler colonialism as harmless to Indigenous landholding or unrelated to export infrastructure.

· APWH-MCQ4-037–040: Unit 6; c. 1750–1900; eastern Mediterranean diaspora to Egypt, West Africa, Argentina, Brazil, North America, Australia; migration data table; trade, craft work, wages, land, family networks, chain migration, education; reasoning paths include migration data interpretation, social-network evidence, steamship/labor-market context, political debates over immigration; table type: migration destinations and motives; misconception targeted: assuming industrial-era migration was only Europe-to-U.S. or ended before 1900.

· APWH-MCQ4-041–043: Unit 7; c. 1900–present; China under Japanese occupation; original civilian diary; school closure, hospital crowding, bombing, requisitioning grain and carts, imperial order rhetoric; reasoning paths include purpose, technology evidence, value of civilian testimony; source type: wartime diary; misconception targeted: treating total war as only military-front experience or ignoring civilian suffering under occupation.

· APWH-MCQ4-044–045: Unit 7; c. 1900–present; Malaya, Chile, Gold Coast; Great Depression commodity-price table; tin, nitrates, cocoa price collapse; reasoning paths include quantitative interpretation and political consequences of export dependence; table type: commodity price index; misconception targeted: assuming the Great Depression affected only industrialized countries or left colonies untouched.

- APWH-MCQ4-046–048: Unit 8; c. 1900–present; Cuba/Caribbean Cold War; described literacy campaign poster; volunteer, lantern, primer, rural adults, revolution slogan, flag and schoolbook; reasoning paths include visual interpretation, evidence of mass social participation, Cold War revolutionary social-program context; visual type: revolutionary education poster; misconception targeted: separating education campaigns from ideology and state mobilization.

- APWH-MCQ4-049–050: Unit 8; c. 1900–present; Indonesia/Southeast Asia; described decolonization map; Dutch return, republican centers in Java and Sumatra, Hague negotiations, sovereignty recognition; reasoning paths include map interpretation and postwar anticolonial nationalism; map type: independence struggle and diplomatic recognition map; misconception targeted: treating decolonization as conflict-free or unrelated to World War II's aftermath.

- APWH-MCQ4-051–055: Unit 9; c. 1900–present; global climate change and Pacific island states; climate indicator table plus original international conference statement; CO₂, temperature anomaly, disaster reports, adaptation funds, justice, unequal responsibility, industrial emissions; reasoning paths include data interpretation, purpose, inequality evidence, industrial causation, argument evaluation; source/table type: climate data and diplomatic statement; misconception targeted: treating climate change as local-only or unrelated to industrial history and global inequality.