

SECTION 1 — IMPORT-READY SOURCE FILE

AP World History: Modern MCQ Practice Exam 6

PART A — QUESTIONS

APWH-MCQ6-001

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 1 — The Global Tapestry

Period: c. 1200–1450

Theme: GOV — Governance

Skill: Sourcing and Situation

Prompt:

Originalized court poem, Majapahit Java, c. 1365: “The ruler’s messengers travel from the rice plains to the island harbors. Lords bring tribute to the capital, priests bless the king’s cosmic order, and ships from many seas anchor where officials weigh pepper and cloth.” What was the most likely purpose of the poem?

- A) To portray the ruler as the center of political, religious, and commercial order
- B) To argue that Java was isolated from maritime trade
- C) To show that priests replaced kings as military commanders
- D) To promote the abolition of tribute in Southeast Asia

APWH-MCQ6-002

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 1 — The Global Tapestry

Period: c. 1200–1450

Theme: CDI — Cultural Developments and Interactions

Skill: Claims and Evidence in Sources

Prompt:

Originalized court poem, Majapahit Java, c. 1365: “The ruler’s messengers travel from the rice plains to the island harbors. Lords bring tribute to the capital, priests bless the king’s cosmic order, and ships from many seas anchor where officials weigh pepper and cloth.” Which phrase best supports the claim that religious ideas helped legitimize kingship?

- A) “Ships from many seas”
- B) “Officials weigh pepper”
- C) “Priests bless the king’s cosmic order”
- D) “Rice plains”

APWH-MCQ6-003

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 1 — The Global Tapestry

Period: c. 1200–1450

Theme: ECN — Economic Systems

Skill: Contextualization

Prompt:

Originalized court poem, Majapahit Java, c. 1365: “The ruler’s messengers travel from the rice plains to the island harbors. Lords bring tribute to the capital, priests bless the king’s cosmic order, and ships from many seas anchor where officials weigh pepper and cloth.” Which broader context best explains the reference to island harbors and overseas ships?

- A) The decline of Southeast Asian participation in maritime exchange
- B) The importance of Southeast Asian states in regional sea-lane commerce
- C) The spread of Atlantic plantation economies into Java before 1450
- D) The replacement of all maritime trade by Saharan caravan routes

APWH-MCQ6-004

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 1 — The Global Tapestry

Period: c. 1200–1450

Theme: SIO — Social Interactions and Organization

Skill: Making Connections / Historical Reasoning

Prompt:

Originalized court poem, Majapahit Java, c. 1365: “The ruler’s messengers travel from the rice plains to the island harbors. Lords bring tribute to the capital, priests bless the king’s cosmic order, and ships from many seas anchor where officials weigh pepper and cloth.” The passage most directly suggests which social arrangement?

- A) A society without elites or specialized officials
- B) A hierarchy linking ruler, regional lords, priests, officials, and merchants
- C) A society governed entirely by foreign ship captains
- D) A political system based only on pastoral nomadism

APWH-MCQ6-005

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 1 — The Global Tapestry

Period: c. 1200–1450

Theme: ENV — Humans and the Environment

Skill: Visual / Material Culture Analysis

Prompt:

Secondary-source description of Ancestral Pueblo communities in the North American Southwest, c. 1200: “Stone and adobe rooms were built into canyon walls or clustered near seasonal water sources. Storage rooms held maize, beans, and squash, while roads and signal points connected scattered settlements.” Which interpretation is best supported by the description?

- A) Pueblo communities adapted architecture and agriculture to arid environments.
- B) Pueblo communities depended on imported wheat and sheep before 1450.
- C) Pueblo settlements were founded by European missionaries.
- D) Pueblo societies avoided all regional communication.

APWH-MCQ6-006

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 2 — Networks of Exchange

Period: c. 1200–1450

Theme: ECN — Economic Systems

Skill: Quantitative, Map, or Data Interpretation

Prompt:

Described map: “A map of northern Europe c. 1350 shows sea routes linking Lübeck, Bergen, Novgorod, London, and Bruges. Symbols mark furs and wax moving west, wool cloth moving east, and dried fish moving south from the North Atlantic.” Which conclusion is best supported by the map?

- A) Northern European trade networks linked Baltic, North Sea, and Atlantic regions.
- B) Trade in northern Europe was limited to local village markets.
- C) The Hanseatic cities were isolated from long-distance exchange.
- D) Mediterranean ports controlled all commerce in northern Europe.

APWH-MCQ6-007

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 2 — Networks of Exchange

Period: c. 1200–1450

Theme: TEC — Technology and Innovation

Skill: Developments and Processes

Prompt:

Described map: “A map of northern Europe c. 1350 shows sea routes linking Lübeck, Bergen, Novgorod, London, and Bruges. Symbols mark furs and wax moving west, wool cloth moving east, and dried fish moving south from the North Atlantic.” Which development most directly supported the exchange shown?

- A) Steamships and telegraphs
- B) Caravanserais across the Sahara
- C) Merchant associations, port warehouses, and improved sailing vessels
- D) Plantation labor systems in the Caribbean

APWH-MCQ6-008

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 2 — Networks of Exchange

Period: c. 1200–1450

Theme: ENV — Humans and the Environment

Skill: Claims and Evidence in Sources

Prompt:

Described map: “A map of northern Europe c. 1350 shows sea routes linking Lübeck, Bergen, Novgorod, London, and Bruges. Symbols mark furs and wax moving west, wool cloth moving east, and dried fish moving south from the North Atlantic.” Which map detail best supports the claim that environmental zones shaped trade?

- A) Dried fish moving south from the North Atlantic
- B) The city of London
- C) Sea routes linking ports
- D) The date c. 1350

APWH-MCQ6-009

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 2 — Networks of Exchange

Period: c. 1200–1450

Theme: CDI — Cultural Developments and Interactions

Skill: Sourcing and Situation

Prompt:

Originalized letter from a Jewish merchant in the western Mediterranean, c. 1200: “Send the indigo by the ship from Ifriqiya, and write in Arabic for the customs clerk. My cousin in al-Andalus will receive the goods, but use Hebrew letters so our partners may read the account quickly.” Which audience would most likely have used a document like this?

- A) Buddhist monks translating sutras in Central Asia
- B) Merchants operating across multilingual Mediterranean communities
- C) Officials relocating factories during World War II
- D) Peasant rebels demanding land reform

APWH-MCQ6-010

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 2 — Networks of Exchange

Period: c. 1200–1450

Theme: CDI — Cultural Developments and Interactions

Skill: Making Connections / Historical Reasoning

Prompt:

Originalized letter from a Jewish merchant in the western Mediterranean, c. 1200: “Send the indigo by the ship from Ifriqiya, and write in Arabic for the customs clerk. My cousin in al-Andalus will receive the goods, but use Hebrew letters so our partners may read the account quickly.” The letter most directly illustrates which feature of medieval exchange networks?

- A) Commercial exchange could encourage multilingual and diasporic cultural practices.
- B) Merchants avoided written communication across the Mediterranean.
- C) Religious minorities were absent from trade networks.
- D) Maritime commerce ended contact between Islamic and European regions.

APWH-MCQ6-011

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 3 — Land-Based Empires

Period: c. 1450–1750

Theme: GOV — Governance

Skill: Sourcing and Situation

Prompt:

Originalized Songhai administrative order, c. 1500: “Let the market inspector in Timbuktu record the salt measures and settle disputes among caravan men. The cavalry commanders shall guard the Niger crossings, and the judges shall hear cases according to law. Tribute from the river towns must reach Gao before the rains.” What was the most likely purpose of the order?

- A) To coordinate market regulation, military protection, law, and tribute collection
- B) To abolish trans-Saharan trade in salt
- C) To make Timbuktu independent from Songhai authority
- D) To replace cavalry with industrial conscription

APWH-MCQ6-012

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 3 — Land-Based Empires

Period: c. 1450–1750

Theme: ECN — Economic Systems

Skill: Claims and Evidence in Sources

Prompt:

Originalized Songhai administrative order, c. 1500: “Let the market inspector in Timbuktu record the salt measures and settle disputes among caravan men. The cavalry commanders shall guard the Niger crossings, and the judges shall hear cases according to law. Tribute from the river towns must reach Gao before the rains.” Which phrase best supports the claim that the state regulated commerce?

- A) “Record the salt measures”
- B) “Before the rains”
- C) “Cavalry commanders”
- D) “According to law”

APWH-MCQ6-013

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 3 — Land-Based Empires

Period: c. 1450–1750

Theme: ENV — Humans and the Environment

Skill: Contextualization

Prompt:

Originalized Songhai administrative order, c. 1500: “Let the market inspector in Timbuktu record the salt measures and settle disputes among caravan men. The cavalry commanders shall guard the Niger crossings, and the judges shall hear cases according to law. Tribute from the river towns must reach Gao before the rains.” Which environmental factor most directly shaped the timing mentioned in the order?

- A) Seasonal rainfall affecting river travel, roads, and agricultural cycles
- B) Freezing conditions across the Niger River for most of the year
- C) Monsoon winds in the South China Sea
- D) Volcanic eruptions disrupting Atlantic shipping

APWH-MCQ6-014

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 3 — Land-Based Empires

Period: c. 1450–1750

Theme: CDI — Cultural Developments and Interactions

Skill: Developments and Processes

Prompt:

Originalized Songhai administrative order, c. 1500: “Let the market inspector in Timbuktu record the salt measures and settle disputes among caravan men. The cavalry commanders shall guard the Niger crossings, and the judges shall hear cases according to law. Tribute from the river towns must reach Gao before the rains.” The reference to judges in Timbuktu most directly reflects which broader development?

- A) The spread of Islamic legal and scholarly institutions in West African cities
- B) The elimination of urban learning in the Sahel
- C) The replacement of Islamic law by European colonial courts before 1500
- D) The decline of written administration under Songhai rule

APWH-MCQ6-015

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 3 — Land-Based Empires

Period: c. 1450–1750

Theme: GOV — Governance

Skill: Visual / Material Culture Analysis

Prompt:

Described Habsburg imperial procession, Vienna, c. 1700: “A painting shows officials carrying banners labeled Bohemia, Hungary, Austria, and Croatia. Nobles wear different regional costumes while bowing before the emperor, and clerics stand near symbols of Catholic victory over Protestant rebels.” Which interpretation is best supported by the visual description?

- A) The Habsburg monarchy ruled a composite empire made up of multiple territories and elites.
- B) The Habsburg state eliminated all regional identities before 1700.
- C) Habsburg authority depended on Buddhist monastic administration.
- D) The painting shows a maritime republic without monarchy.

APWH-MCQ6-016

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 3 — Land-Based Empires

Period: c. 1450–1750

Theme: CDI — Cultural Developments and Interactions

Skill: Claims and Evidence in Sources

Prompt:

Described Habsburg imperial procession, Vienna, c. 1700: “A painting shows officials carrying banners labeled Bohemia, Hungary, Austria, and Croatia. Nobles wear different regional costumes while bowing before the emperor, and clerics stand near symbols of Catholic victory over Protestant rebels.” Which feature most directly shows that religion was connected to imperial legitimacy?

- A) Regional costumes
- B) Banners labeled with territories
- C) Clerics near symbols of Catholic victory
- D) Nobles bowing before the emperor

APWH-MCQ6-017

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 3 — Land-Based Empires

Period: c. 1450–1750

Theme: SIO — Social Interactions and Organization

Skill: Argumentation / Claim-Evidence

Prompt:

Described Habsburg imperial procession, Vienna, c. 1700: “A painting shows officials carrying banners labeled Bohemia, Hungary, Austria, and Croatia. Nobles wear different regional costumes while bowing before the emperor, and clerics stand near symbols of Catholic victory over Protestant rebels.” Which argument is best supported by the image description?

- A) Composite empires could display unity while preserving visible regional distinctions.
- B) Early modern empires always erased noble status.
- C) Religious conflict had no effect on European state-building.
- D) Regional elites governed without reference to monarchy.

APWH-MCQ6-018

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 4 — Transoceanic Interconnections

Period: c. 1450–1750

Theme: ECN — Economic Systems

Skill: Quantitative, Map, or Data Interpretation

Prompt:

Table: St. Lawrence fur trade, simplified pattern

Participant | Goods or role

Indigenous hunters and middlemen | Beaver pelts, geographic knowledge, diplomacy

French traders | Metal tools, textiles, firearms, credit

Missionaries and officials | Alliances, conversion efforts, regulation

Which conclusion is best supported by the table?

- A) The fur trade depended on cooperation, exchange, and negotiation between French and Indigenous groups.
- B) French traders controlled all inland territory without Indigenous assistance.
- C) Beaver pelts had no role in Atlantic commerce.
- D) Missionaries and officials avoided involvement in trade alliances.

APWH-MCQ6-019

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 4 — Transoceanic Interconnections

Period: c. 1450–1750

Theme: ENV — Humans and the Environment

Skill: Making Connections / Historical Reasoning

Prompt:

Table: St. Lawrence fur trade, simplified pattern

Participant | Goods or role

Indigenous hunters and middlemen | Beaver pelts, geographic knowledge, diplomacy

French traders | Metal tools, textiles, firearms, credit

Missionaries and officials | Alliances, conversion efforts, regulation

Which environmental consequence was most directly connected to the trade pattern shown?

- A) The end of animal hunting in North America
- B) The spread of rice cultivation into the Arctic
- C) Increased pressure on beaver populations in traded regions
- D) The disappearance of forest ecosystems before 1500

APWH-MCQ6-020

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 4 — Transoceanic Interconnections

Period: c. 1450–1750

Theme: CDI — Cultural Developments and Interactions

Skill: Claims and Evidence in Sources

Prompt:

Table: St. Lawrence fur trade, simplified pattern

Participant | Goods or role

Indigenous hunters and middlemen | Beaver pelts, geographic knowledge, diplomacy

French traders | Metal tools, textiles, firearms, credit

Missionaries and officials | Alliances, conversion efforts, regulation

Which evidence best supports the claim that cultural interaction accompanied economic exchange?

- A) “Beaver pelts”
- B) “Metal tools”
- C) “Conversion efforts”
- D) “Credit”

APWH-MCQ6-021

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 4 — Transoceanic Interconnections

Period: c. 1450–1750

Theme: GOV — Governance

Skill: Argumentation / Claim-Evidence

Prompt:

Table: St. Lawrence fur trade, simplified pattern

Participant | Goods or role

Indigenous hunters and middlemen | Beaver pelts, geographic knowledge, diplomacy

French traders | Metal tools, textiles, firearms, credit

Missionaries and officials | Alliances, conversion efforts, regulation

Which argument is best supported by the table?

- A) European empires in North America always operated independently of Indigenous political relationships.
- B) Early colonial power in the St. Lawrence region depended partly on alliances and Indigenous knowledge.
- C) Indigenous peoples were excluded from all Atlantic exchange.
- D) French colonial officials rejected diplomacy as a tool of empire.

APWH-MCQ6-022

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 4 — Transoceanic Interconnections

Period: c. 1450–1750

Theme: GOV — Governance

Skill: Sourcing and Situation

Prompt:

Originalized Portuguese naval instruction, western Indian Ocean, c. 1520: “No ship shall pass without a written license bearing the captain’s seal. Those who refuse inspection will have their cargo seized. Fort commanders must report which rulers accept our passes and which send pilots to rival harbors.” What was the most likely purpose of the instruction?

- A) To regulate maritime movement and enforce Portuguese commercial authority
- B) To abolish all Indian Ocean trade
- C) To surrender Portuguese forts to local merchants
- D) To encourage unrestricted trade by rival powers

APWH-MCQ6-023

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 4 — Transoceanic Interconnections

Period: c. 1450–1750

Theme: TEC — Technology and Innovation

Skill: Developments and Processes

Prompt:

Originalized Portuguese naval instruction, western Indian Ocean, c. 1520: “No ship shall pass without a written license bearing the captain’s seal. Those who refuse inspection will have their cargo seized. Fort commanders must report which rulers accept our passes and which send pilots to rival harbors.” The system described depended most directly on which development?

- A) Steam-powered ironclads

- B) Armed ocean-going ships and fortified coastal posts
- C) Railroads linking mines to ports
- D) Wireless radio communication

APWH-MCQ6-024

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 4 — Transoceanic Interconnections

Period: c. 1450–1750

Theme: ECN — Economic Systems

Skill: Making Connections / Historical Reasoning

Prompt:

Originalized Portuguese naval instruction, western Indian Ocean, c. 1520: “No ship shall pass without a written license bearing the captain’s seal. Those who refuse inspection will have their cargo seized. Fort commanders must report which rulers accept our passes and which send pilots to rival harbors.” The instruction most directly reflects which broader process?

- A) European attempts to redirect and tax existing Asian maritime trade
- B) The collapse of all commerce between Africa and Asia
- C) The decline of state involvement in maritime exchange
- D) The end of competition among Indian Ocean port cities

APWH-MCQ6-025

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 5 — Revolutions

Period: c. 1750–1900

Theme: GOV — Governance

Skill: Sourcing and Situation

Prompt:

Originalized imperial edict, Russia, 1861: “The peasant shall no longer be the property of the landlord, yet the village commune shall answer for payments and order. Land is granted by law, but obligations must be fulfilled so that freedom does not become disorder.” What was the most likely purpose of the edict?

- A) To emancipate serfs while preserving state control, land payments, and rural order
- B) To restore serfdom after the Russian Revolution
- C) To abolish village communes and create universal suffrage
- D) To make Russia a British colony

APWH-MCQ6-026

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 5 — Revolutions

Period: c. 1750–1900

Theme: SIO — Social Interactions and Organization

Skill: Claims and Evidence in Sources

Prompt:

Originalized imperial edict, Russia, 1861: “The peasant shall no longer be the property of the landlord, yet the village commune shall answer for payments and order. Land is granted by law, but obligations must be fulfilled so that freedom does not become disorder.” Which phrase best supports the claim that emancipation remained limited by continuing obligations?

- A) “No longer be the property”

- B) “The peasant”
- C) “Obligations must be fulfilled”
- D) “Granted by law”

APWH-MCQ6-027

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 5 — Revolutions

Period: c. 1750–1900

Theme: ECN — Economic Systems

Skill: Contextualization

Prompt:

Originalized imperial edict, Russia, 1861: “The peasant shall no longer be the property of the landlord, yet the village commune shall answer for payments and order. Land is granted by law, but obligations must be fulfilled so that freedom does not become disorder.” Which broader context best explains the edict?

- A) Russian leaders sought reform after military weakness and social pressures exposed the limits of serfdom.
- B) Russia had fully industrialized before all western European states.
- C) Serfdom had disappeared from Russia by 1500.
- D) Russian rulers rejected all state-led reform after 1750.

APWH-MCQ6-028

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 5 — Revolutions

Period: c. 1750–1900

Theme: GOV — Governance

Skill: Argumentation / Claim-Evidence

Prompt:

Originalized imperial edict, Russia, 1861: “The peasant shall no longer be the property of the landlord, yet the village commune shall answer for payments and order. Land is granted by law, but obligations must be fulfilled so that freedom does not become disorder.” Which statement best evaluates the reform described?

- A) It immediately created complete political equality for peasants.
- B) It ended landlord property claims without changing rural society.
- C) It expanded legal freedom but preserved state supervision and economic burdens.
- D) It rejected the idea that peasants should have any legal rights.

APWH-MCQ6-029

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 5 — Revolutions

Period: c. 1750–1900

Theme: CDI — Cultural Developments and Interactions

Skill: Sourcing and Situation

Prompt:

Originalized newspaper editorial, Cairo, c. 1881: “A nation cannot be strong when its officers are dismissed for foreign favorites and its peasants pay taxes to satisfy bondholders abroad. A chamber chosen by Egyptians must watch the ministers, for knowledge and consultation are not rebellion.” Which audience was the editorial most likely intended to influence?

- A) Egyptian readers and officials debating constitutional reform and foreign influence
- B) Japanese soldiers occupying Southeast Asia
- C) Mongol envoys crossing Central Asia
- D) European settlers claiming vineyard land in Algeria

APWH-MCQ6-030

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 5 — Revolutions

Period: c. 1750–1900

Theme: GOV — Governance

Skill: Claims and Evidence in Sources

Prompt:

Originalized newspaper editorial, Cairo, c. 1881: “A nation cannot be strong when its officers are dismissed for foreign favorites and its peasants pay taxes to satisfy bondholders abroad. A chamber chosen by Egyptians must watch the ministers, for knowledge and consultation are not rebellion.” Which phrase best supports the claim that the author favored representative oversight?

- A) “Foreign favorites”
- B) “Peasants pay taxes”
- C) “A chamber chosen by Egyptians must watch the ministers”
- D) “Bondholders abroad”

APWH-MCQ6-031

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 5 — Revolutions

Period: c. 1750–1900

Theme: ECN — Economic Systems

Skill: Making Connections / Historical Reasoning

Prompt:

Originalized newspaper editorial, Cairo, c. 1881: “A nation cannot be strong when its officers are dismissed for foreign favorites and its peasants pay taxes to satisfy bondholders abroad. A chamber chosen by Egyptians must watch the ministers, for knowledge and consultation are not rebellion.” The editorial most directly links political reform to which economic grievance?

- A) Foreign debt and taxation pressures on Egyptian society
- B) The abolition of all export agriculture
- C) The collapse of Mediterranean trade after 1200
- D) The refusal of Egyptians to use newspapers

APWH-MCQ6-032

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 5 — Revolutions

Period: c. 1750–1900

Theme: TEC — Technology and Innovation

Skill: Argumentation / Claim-Evidence

Prompt:

Originalized newspaper editorial, Cairo, c. 1881: “A nation cannot be strong when its officers are dismissed for foreign favorites and its peasants pay taxes to satisfy bondholders abroad. A chamber chosen by Egyptians must watch the ministers, for knowledge and consultation are not rebellion.” Which statement best evaluates the editorial’s argument?

- A) It rejects public debate as dangerous to national strength.
- B) It uses print-based political argument to connect national dignity, economic grievance, and constitutional oversight.
- C) It defends foreign financial control as necessary for independence.
- D) It argues that peasants should have no role in national politics.

APWH-MCQ6-033

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 6 — Consequences of Industrialization

Period: c. 1750–1900

Theme: GOV — Governance

Skill: Sourcing and Situation

Prompt:

Originalized diplomatic letter from Emperor Menelik II of Ethiopia, c. 1896: “We welcome friendship and trade, but no treaty shall make Ethiopia a child under another’s protection. Our envoys will answer Europe’s kings as equals, and our soldiers will defend the mountains if words are twisted against us.” What was the most likely purpose of the letter?

- A) To accept formal colonial protectorate status
- B) To defend Ethiopian sovereignty against imperial claims
- C) To invite European settlers to govern Ethiopian provinces
- D) To reject all diplomacy with foreign states

APWH-MCQ6-034

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 6 — Consequences of Industrialization

Period: c. 1750–1900

Theme: GOV — Governance

Skill: Claims and Evidence in Sources

Prompt:

Originalized diplomatic letter from Emperor Menelik II of Ethiopia, c. 1896: “We welcome friendship and trade, but no treaty shall make Ethiopia a child under another’s protection. Our envoys will answer Europe’s kings as equals, and our soldiers will defend the mountains if words are twisted against us.” Which phrase best supports the claim that Menelik rejected protectorate status?

- A) “Friendship and trade”
- B) “Europe’s kings”
- C) “No treaty shall make Ethiopia a child under another’s protection”
- D) “Our soldiers”

APWH-MCQ6-035

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 6 — Consequences of Industrialization

Period: c. 1750–1900

Theme: TEC — Technology and Innovation

Skill: Contextualization

Prompt:

Originalized diplomatic letter from Emperor Menelik II of Ethiopia, c. 1896: “We welcome friendship and trade, but no treaty shall make Ethiopia a child under another’s protection. Our envoys will answer Europe's kings as equals, and our soldiers will defend the mountains if words are twisted against us." Which broader context best explains Ethiopia's ability to resist colonization more successfully than many African states?

- A) Ethiopia combined diplomacy, arms purchases, and military organization during the age of imperialism.
- B) Ethiopia avoided all contact with European states before 1900.
- C) Ethiopia was protected by membership in the United Nations.
- D) Ethiopia depended on Japanese military occupation for independence.

APWH-MCQ6-036

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 6 — Consequences of Industrialization

Period: c. 1750–1900

Theme: CDI — Cultural Developments and Interactions

Skill: Argumentation / Claim-Evidence

Prompt:

Originalized diplomatic letter from Emperor Menelik II of Ethiopia, c. 1896: "We welcome friendship and trade, but no treaty shall make Ethiopia a child under another's protection. Our envoys will answer Europe's kings as equals, and our soldiers will defend the mountains if words are twisted against us." Which statement best evaluates the argument in the letter?

- A) Menelik argues that trade and diplomacy are compatible with political independence.
- B) Menelik claims that Ethiopia should withdraw from all international contact.
- C) Menelik accepts racial hierarchy as the basis of imperial diplomacy.
- D) Menelik argues that treaties should be interpreted only by European officials.

APWH-MCQ6-037

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 6 — Consequences of Industrialization

Period: c. 1750–1900

Theme: ECN — Economic Systems

Skill: Visual / Material Culture Analysis

Prompt:

Described political cartoon, Iran, 1891: "A tobacco pipe shaped like a foreign company contract stretches across a bazaar. Merchants, clerics, and women pull at the pipe while a court official tries to protect it. The caption reads, 'Smoke for them, hunger for us.'" Which interpretation is best supported by the cartoon?

- A) Iranian society uniformly supported foreign concessions.
- B) Opposition to foreign economic concessions could unite merchants, religious leaders, and urban consumers.
- C) Tobacco concessions ended all market activity in Iran.
- D) Foreign companies avoided influence over domestic economic life.

APWH-MCQ6-038

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 6 — Consequences of Industrialization

Period: c. 1750–1900

Theme: SIO — Social Interactions and Organization

Skill: Claims and Evidence in Sources

Prompt:

Described political cartoon, Iran, 1891: “A tobacco pipe shaped like a foreign company contract stretches across a bazaar. Merchants, clerics, and women pull at the pipe while a court official tries to protect it. The caption reads, ‘Smoke for them, hunger for us.’” Which detail most directly supports the claim that resistance crossed social groups?

- A) A tobacco pipe appears in the cartoon.
- B) The caption mentions hunger.
- C) Merchants, clerics, and women all pull at the pipe.
- D) A court official protects the contract.

APWH-MCQ6-039

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 6 — Consequences of Industrialization

Period: c. 1750–1900

Theme: ECN — Economic Systems

Skill: Making Connections / Historical Reasoning

Prompt:

Described political cartoon, Iran, 1891: “A tobacco pipe shaped like a foreign company contract stretches across a bazaar. Merchants, clerics, and women pull at the pipe while a court official tries to protect it. The caption reads, ‘Smoke for them, hunger for us.’” The cartoon most directly connects anti-imperial protest to which process?

- A) The granting of economic concessions to foreign firms
- B) The abolition of all cash-crop agriculture
- C) The decline of urban markets after 1450
- D) The end of global capitalism in the nineteenth century

APWH-MCQ6-040

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 6 — Consequences of Industrialization

Period: c. 1750–1900

Theme: CDI — Cultural Developments and Interactions

Skill: Argumentation / Claim-Evidence

Prompt:

Described political cartoon, Iran, 1891: “A tobacco pipe shaped like a foreign company contract stretches across a bazaar. Merchants, clerics, and women pull at the pipe while a court official tries to protect it. The caption reads, ‘Smoke for them, hunger for us.’” Which argument is best supported by the cartoon?

- A) Anti-imperial resistance could be expressed through urban public culture and economic symbolism.
- B) Religious leaders never participated in protests against foreign influence.
- C) Foreign concessions were accepted because they lowered food prices for all groups.
- D) Political cartoons were unrelated to nineteenth-century reform movements.

APWH-MCQ6-041

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 7 — Global Conflict

Period: c. 1900–present

Theme: GOV — Governance

Skill: Sourcing and Situation

Prompt:

Originalized testimony from a Jewish resident of occupied Poland, c. 1942: “The new order says our street is now closed. We wear marks on our coats, surrender radios, and wait for lists posted by officials. Some say the trains go to labor, but families who leave do not write back.” What was the most likely purpose of preserving this testimony?

- A) To document the experiences of persecution, segregation, and deportation under Nazi rule
- B) To show that Nazi occupation protected religious minorities
- C) To praise forced relocation as voluntary labor migration
- D) To prove that civilians were not targeted during World War II

APWH-MCQ6-042

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 7 — Global Conflict

Period: c. 1900–present

Theme: SIO — Social Interactions and Organization

Skill: Claims and Evidence in Sources

Prompt:

Originalized testimony from a Jewish resident of occupied Poland, c. 1942: “The new order says our street is now closed. We wear marks on our coats, surrender radios, and wait for lists posted by officials. Some say the trains go to labor, but families who leave do not write back.” Which phrase most directly supports the claim that the occupation imposed social segregation?

- A) “Our street is now closed”
- B) “Surrender radios”
- C) “Lists posted by officials”
- D) “Do not write back”

APWH-MCQ6-043

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 7 — Global Conflict

Period: c. 1900–present

Theme: CDI — Cultural Developments and Interactions

Skill: Argumentation / Claim-Evidence

Prompt:

Originalized testimony from a Jewish resident of occupied Poland, c. 1942: “The new order says our street is now closed. We wear marks on our coats, surrender radios, and wait for lists posted by officials. Some say the trains go to labor, but families who leave do not write back.” Which statement best evaluates the testimony’s historical value?

- A) It is valuable because it shows how official language and bureaucratic rules masked escalating persecution.
- B) It is useless because personal testimony cannot reveal state policy.
- C) It proves that deportees were sent only to ordinary wage labor.
- D) It shows that Nazi rule avoided identification and registration systems.

APWH-MCQ6-044

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 7 — Global Conflict

Period: c. 1900–present

Theme: TEC — Technology and Innovation

Skill: Quantitative, Map, or Data Interpretation

Prompt:

Table: Spanish Civil War international involvement, simplified pattern

Actor | Support given

Germany and Italy | Aircraft, pilots, equipment to Nationalists

Soviet Union | Weapons and advisers to Republicans

International Brigades | Volunteers from many countries to Republicans

Which conclusion is best supported by the table?

A) The Spanish Civil War became a testing ground for international ideological and military involvement.

B) The Spanish Civil War involved only local Spanish forces.

C) Foreign powers avoided using modern weapons in the conflict.

D) The conflict ended ideological divisions in Europe.

APWH-MCQ6-045

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 7 — Global Conflict

Period: c. 1900–present

Theme: GOV — Governance

Skill: Contextualization

Prompt:

Table: Spanish Civil War international involvement, simplified pattern

Actor | Support given

Germany and Italy | Aircraft, pilots, equipment to Nationalists

Soviet Union | Weapons and advisers to Republicans

International Brigades | Volunteers from many countries to Republicans

Which broader context best explains the involvement shown?

A) The disappearance of fascist and communist ideologies after World War I

B) The end of European political polarization during the interwar period

C) The ideological conflicts among fascism, communism, and liberal democracy before World War II

D) The creation of postwar decolonization movements in Asia

APWH-MCQ6-046

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 8 — Cold War and Decolonization

Period: c. 1900–present

Theme: GOV — Governance

Skill: Sourcing and Situation

Prompt:

Originalized speech by Patrice Lumumba, Congo, 1960: “Independence is not a gift wrapped in a flag. It must mean that our copper, our courts, and our soldiers answer to the Congolese people. We ask friendship from abroad, but not masters with new names.” What was the most likely purpose of the speech?

A) To defend continued Belgian rule over Congo

B) To reject economic and political neo-colonial control after independence

C) To support rule by foreign mining companies

D) To argue that independence should exclude control over resources

APWH-MCQ6-047

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 8 — Cold War and Decolonization

Period: c. 1900–present

Theme: ECN — Economic Systems

Skill: Claims and Evidence in Sources

Prompt:

Originalized speech by Patrice Lumumba, Congo, 1960: “Independence is not a gift wrapped in a flag. It must mean that our copper, our courts, and our soldiers answer to the Congolese people. We ask friendship from abroad, but not masters with new names.” Which phrase best supports the claim that resource sovereignty was central to the speaker’s argument?

- A) “Gift wrapped in a flag”
- B) “Our copper”
- C) “Friendship from abroad”
- D) “Our soldiers”

APWH-MCQ6-048

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 8 — Cold War and Decolonization

Period: c. 1900–present

Theme: SIO — Social Interactions and Organization

Skill: Argumentation / Claim-Evidence

Prompt:

Originalized speech by Patrice Lumumba, Congo, 1960: “Independence is not a gift wrapped in a flag. It must mean that our copper, our courts, and our soldiers answer to the Congolese people. We ask friendship from abroad, but not masters with new names.” Which statement best evaluates the speaker’s argument?

- A) The speaker defines independence as formal symbolism without institutional change.
- B) The speaker argues that sovereignty requires control over resources, law, and military power.
- C) The speaker rejects all international relationships.
- D) The speaker claims that foreign companies should govern postcolonial states.

APWH-MCQ6-049

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 8 — Cold War and Decolonization

Period: c. 1900–present

Theme: GOV — Governance

Skill: Visual / Material Culture Analysis

Prompt:

Described Chilean campaign poster, early 1970s: “A miner, a student, and a mother stand beneath the words ‘Bread, Copper, and Democracy.’ In the background, a factory chimney and ballot box appear side by side. Smaller text calls for national control of resources through constitutional government.” Which interpretation is best supported by the poster?

- A) Cold War-era politics in Latin America could link social welfare, elections, and control of natural resources.
- B) Chilean politics rejected the use of electoral campaigns.
- C) Resource nationalism had no relationship to democratic politics.
- D) The poster supports foreign military rule over Chilean copper.

APWH-MCQ6-050

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 8 — Cold War and Decolonization

Period: c. 1900–present

Theme: CDI — Cultural Developments and Interactions

Skill: Making Connections / Historical Reasoning

Prompt:

Described Chilean campaign poster, early 1970s: “A miner, a student, and a mother stand beneath the words ‘Bread, Copper, and Democracy.’ In the background, a factory chimney and ballot box appear side by side. Smaller text calls for national control of resources through constitutional government.” The poster most directly reflects which broader Cold War-era pattern?

- A) The decline of all ideological conflict in Latin America
- B) The use of mass political imagery to mobilize support for competing development visions
- C) The disappearance of labor and student activism
- D) The replacement of electoral politics by hereditary monarchy

APWH-MCQ6-051

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 9 — Globalization

Period: c. 1900–present

Theme: TEC — Technology and Innovation

Skill: Quantitative, Map, or Data Interpretation

Prompt:

Table: Smallpox cases reported globally, simplified pattern

Year	Reported cases
1967	About 10–15 million
1975	Fewer than 50,000
1980	0 naturally occurring cases certified

Which conclusion is best supported by the table?

- A) Global vaccination campaigns helped eliminate naturally occurring smallpox.
- B) Smallpox cases increased after 1967.
- C) Disease eradication required no international coordination.
- D) Smallpox was limited to one region throughout the twentieth century.

APWH-MCQ6-052

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 9 — Globalization

Period: c. 1900–present

Theme: GOV — Governance

Skill: Sourcing and Situation

Prompt:

Originalized public health report, World Health Organization field team, late 1970s: “Local health workers, village leaders, and international teams mark each case on a district map. Vaccinators travel by jeep, boat, and bicycle, and neighbors are asked to report fever and rash quickly.” What was the most likely purpose of the report?

- A) To describe coordinated surveillance and vaccination methods used in disease eradication
- B) To argue that public health should avoid local cooperation

- C) To promote the spread of smallpox as a military weapon
- D) To prove that international organizations could not work with villages

APWH-MCQ6-053

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 9 — Globalization

Period: c. 1900–present

Theme: SIO — Social Interactions and Organization

Skill: Claims and Evidence in Sources

Prompt:

Originalized public health report, World Health Organization field team, late 1970s: “Local health workers, village leaders, and international teams mark each case on a district map. Vaccinators travel by jeep, boat, and bicycle, and neighbors are asked to report fever and rash quickly.” Which phrase best supports the claim that eradication depended on cooperation between global and local actors?

- A) “Travel by jeep”
- B) “Fever and rash”
- C) “Local health workers, village leaders, and international teams”
- D) “District map”

APWH-MCQ6-054

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 9 — Globalization

Period: c. 1900–present

Theme: ENV — Humans and the Environment

Skill: Making Connections / Historical Reasoning

Prompt:

Originalized public health report, World Health Organization field team, late 1970s: “Local health workers, village leaders, and international teams mark each case on a district map. Vaccinators travel by jeep, boat, and bicycle, and neighbors are asked to report fever and rash quickly.” The campaign described most directly reflects which broader feature of globalization?

- A) The elimination of all disease through private trade alone
- B) The use of transnational institutions and technology to address shared human health risks
- C) The decline of scientific knowledge in public policy
- D) The isolation of rural communities from global institutions

APWH-MCQ6-055

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 9 — Globalization

Period: c. 1900–present

Theme: CDI — Cultural Developments and Interactions

Skill: Argumentation / Claim-Evidence

Prompt:

Originalized public health report, World Health Organization field team, late 1970s: “Local health workers, village leaders, and international teams mark each case on a district map. Vaccinators travel by jeep, boat, and bicycle, and neighbors are asked to report fever and rash quickly.” Which statement best evaluates the report’s argument?

- A) It presents eradication as a purely technological process without social participation.

- B) It shows that global campaigns worked only when local knowledge and community reporting were incorporated.
- C) It argues that maps were unnecessary for disease control.
- D) It claims that international teams replaced all local authority.

PART B — ANSWER KEY + EXPLANATIONS

APWH-MCQ6-001 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: To portray the ruler as the center of political, religious, and commercial order — Explanation: The poem links tribute, priests, messengers, officials, harbors, and trade to the ruler’s authority.

APWH-MCQ6-002 — Correct: C — Correct Answer: “Priests bless the king’s cosmic order” — Explanation: This phrase directly connects religious authority with royal legitimacy.

APWH-MCQ6-003 — Correct: B — Correct Answer: The importance of Southeast Asian states in regional sea-lane commerce — Explanation: Harbors, ships, pepper, and cloth show Majapahit’s connection to maritime commerce.

APWH-MCQ6-004 — Correct: B — Correct Answer: A hierarchy linking ruler, regional lords, priests, officials, and merchants — Explanation: The passage describes social and political roles connected to the ruler and state.

APWH-MCQ6-005 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: Pueblo communities adapted architecture and agriculture to arid environments. — Explanation: Canyon-wall or seasonal-water settlements, storage rooms, and maize agriculture show adaptation to dry conditions.

APWH-MCQ6-006 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: Northern European trade networks linked Baltic, North Sea, and Atlantic regions. — Explanation: The map connects ports across the Baltic, North Sea, and Atlantic with multiple commodities.

APWH-MCQ6-007 — Correct: C — Correct Answer: Merchant associations, port warehouses, and improved sailing vessels — Explanation: Hanseatic and northern European trade depended on merchant organization, port facilities, and sailing technology.

APWH-MCQ6-008 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: Dried fish moving south from the North Atlantic — Explanation: Fish exports from the North Atlantic show how regional environments shaped specialized trade.

APWH-MCQ6-009 — Correct: B — Correct Answer: Merchants operating across multilingual Mediterranean communities — Explanation: The letter’s Arabic, Hebrew letters, Ifriqiya, and al-Andalus references reflect multilingual merchant networks.

APWH-MCQ6-010 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: Commercial exchange could encourage multilingual and diasporic cultural practices. — Explanation: The letter shows merchants using different languages and scripts across Mediterranean trade communities.

APWH-MCQ6-011 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: To coordinate market regulation, military protection, law, and tribute collection — Explanation: The order mentions market inspection, salt measures, cavalry protection, judges, tribute, Timbuktu, and Gao.

APWH-MCQ6-012 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: “Record the salt measures” — Explanation: Recording salt measures shows state regulation of commercial exchange.

APWH-MCQ6-013 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: Seasonal rainfall affecting river travel, roads, and agricultural cycles — Explanation: The phrase “before the rains” reflects the importance of seasonal environmental conditions.

APWH-MCQ6-014 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: The spread of Islamic legal and scholarly institutions in West African cities — Explanation: Judges and Timbuktu reflect Islamic law and scholarship in West African urban centers.

APWH-MCQ6-015 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: The Habsburg monarchy ruled a composite empire made up of multiple territories and elites. — Explanation: The banners, regional costumes, nobles, and emperor show a composite monarchy with multiple territories.

APWH-MCQ6-016 — Correct: C — Correct Answer: Clerics near symbols of Catholic victory — Explanation: The clerics and Catholic victory symbols connect religion to imperial legitimacy.

APWH-MCQ6-017 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: Composite empires could display unity while preserving visible regional distinctions. — Explanation: The image shows many territories and costumes unified around the emperor.

APWH-MCQ6-018 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: The fur trade depended on cooperation, exchange, and negotiation between French and Indigenous groups. — Explanation: The table lists Indigenous hunters and middlemen, French traders, missionaries, officials, goods, diplomacy, and regulation.

APWH-MCQ6-019 — Correct: C — Correct Answer: Increased pressure on beaver populations in traded regions — Explanation: Demand for beaver pelts increased hunting pressure on beaver populations.

APWH-MCQ6-020 — Correct: C — Correct Answer: “Conversion efforts” — Explanation: Missionary conversion efforts show cultural and religious interaction accompanying trade.

APWH-MCQ6-021 — Correct: B — Correct Answer: Early colonial power in the St. Lawrence region depended partly on alliances and Indigenous knowledge. — Explanation: Indigenous geographic knowledge, diplomacy, and alliances were central to French activity.

APWH-MCQ6-022 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: To regulate maritime movement and enforce Portuguese commercial authority — Explanation: The instruction requires licenses, inspections, cargo seizure, and reporting by fort commanders.

APWH-MCQ6-023 — Correct: B — Correct Answer: Armed ocean-going ships and fortified coastal posts — Explanation: The Portuguese cartaz system relied on armed ships and forts to police maritime commerce.

APWH-MCQ6-024 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: European attempts to redirect and tax existing Asian maritime trade — Explanation: The instruction shows Portuguese efforts to regulate and profit from established Indian Ocean trade.

APWH-MCQ6-025 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: To emancipate serfs while preserving state control, land payments, and rural order — Explanation: The edict grants legal freedom while preserving payments, commune responsibility, and order.

APWH-MCQ6-026 — Correct: C — Correct Answer: “Obligations must be fulfilled” — Explanation: This phrase directly shows continuing duties after emancipation.

APWH-MCQ6-027 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: Russian leaders sought reform after military weakness and social pressures exposed the limits of serfdom. — Explanation: Serf emancipation followed pressures for modernization and reform, especially after military weakness became clear.

APWH-MCQ6-028 — Correct: C — Correct Answer: It expanded legal freedom but preserved state supervision and economic burdens. — Explanation: The reform ended personal ownership but retained village responsibility, payments, and state order.

APWH-MCQ6-029 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: Egyptian readers and officials debating constitutional reform and foreign influence — Explanation: The editorial addresses Egyptian national strength, foreign favorites, bondholders, taxation, and a representative chamber.

APWH-MCQ6-030 — Correct: C — Correct Answer: “A chamber chosen by Egyptians must watch the ministers” — Explanation: This phrase directly supports representative oversight.

APWH-MCQ6-031 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: Foreign debt and taxation pressures on Egyptian society — Explanation: The editorial connects peasant taxes and foreign bondholders to political reform.

APWH-MCQ6-032 — Correct: B — Correct Answer: It uses print-based political argument to connect national dignity, economic grievance, and constitutional oversight. — Explanation: The editorial links foreign influence, taxation, consultation, knowledge, and a chosen chamber.

APWH-MCQ6-033 — Correct: B — Correct Answer: To defend Ethiopian sovereignty against imperial claims — Explanation: Menelik rejects protectorate status while allowing friendship and trade.

APWH-MCQ6-034 — Correct: C — Correct Answer: “No treaty shall make Ethiopia a child under another’s protection” — Explanation: This phrase directly rejects protectorate status.

APWH-MCQ6-035 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: Ethiopia combined diplomacy, arms purchases, and military organization during the age of imperialism. — Explanation: Ethiopia resisted colonization through diplomacy, military preparation, and strategic modernization.

APWH-MCQ6-036 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: Menelik argues that trade and diplomacy are compatible with political independence. — Explanation: The letter welcomes friendship and trade while firmly rejecting subordination.

APWH-MCQ6-037 — Correct: B — Correct Answer: Opposition to foreign economic concessions could unite merchants, religious leaders, and urban consumers. — Explanation: The cartoon shows merchants, clerics, and women jointly resisting a foreign contract.

APWH-MCQ6-038 — Correct: C — Correct Answer: Merchants, clerics, and women all pull at the pipe. — Explanation: The detail shows participation by several social groups.

APWH-MCQ6-039 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: The granting of economic concessions to foreign firms — Explanation: The cartoon's foreign company contract symbolizes economic concessions that provoked protest.

APWH-MCQ6-040 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: Anti-imperial resistance could be expressed through urban public culture and economic symbolism. — Explanation: The cartoon uses bazaar imagery, tobacco symbolism, and social groups to criticize foreign influence.

APWH-MCQ6-041 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: To document the experiences of persecution, segregation, and deportation under Nazi rule — Explanation: The testimony describes closed streets, required markings, confiscation, official lists, and deportation.

APWH-MCQ6-042 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: "Our street is now closed" — Explanation: Closing the street shows imposed segregation of a targeted community.

APWH-MCQ6-043 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: It is valuable because it shows how official language and bureaucratic rules masked escalating persecution. — Explanation: The testimony reveals how orders, markings, lists, and labor claims accompanied persecution and deportation.

APWH-MCQ6-044 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: The Spanish Civil War became a testing ground for international ideological and military involvement. — Explanation: The table shows fascist, communist, and international volunteer involvement using aircraft, weapons, advisers, and volunteers.

APWH-MCQ6-045 — Correct: C — Correct Answer: The ideological conflicts among fascism, communism, and liberal democracy before World War II — Explanation: Foreign intervention in Spain reflected broader interwar ideological conflict.

APWH-MCQ6-046 — Correct: B — Correct Answer: To reject economic and political neo-colonial control after independence — Explanation: Lumumba argues that independence must include control over resources, courts, and soldiers.

APWH-MCQ6-047 — Correct: B — Correct Answer: "Our copper" — Explanation: Copper directly represents resource sovereignty.

APWH-MCQ6-048 — Correct: B — Correct Answer: The speaker argues that sovereignty requires control over resources, law, and military power. — Explanation: The speech names copper, courts, and soldiers as institutions that must answer to Congolese people.

APWH-MCQ6-049 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: Cold War-era politics in Latin America could link social welfare, elections, and control of natural resources. — Explanation: Bread, copper, democracy, a ballot box, and national control of resources link welfare, elections, and resource politics.

APWH-MCQ6-050 — Correct: B — Correct Answer: The use of mass political imagery to mobilize support for competing development visions — Explanation: The poster uses workers, students, mothers, copper, democracy, and industrial imagery to mobilize voters around a development program.

APWH-MCQ6-051 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: Global vaccination campaigns helped eliminate naturally occurring smallpox. — Explanation: Reported cases fell from millions to zero certified naturally occurring cases by 1980.

APWH-MCQ6-052 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: To describe coordinated surveillance and vaccination methods used in disease eradication — Explanation: The report describes case mapping, vaccinators, local cooperation, and rapid reporting.

APWH-MCQ6-053 — Correct: C — Correct Answer: “Local health workers, village leaders, and international teams” — Explanation: This phrase directly shows cooperation between local and global actors.

APWH-MCQ6-054 — Correct: B — Correct Answer: The use of transnational institutions and technology to address shared human health risks — Explanation: WHO teams, maps, transport, vaccination, and local reporting reflect global health cooperation.

APWH-MCQ6-055 — Correct: B — Correct Answer: It shows that global campaigns worked only when local knowledge and community reporting were incorporated. — Explanation: The report emphasizes village leaders, local health workers, neighbors, maps, and international teams working together.

SECTION 2 — SERIES DO-NOT-REPEAT BANK UPDATE — DO NOT IMPORT

SERIES DO-NOT-REPEAT BANK UPDATE — APWH-MCQ6

· APWH-MCQ6-001–004: Unit 1; c. 1200–1450; Majapahit Java/Southeast Asia; original court poem; royal messengers, rice plains, harbors, tribute, priests, cosmic order, pepper and cloth weighing; reasoning paths include purpose, religion-legitimacy evidence, maritime commerce context, social hierarchy; source type: court poem; misconception targeted: treating island Southeast Asian states as isolated or purely commercial without religious-political legitimacy.

· APWH-MCQ6-005: Unit 1; c. 1200–1450; Ancestral Pueblo/North American Southwest; secondary-source archaeological description; stone and adobe architecture, canyon walls, seasonal water, maize-beans-squash storage, roads and signal points; reasoning path includes environmental adaptation and material culture; source type: settlement description; misconception targeted: assuming North American communities lacked agricultural adaptation or regional communication.

· APWH-MCQ6-006–008: Unit 2; c. 1200–1450; northern Europe/Baltic-North Sea-Atlantic; described trade map; Lübeck, Bergen, Novgorod, London, Bruges, furs, wax, wool cloth, dried fish; reasoning paths include map interpretation, merchant institutions and sailing technology, environmental specialization; map type: Hanseatic-style commodity route map; misconception targeted: treating medieval European exchange as only local or Mediterranean-centered.

· APWH-MCQ6-009–010: Unit 2; c. 1200–1450; western Mediterranean, Ifriqiya, al-Andalus; original Jewish merchant letter; indigo, ship transport, Arabic for customs, Hebrew letters for partners, diasporic kin networks; reasoning paths include audience and multilingual commercial culture; source type: merchant correspondence; misconception targeted: assuming religious minorities or multilingual practices were absent from exchange networks.

· APWH-MCQ6-011–014: Unit 3; c. 1450–1750; Songhai/West Africa; original administrative order; Timbuktu market inspector, salt measures, caravan disputes, Niger crossings, judges, tribute to Gao before rains; reasoning paths include administrative purpose, commerce regulation evidence, seasonal environmental context, Islamic legal institutions; source type: state order; misconception targeted: treating Sahelian states as non-bureaucratic or disconnected from law and commerce.

· APWH-MCQ6-015–017: Unit 3; c. 1450–1750; Habsburg central Europe; described imperial procession painting; Bohemia, Hungary, Austria, Croatia banners, regional costumes, emperor, clerics, Catholic victory symbols; reasoning paths include visual analysis of composite monarchy, religious legitimacy evidence, argument about unity and regional distinction; visual type: imperial procession; misconception targeted: assuming early modern empires always erased regional identities.

· APWH-MCQ6-018–021: Unit 4; c. 1450–1750; St. Lawrence/North America/French fur trade; trade-participant table; Indigenous hunters and middlemen, beaver pelts, geographic knowledge, diplomacy, French metal goods/textiles/firearms/credit, missionaries and officials; reasoning paths include table interpretation, environmental consequence, cultural conversion evidence, alliance-based colonial power; table type: participant-role exchange table; misconception targeted: treating French colonial power as independent of Indigenous knowledge and alliances.

· APWH-MCQ6-022–024: Unit 4; c. 1450–1750; Portuguese western Indian Ocean; original naval instruction; written licenses, captain's seal, cargo seizure, fort commanders, local rulers, pilots to rival harbors; reasoning paths include purpose, armed ships and fort technology, European attempts to tax existing Asian maritime trade; source type: naval-commercial regulation; misconception targeted: treating Portuguese maritime empire as free trade or total replacement of existing Asian commerce.

· APWH-MCQ6-025–028: Unit 5; c. 1750–1900; Russia; original 1861 emancipation edict; serf emancipation, landlord property, village commune, payments, law, order; reasoning paths include purpose, evidence of continuing obligations, modernization context, reform evaluation; source type: imperial reform edict; misconception targeted: assuming emancipation created full equality or that reform eliminated peasant burdens.

· APWH-MCQ6-029–032: Unit 5; c. 1750–1900; Egypt/Cairo constitutional reform context; original newspaper editorial; foreign favorites, peasants paying taxes, foreign bondholders, chamber chosen by Egyptians, consultation; reasoning paths include audience, representative oversight evidence, economic grievance, print-based argument; source type: nationalist constitutional newspaper editorial; misconception targeted: separating constitutional reform from foreign debt and public political debate.

· APWH-MCQ6-033–036: Unit 6; c. 1750–1900; Ethiopia/Adwa-era imperialism; original diplomatic letter attributed to Menelik II; friendship and trade, treaty interpretation, protectorate rejection, envoys, soldiers, mountains; reasoning paths include purpose, sovereignty evidence, technology/diplomacy/military context, argument evaluation; source type: diplomatic letter; misconception targeted: assuming African resistance required isolation from global diplomacy or trade.

· APWH-MCQ6-037–040: Unit 6; c. 1750–1900; Iran/Tobacco Protest; described political cartoon; foreign company contract as tobacco pipe, bazaar, merchants, clerics, women, court official, “Smoke for them, hunger for us”; reasoning paths include visual interpretation, cross-class resistance evidence, economic concessions, urban public culture argument; visual type: anti-concession cartoon; misconception targeted: assuming foreign concessions were accepted passively or resistance came from only one social group.

- APWH-MCQ6-041–043: Unit 7; c. 1900–present; occupied Poland/Holocaust; original Jewish resident testimony; closed street, coat markings, surrendered radios, official lists, trains, families not writing back; reasoning paths include testimony purpose, social segregation evidence, evaluation of bureaucratic language and persecution; source type: survivor/resident testimony; misconception targeted: treating Nazi persecution as ordinary relocation or ignoring bureaucratic mechanisms.

- APWH-MCQ6-044–045: Unit 7; c. 1900–present; Spanish Civil War/interwar Europe; international involvement table; German and Italian aircraft/pilots/equipment, Soviet weapons/advisers, International Brigades; reasoning paths include data/table interpretation and ideological context before World War II; table type: foreign support table; misconception targeted: viewing the Spanish Civil War as purely domestic or unrelated to broader ideological conflict.

- APWH-MCQ6-046–048: Unit 8; c. 1900–present; Congo/Central Africa; original Lumumba speech; independence beyond flag, copper, courts, soldiers, friendship without masters; reasoning paths include purpose, resource-sovereignty evidence, sovereignty argument; source type: postcolonial nationalist speech; misconception targeted: treating decolonization as only symbolic political independence without economic or institutional control.

- APWH-MCQ6-049–050: Unit 8; c. 1900–present; Chile/Latin America Cold War politics; described campaign poster; miner, student, mother, “Bread, Copper, and Democracy,” factory chimney, ballot box, constitutional national control of resources; reasoning paths include visual interpretation and mass political imagery for development visions; visual type: electoral-resource nationalism poster; misconception targeted: separating Cold War politics from resource control, social welfare, and electoral mobilization.

- APWH-MCQ6-051–055: Unit 9; c. 1900–present; global public health/smallpox eradication; smallpox case data table plus original WHO field report; vaccination, disease surveillance, local health workers, village leaders, international teams, district maps, jeep/boat/bicycle travel, community reporting; reasoning paths include quantitative interpretation, institutional purpose, local-global cooperation evidence, transnational technology and health-risk management, argument evaluation; source/table type: public health data and field report; misconception targeted: treating global health success as purely technological or disconnected from local participation.