

SECTION 1 — IMPORT-READY SOURCE FILE

AP World History: Modern MCQ Practice Exam 7

PART A — QUESTIONS

APWH-MCQ7-001

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 1 — The Global Tapestry

Period: c. 1200–1450

Theme: GOV — Governance

Skill: Sourcing and Situation

Prompt:

Originalized court poem, Vijayanagara, South India, c. 1400: “The king guards the sacred city where temple towers rise above the market streets. Irrigation channels feed the rice fields, warriors protect the passes, and merchants pay duties on horses, gems, and cloth.” What was the most likely purpose of the poem?

- A) To portray the king as protector of religion, agriculture, commerce, and military security
- B) To argue that South Indian rulers rejected temple patronage
- C) To show that Vijayanagara depended entirely on Atlantic trade
- D) To describe the disappearance of urban markets in South Asia

APWH-MCQ7-002

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 1 — The Global Tapestry

Period: c. 1200–1450

Theme: CDI — Cultural Developments and Interactions

Skill: Claims and Evidence in Sources

Prompt:

Originalized court poem, Vijayanagara, South India, c. 1400: “The king guards the sacred city where temple towers rise above the market streets. Irrigation channels feed the rice fields, warriors protect the passes, and merchants pay duties on horses, gems, and cloth.” Which phrase best supports the claim that religious patronage helped legitimize political authority?

- A) “Merchants pay duties”
- B) “Warriors protect the passes”
- C) “Temple towers rise above the market streets”
- D) “Horses, gems, and cloth”

APWH-MCQ7-003

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 1 — The Global Tapestry

Period: c. 1200–1450

Theme: ENV — Humans and the Environment

Skill: Contextualization

Prompt:

Originalized court poem, Vijayanagara, South India, c. 1400: “The king guards the sacred city where temple towers rise above the market streets. Irrigation channels feed the rice fields, warriors protect the passes, and merchants pay duties on horses, gems, and cloth.” Which broader environmental context best explains the reference to irrigation channels?

- A) South Indian states often invested in water management to support agriculture in monsoon-influenced environments.
- B) South Asia lacked agricultural production before 1450.
- C) Irrigation was used only in industrial factory towns.
- D) Indian Ocean trade made food production unnecessary in South India.

APWH-MCQ7-004

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 1 — The Global Tapestry

Period: c. 1200–1450

Theme: ECN — Economic Systems

Skill: Making Connections / Historical Reasoning

Prompt:

Originalized court poem, Vijayanagara, South India, c. 1400: “The king guards the sacred city where temple towers rise above the market streets. Irrigation channels feed the rice fields, warriors protect the passes, and merchants pay duties on horses, gems, and cloth.” The poem most directly suggests which relationship between state power and commerce?

- A) Rulers avoided taxing merchants because trade was considered dishonorable.
- B) Commercial activity could help support state revenue and urban life.
- C) Trade duties replaced all religious institutions in South Asia.
- D) Merchants controlled the army independently of the king.

APWH-MCQ7-005

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 1 — The Global Tapestry

Period: c. 1200–1450

Theme: TEC — Technology and Innovation

Skill: Visual / Material Culture Analysis

Prompt:

Secondary-source description of Polynesian navigation before 1450: “Voyagers used double-hulled canoes, star paths, swell patterns, bird flight, and memorized island chains to settle and maintain contact among widely separated Pacific islands.” Which interpretation is best supported by the description?

- A) Oceania was settled only after European ships arrived.
- B) Pacific voyagers used specialized maritime knowledge and technology to cross large ocean distances.
- C) Polynesian societies rejected all seafaring after 1200.
- D) Pacific migration depended on steam-powered ships.

APWH-MCQ7-006

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 2 — Networks of Exchange

Period: c. 1200–1450

Theme: TEC — Technology and Innovation

Skill: Quantitative, Map, or Data Interpretation

Prompt:

Table: Selected technologies and knowledge moving across Afro-Eurasia, c. 1200–1450

Item | Earlier major use | Later spread or adaptation

Paper-making | China and Islamic lands | Wider use in Europe and parts of Africa

Mathematical notation | South Asia and Islamic lands | Adapted in Mediterranean scholarship

Gunpowder knowledge | East Asia | Spread westward through Eurasian contacts

Which conclusion is best supported by the table?

- A) Technologies and knowledge moved across Afro-Eurasian networks and were adapted in new regions.
- B) Innovation occurred only in western Europe before 1450.
- C) Exchange networks prevented the spread of scientific knowledge.
- D) All technologies moved from Europe to Asia.

APWH-MCQ7-007

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 2 — Networks of Exchange

Period: c. 1200–1450

Theme: CDI — Cultural Developments and Interactions

Skill: Claims and Evidence in Sources

Prompt:

Table: Selected technologies and knowledge moving across Afro-Eurasia, c. 1200–1450

Item | Earlier major use | Later spread or adaptation

Paper-making | China and Islamic lands | Wider use in Europe and parts of Africa

Mathematical notation | South Asia and Islamic lands | Adapted in Mediterranean scholarship

Gunpowder knowledge | East Asia | Spread westward through Eurasian contacts

Which evidence best supports the claim that Islamic lands served as intermediaries in knowledge transmission?

- A) “Gunpowder knowledge | East Asia”
- B) “Mathematical notation | South Asia and Islamic lands”
- C) “Earlier major use”
- D) “Technologies and knowledge”

APWH-MCQ7-008

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 2 — Networks of Exchange

Period: c. 1200–1450

Theme: ECN — Economic Systems

Skill: Contextualization

Prompt:

Table: Selected technologies and knowledge moving across Afro-Eurasia, c. 1200–1450

Item | Earlier major use | Later spread or adaptation

Paper-making | China and Islamic lands | Wider use in Europe and parts of Africa

Mathematical notation | South Asia and Islamic lands | Adapted in Mediterranean scholarship

Gunpowder knowledge | East Asia | Spread westward through Eurasian contacts

Which broader context best explains the pattern shown in the table?

- A) The decline of all long-distance trade after 1200
- B) The growth of interconnected trade routes, scholarly centers, and imperial networks across Afro-Eurasia
- C) The isolation of the Mediterranean from Asia
- D) The replacement of manuscript culture by radio communication

APWH-MCQ7-009

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 2 — Networks of Exchange

Period: c. 1200–1450

Theme: ENV — Humans and the Environment

Skill: Quantitative, Map, or Data Interpretation

Prompt:

Described map: “A map of the Strait of Malacca c. 1400 shows narrow sea lanes between Sumatra and the Malay Peninsula. Arrows mark ships carrying spices, ceramics, textiles, and forest products between the South China Sea and the Indian Ocean. Port symbols cluster at river mouths.” Which conclusion is best supported by the map?

- A) Geographic chokepoints could make Southeast Asian ports important centers of exchange.
- B) Southeast Asian ports were disconnected from Indian Ocean trade.
- C) Forest products moved only by land caravan routes.
- D) The South China Sea had no connection to the Indian Ocean.

APWH-MCQ7-010

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 2 — Networks of Exchange

Period: c. 1200–1450

Theme: GOV — Governance

Skill: Making Connections / Historical Reasoning

Prompt:

Described map: “A map of the Strait of Malacca c. 1400 shows narrow sea lanes between Sumatra and the Malay Peninsula. Arrows mark ships carrying spices, ceramics, textiles, and forest products between the South China Sea and the Indian Ocean. Port symbols cluster at river mouths.” A ruler seeking to control the routes shown would most likely try to do which of the following?

- A) Abandon port cities and move all subjects inland
- B) Tax shipping, protect harbors, and negotiate with merchant communities
- C) Ban all foreign merchants from Southeast Asia
- D) Replace maritime trade with Atlantic plantation labor

APWH-MCQ7-011

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 3 — Land-Based Empires

Period: c. 1450–1750

Theme: GOV — Governance

Skill: Sourcing and Situation

Prompt:

Originalized Saadi Moroccan decree, late sixteenth century: “The sharifian ruler commands that musketeers be paid from the treasury and that caravan duties be counted at the desert towns. Judges shall proclaim the ruler’s descent from the Prophet, and envoys shall report on gold routes beyond the Sahara.” What was the most likely purpose of this decree?

- A) To coordinate military reform, religious legitimacy, and control over trans-Saharan revenue
- B) To abolish all Islamic legal institutions in Morocco
- C) To make Morocco dependent on Portuguese colonial officials
- D) To end all contact between Morocco and the Sahara

APWH-MCQ7-012

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 3 — Land-Based Empires

Period: c. 1450–1750

Theme: CDI — Cultural Developments and Interactions

Skill: Claims and Evidence in Sources

Prompt:

Originalized Saadi Moroccan decree, late sixteenth century: “The sharifian ruler commands that musketeers be paid from the treasury and that caravan duties be counted at the desert towns. Judges shall proclaim the ruler’s descent from the Prophet, and envoys shall report on gold routes beyond the Sahara.” Which phrase best supports the claim that religious lineage helped legitimize rule?

- A) “Musketeers be paid”
- B) “Caravan duties”
- C) “Gold routes”
- D) “Descent from the Prophet”

APWH-MCQ7-013

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 3 — Land-Based Empires

Period: c. 1450–1750

Theme: TEC — Technology and Innovation

Skill: Developments and Processes

Prompt:

Originalized Saadi Moroccan decree, late sixteenth century: “The sharifian ruler commands that musketeers be paid from the treasury and that caravan duties be counted at the desert towns. Judges shall proclaim the ruler’s descent from the Prophet, and envoys shall report on gold routes beyond the Sahara.” The reference to musketeers most directly reflects which broader early modern development?

- A) The use of gunpowder weapons by states seeking to expand or defend authority
- B) The decline of firearms in land-based empires after 1450
- C) The replacement of armies by elected parliaments
- D) The disappearance of cavalry and infantry from warfare

APWH-MCQ7-014

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 3 — Land-Based Empires

Period: c. 1450–1750

Theme: ECN — Economic Systems

Skill: Argumentation / Claim-Evidence

Prompt:

Originalized Saadi Moroccan decree, late sixteenth century: “The sharifian ruler commands that musketeers be paid from the treasury and that caravan duties be counted at the desert towns. Judges shall proclaim the ruler’s descent from the Prophet, and envoys shall report on gold routes beyond the Sahara.” Which argument is best supported by the decree?

- A) Moroccan rulers avoided using commerce to support state power.
- B) Early modern state-building could combine military technology, sacred legitimacy, and control of trade revenue.

- C) Desert commerce became irrelevant after gunpowder spread.
- D) Religious legitimacy prevented rulers from maintaining armies.

APWH-MCQ7-015

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 3 — Land-Based Empires

Period: c. 1450–1750

Theme: GOV — Governance

Skill: Visual / Material Culture Analysis

Prompt:

Described royal law tablet, Ayutthaya, Siam, seventeenth century: “A carved panel shows the king seated above ranked officials, monks, and provincial chiefs. An inscription orders labor service for canal repair, military duty when called, and tribute from rice-growing districts.” Which interpretation is best supported by the object?

- A) Ayutthaya’s state authority rested only on overseas merchants.
- B) The ruler claimed authority over religious, administrative, military, and labor hierarchies.
- C) Siamese rulers rejected Buddhist symbols in political display.
- D) Provincial chiefs governed independently of the king.

APWH-MCQ7-016

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 3 — Land-Based Empires

Period: c. 1450–1750

Theme: SIO — Social Interactions and Organization

Skill: Claims and Evidence in Sources

Prompt:

Described royal law tablet, Ayutthaya, Siam, seventeenth century: “A carved panel shows the king seated above ranked officials, monks, and provincial chiefs. An inscription orders labor service for canal repair, military duty when called, and tribute from rice-growing districts.” Which phrase best supports the claim that the state organized social obligations?

- A) “King seated above”
- B) “Labor service for canal repair”
- C) “Carved panel”
- D) “Rice-growing districts”

APWH-MCQ7-017

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 3 — Land-Based Empires

Period: c. 1450–1750

Theme: ENV — Humans and the Environment

Skill: Contextualization

Prompt:

Described royal law tablet, Ayutthaya, Siam, seventeenth century: “A carved panel shows the king seated above ranked officials, monks, and provincial chiefs. An inscription orders labor service for canal repair, military duty when called, and tribute from rice-growing districts.” Which broader context best explains the reference to canal repair and rice districts?

- A) Southeast Asian states often linked political power to control of wet-rice agriculture and water systems.

- B) Ayutthaya depended on Arctic hunting routes.
- C) Rice cultivation disappeared from mainland Southeast Asia after 1450.
- D) Canal repair was unrelated to taxation or state authority.

APWH-MCQ7-018

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 4 — Transoceanic Interconnections

Period: c. 1450–1750

Theme: ENV — Humans and the Environment

Skill: Quantitative, Map, or Data Interpretation

Prompt:

Described map: “A map of the Cape of Good Hope c. 1650–1720 shows a fortified company settlement, gardens supplying passing ships, cattle-trade routes with Khoikhoi communities, and sea lanes connecting the Atlantic and Indian Oceans.” Which conclusion is best supported by the map?

- A) The Cape became a strategic provisioning point linking Atlantic and Indian Ocean routes.
- B) The Cape was isolated from maritime trade after 1650.
- C) Khoikhoi communities had no contact with company settlements.
- D) European ships avoided the southern African coast.

APWH-MCQ7-019

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 4 — Transoceanic Interconnections

Period: c. 1450–1750

Theme: ECN — Economic Systems

Skill: Claims and Evidence in Sources

Prompt:

Described map: “A map of the Cape of Good Hope c. 1650–1720 shows a fortified company settlement, gardens supplying passing ships, cattle-trade routes with Khoikhoi communities, and sea lanes connecting the Atlantic and Indian Oceans.” Which feature best supports the claim that the settlement served maritime commerce?

- A) “Gardens supplying passing ships”
- B) “Khoikhoi communities”
- C) “Southern African coast”
- D) “Fortified company settlement”

APWH-MCQ7-020

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 4 — Transoceanic Interconnections

Period: c. 1450–1750

Theme: GOV — Governance

Skill: Contextualization

Prompt:

Described map: “A map of the Cape of Good Hope c. 1650–1720 shows a fortified company settlement, gardens supplying passing ships, cattle-trade routes with Khoikhoi communities, and sea lanes connecting the Atlantic and Indian Oceans.” Which broader process best explains the company settlement shown?

- A) Chartered European companies established strategic posts to support long-distance oceanic trade.

- B) African states ended all trade with Europeans after 1500.
- C) The Cape served as the capital of a land-based Asian empire.
- D) European merchants abandoned fortified posts after 1450.

APWH-MCQ7-021

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 4 — Transoceanic Interconnections

Period: c. 1450–1750

Theme: SIO — Social Interactions and Organization

Skill: Argumentation / Claim-Evidence

Prompt:

Described map: “A map of the Cape of Good Hope c. 1650–1720 shows a fortified company settlement, gardens supplying passing ships, cattle-trade routes with Khoikhoi communities, and sea lanes connecting the Atlantic and Indian Oceans.” Which argument is best supported by the map?

- A) Transoceanic commerce reshaped local relationships at strategic coastal nodes.
- B) The Cape settlement existed only for missionary activity.
- C) Oceanic trade had no effect on African coastal societies.
- D) The Cape route connected only European ports to one another.

APWH-MCQ7-022

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 4 — Transoceanic Interconnections

Period: c. 1450–1750

Theme: SIO — Social Interactions and Organization

Skill: Visual / Material Culture Analysis

Prompt:

Described casta painting, New Spain, eighteenth century: “A Spanish man, an Indigenous woman, and their child stand in a domestic interior. Labels identify ancestry, clothing marks status differences, and imported porcelain sits beside local woven goods.” Which interpretation is best supported by the painting?

- A) Colonial society in New Spain represented ancestry and status through visual categories and material culture.
- B) Colonial Spanish America had no concern with social hierarchy.
- C) The painting shows a society untouched by transoceanic exchange.
- D) Indigenous people controlled all legal categories in New Spain.

APWH-MCQ7-023

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 4 — Transoceanic Interconnections

Period: c. 1450–1750

Theme: CDI — Cultural Developments and Interactions

Skill: Claims and Evidence in Sources

Prompt:

Described casta painting, New Spain, eighteenth century: “A Spanish man, an Indigenous woman, and their child stand in a domestic interior. Labels identify ancestry, clothing marks status differences, and imported porcelain sits beside local woven goods.” Which detail best supports the claim that colonial culture blended local and global goods?

- A) The domestic interior

- B) The ancestry labels
- C) Imported porcelain beside local woven goods
- D) The Spanish man

APWH-MCQ7-024

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 4 — Transoceanic Interconnections

Period: c. 1450–1750

Theme: GOV — Governance

Skill: Sourcing and Situation

Prompt:

Described casta painting, New Spain, eighteenth century: “A Spanish man, an Indigenous woman, and their child stand in a domestic interior. Labels identify ancestry, clothing marks status differences, and imported porcelain sits beside local woven goods.” Which limitation should a historian recognize when using this painting?

- A) It can reveal elite colonial ideas about classification, but it may not accurately represent lived experiences of all mixed-ancestry people.
- B) It proves that colonial hierarchy did not exist.
- C) It is useless because visual sources cannot show social values.
- D) It describes only industrial labor conditions after 1900.

APWH-MCQ7-025

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 5 — Revolutions

Period: c. 1750–1900

Theme: GOV — Governance

Skill: Sourcing and Situation

Prompt:

Originalized Siamese royal reform decree, c. 1895: “Officials shall be salaried by the treasury, not by hidden fees. Schools shall train clerks in numbers, maps, and foreign languages. Corvée obligations will be reduced so that the kingdom may be strong without disorder.” What was the most likely purpose of the decree?

- A) To strengthen the state through administrative, educational, and labor reforms
- B) To invite direct colonial rule over Siam
- C) To abolish all schools and written administration
- D) To restore hereditary rule by foreign merchants

APWH-MCQ7-026

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 5 — Revolutions

Period: c. 1750–1900

Theme: TEC — Technology and Innovation

Skill: Claims and Evidence in Sources

Prompt:

Originalized Siamese royal reform decree, c. 1895: “Officials shall be salaried by the treasury, not by hidden fees. Schools shall train clerks in numbers, maps, and foreign languages. Corvée obligations will be reduced so that the kingdom may be strong without disorder.” Which phrase best supports the claim that the decree promoted technical and bureaucratic education?

- A) “Hidden fees”
- B) “Train clerks in numbers, maps, and foreign languages”
- C) “Corvée obligations”
- D) “Without disorder”

APWH-MCQ7-027

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 5 — Revolutions

Period: c. 1750–1900

Theme: SIO — Social Interactions and Organization

Skill: Contextualization

Prompt:

Originalized Siamese royal reform decree, c. 1895: “Officials shall be salaried by the treasury, not by hidden fees. Schools shall train clerks in numbers, maps, and foreign languages. Corvée obligations will be reduced so that the kingdom may be strong without disorder.” Which broader context best explains the reforms described?

- A) Siamese rulers pursued modernization to preserve independence amid European imperial pressure in Southeast Asia.
- B) Siam had already become an overseas colony of Spain.
- C) Southeast Asian rulers rejected all administrative reform after 1750.
- D) Corvée labor expanded because industrial factories disappeared.

APWH-MCQ7-028

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 5 — Revolutions

Period: c. 1750–1900

Theme: ECN — Economic Systems

Skill: Argumentation / Claim-Evidence

Prompt:

Originalized Siamese royal reform decree, c. 1895: “Officials shall be salaried by the treasury, not by hidden fees. Schools shall train clerks in numbers, maps, and foreign languages. Corvée obligations will be reduced so that the kingdom may be strong without disorder.” Which statement best evaluates the decree’s argument?

- A) It claims that reform must destroy the monarchy immediately.
- B) It argues that state centralization and selective modernization can strengthen sovereignty.
- C) It rejects bureaucratic salaries as unnecessary.
- D) It defines modernization as the abandonment of all local authority to foreign powers.

APWH-MCQ7-029

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 5 — Revolutions

Period: c. 1750–1900

Theme: SIO — Social Interactions and Organization

Skill: Sourcing and Situation

Prompt:

Originalized women’s rights petition, France, 1791: “The nation declares rights in the name of reason, yet wives remain minors before the law and daughters are educated for obedience. If citizenship rests on nature and reason, women must not be citizens only when taxes are collected.”

Which audience was the petition most likely intended to influence?

- A) Revolutionary legislators and readers debating the meaning of citizenship
- B) Qing officials regulating foreign trade at Guangzhou
- C) Mongol commanders organizing cavalry raids
- D) Colonial planters defending plantation slavery

APWH-MCQ7-030

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 5 — Revolutions

Period: c. 1750–1900

Theme: GOV — Governance

Skill: Claims and Evidence in Sources

Prompt:

Originalized women’s rights petition, France, 1791: “The nation declares rights in the name of reason, yet wives remain minors before the law and daughters are educated for obedience. If citizenship rests on nature and reason, women must not be citizens only when taxes are collected.” Which phrase best supports the claim that the petition criticized unequal legal status?

- A) “Rights in the name of reason”
- B) “Wives remain minors before the law”
- C) “Taxes are collected”
- D) “Daughters are educated”

APWH-MCQ7-031

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 5 — Revolutions

Period: c. 1750–1900

Theme: CDI — Cultural Developments and Interactions

Skill: Making Connections / Historical Reasoning

Prompt:

Originalized women’s rights petition, France, 1791: “The nation declares rights in the name of reason, yet wives remain minors before the law and daughters are educated for obedience. If citizenship rests on nature and reason, women must not be citizens only when taxes are collected.” The petition most directly reflects which broader ideological development?

- A) The use of Enlightenment language to challenge gender hierarchy
- B) The rejection of all natural-rights arguments by reformers
- C) The defense of patriarchal law as revolutionary equality
- D) The decline of public political debate during the French Revolution

APWH-MCQ7-032

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 5 — Revolutions

Period: c. 1750–1900

Theme: GOV — Governance

Skill: Argumentation / Claim-Evidence

Prompt:

Originalized women’s rights petition, France, 1791: “The nation declares rights in the name of reason, yet wives remain minors before the law and daughters are educated for obedience. If citizenship rests on nature and reason, women must not be citizens only when taxes are collected.”

Which statement best evaluates the petition's argument?

- A) It argues that taxation justifies excluding women from citizenship.
- B) It accepts that revolutionary rights should apply only to men.
- C) It exposes a contradiction between universal rights language and women's legal exclusion.
- D) It rejects education as a path to political equality.

APWH-MCQ7-033

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 6 — Consequences of Industrialization

Period: c. 1750–1900

Theme: ECN — Economic Systems

Skill: Quantitative, Map, or Data Interpretation

Prompt:

Table: Dutch Cultivation System in Java, simplified pattern

Policy | Reported result

Villages required to plant export crops | Coffee and sugar output rose

Colonial officials rewarded for quotas | Pressure on village labor increased

Food land diverted in some areas | Local shortages and peasant grievances grew

Which conclusion is best supported by the table?

- A) Colonial policies could reorganize agriculture to serve export production.
- B) Java avoided participation in global commodity markets.
- C) Export crops reduced pressure on village labor.
- D) Colonial officials opposed all quota systems.

APWH-MCQ7-034

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 6 — Consequences of Industrialization

Period: c. 1750–1900

Theme: SIO — Social Interactions and Organization

Skill: Claims and Evidence in Sources

Prompt:

Table: Dutch Cultivation System in Java, simplified pattern

Policy | Reported result

Villages required to plant export crops | Coffee and sugar output rose

Colonial officials rewarded for quotas | Pressure on village labor increased

Food land diverted in some areas | Local shortages and peasant grievances grew

Which evidence best supports the claim that ordinary villagers bore costs of the system?

- A) "Coffee and sugar output rose"
- B) "Colonial officials rewarded"
- C) "Pressure on village labor increased"
- D) "Export crops"

APWH-MCQ7-035

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 6 — Consequences of Industrialization

Period: c. 1750–1900

Theme: ENV — Humans and the Environment

Skill: Contextualization

Prompt:

Table: Dutch Cultivation System in Java, simplified pattern

Policy | Reported result

Villages required to plant export crops | Coffee and sugar output rose

Colonial officials rewarded for quotas | Pressure on village labor increased

Food land diverted in some areas | Local shortages and peasant grievances grew

Which broader environmental and economic process best explains the pattern shown?

- A) The conversion of land and labor toward cash crops for industrial-era global markets
- B) The disappearance of tropical export crops after 1750
- C) The replacement of colonial agriculture by pastoral nomadism
- D) The end of food shortages under imperial rule

APWH-MCQ7-036

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 6 — Consequences of Industrialization

Period: c. 1750–1900

Theme: GOV — Governance

Skill: Argumentation / Claim-Evidence

Prompt:

Table: Dutch Cultivation System in Java, simplified pattern

Policy | Reported result

Villages required to plant export crops | Coffee and sugar output rose

Colonial officials rewarded for quotas | Pressure on village labor increased

Food land diverted in some areas | Local shortages and peasant grievances grew

Which argument is best supported by the table?

- A) Colonial extraction could increase export revenue while intensifying local social and environmental stress.
- B) Colonial governments avoided intervention in village agriculture.
- C) Peasant grievances disappeared when export production increased.
- D) Export agriculture eliminated the need for colonial officials.

APWH-MCQ7-037

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 6 — Consequences of Industrialization

Period: c. 1750–1900

Theme: CDI — Cultural Developments and Interactions

Skill: Visual / Material Culture Analysis

Prompt:

Described imperial exhibition poster, London, c. 1890: “A map places Britain at the center with colored routes leading to India, Africa, and the Pacific. Figures labeled ‘commerce,’ ‘science,’ and ‘civilization’ stand above smaller colonized figures carrying raw materials. The caption reads, ‘Progress follows the flag.’” Which interpretation is best supported by the poster?

- A) Imperial culture often justified empire by linking conquest to commerce, science, and claims of civilization.
- B) The poster criticizes imperialism from an anti-colonial perspective.
- C) British imperialism rejected visual propaganda.
- D) The poster argues that colonies controlled Britain’s economy.

APWH-MCQ7-038

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 6 — Consequences of Industrialization

Period: c. 1750–1900

Theme: ECN — Economic Systems

Skill: Claims and Evidence in Sources

Prompt:

Described imperial exhibition poster, London, c. 1890: “A map places Britain at the center with colored routes leading to India, Africa, and the Pacific. Figures labeled ‘commerce,’ ‘science,’ and ‘civilization’ stand above smaller colonized figures carrying raw materials. The caption reads, ‘Progress follows the flag.’” Which detail most directly supports the claim that empire was linked to resource extraction?

- A) “Colored routes”
- B) “London, c. 1890”
- C) “Colonized figures carrying raw materials”
- D) “Science”

APWH-MCQ7-039

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 6 — Consequences of Industrialization

Period: c. 1750–1900

Theme: GOV — Governance

Skill: Sourcing and Situation

Prompt:

Described imperial exhibition poster, London, c. 1890: “A map places Britain at the center with colored routes leading to India, Africa, and the Pacific. Figures labeled ‘commerce,’ ‘science,’ and ‘civilization’ stand above smaller colonized figures carrying raw materials. The caption reads, ‘Progress follows the flag.’” Which audience was the poster most likely designed to influence?

- A) British visitors and consumers at an imperial exhibition
- B) Mongol caravan merchants in Central Asia
- C) Enslaved workers negotiating maroon autonomy
- D) Postcolonial delegates at the United Nations

APWH-MCQ7-040

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 6 — Consequences of Industrialization

Period: c. 1750–1900

Theme: CDI — Cultural Developments and Interactions

Skill: Argumentation / Claim-Evidence

Prompt:

Described imperial exhibition poster, London, c. 1890: “A map places Britain at the center with colored routes leading to India, Africa, and the Pacific. Figures labeled ‘commerce,’ ‘science,’ and ‘civilization’ stand above smaller colonized figures carrying raw materials. The caption reads, ‘Progress follows the flag.’” Which statement best evaluates the poster’s argument?

- A) It presents imperial hierarchy as benevolent progress while minimizing coercion and colonial inequality.
- B) It argues that colonized peoples should control British policy.

- C) It rejects commerce as a motive for empire.
- D) It presents imperialism as a purely local British issue unrelated to global power.

APWH-MCQ7-041

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 7 — Global Conflict

Period: c. 1900–present

Theme: ECN — Economic Systems

Skill: Quantitative, Map, or Data Interpretation

Prompt:

Table: Naval blockade and food imports during World War I, simplified pattern

Region | Prewar import dependence | Wartime disruption

Germany | High dependence on grain and fertilizer imports | Severe shortages by 1917

Austria-Hungary | Dependent on internal rail and regional food flows | Urban rationing and black markets

Ottoman eastern provinces | Vulnerable transport and harvest systems | Local famine conditions

Which conclusion is best supported by the table?

- A) World War I disrupted food systems and civilian economies as well as armies.
- B) World War I had no effect on civilian life.
- C) Food shortages were limited to one empire.
- D) Blockades increased agricultural imports for all belligerents.

APWH-MCQ7-042

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 7 — Global Conflict

Period: c. 1900–present

Theme: ENV — Humans and the Environment

Skill: Making Connections / Historical Reasoning

Prompt:

Table: Naval blockade and food imports during World War I, simplified pattern

Region | Prewar import dependence | Wartime disruption

Germany | High dependence on grain and fertilizer imports | Severe shortages by 1917

Austria-Hungary | Dependent on internal rail and regional food flows | Urban rationing and black markets

Ottoman eastern provinces | Vulnerable transport and harvest systems | Local famine conditions

Which broader feature of total war is most directly reflected in the table?

- A) Military conflict could weaponize access to food, transport, and resources.
- B) Civilian economies became independent of military strategy.
- C) States avoided controlling food distribution during war.
- D) Environmental conditions became irrelevant to wartime outcomes.

APWH-MCQ7-043

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 7 — Global Conflict

Period: c. 1900–present

Theme: SIO — Social Interactions and Organization

Skill: Sourcing and Situation

Prompt:

Originalized United Nations field report, Rwanda, 1994: “Radio messages named neighbors as enemies, roadblocks checked identity cards, and families fled to churches and schools seeking safety. Peacekeepers report that killing spread through local officials, militias, and fear.” What was the most likely purpose of the report?

- A) To document mechanisms of mass violence and warn international officials
- B) To prove that mass violence occurred only between armies
- C) To praise radio broadcasts as neutral entertainment
- D) To argue that local officials had no role in violence

APWH-MCQ7-044

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 7 — Global Conflict

Period: c. 1900–present

Theme: TEC — Technology and Innovation

Skill: Claims and Evidence in Sources

Prompt:

Originalized United Nations field report, Rwanda, 1994: “Radio messages named neighbors as enemies, roadblocks checked identity cards, and families fled to churches and schools seeking safety. Peacekeepers report that killing spread through local officials, militias, and fear.” Which phrase best supports the claim that media technology helped intensify violence?

- A) “Roadblocks checked identity cards”
- B) “Families fled”
- C) “Radio messages named neighbors as enemies”
- D) “Local officials”

APWH-MCQ7-045

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 7 — Global Conflict

Period: c. 1900–present

Theme: GOV — Governance

Skill: Argumentation / Claim-Evidence

Prompt:

Originalized United Nations field report, Rwanda, 1994: “Radio messages named neighbors as enemies, roadblocks checked identity cards, and families fled to churches and schools seeking safety. Peacekeepers report that killing spread through local officials, militias, and fear.” Which statement best evaluates the report’s argument?

- A) It shows that genocide can involve propaganda, identity classification, local institutions, and militia violence.
- B) It claims that genocide occurs only through industrial bombing.
- C) It denies that civilians were targeted.
- D) It argues that international institutions always prevented mass violence.

APWH-MCQ7-046

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 8 — Cold War and Decolonization

Period: c. 1900–present

Theme: GOV — Governance

Skill: Sourcing and Situation

Prompt:

Originalized Vietnamese declaration, 1945: “For decades our rice, mines, and taxes served another flag. Now the people declare that independence must bring schools, land reform, and freedom from hunger. We ask the world to recognize that a nation cannot be ruled forever by force.” What was the most likely purpose of the declaration?

- A) To justify renewed colonial rule in Vietnam
- B) To claim national independence and link it to social reform
- C) To reject education and land reform after independence
- D) To support permanent foreign military occupation

APWH-MCQ7-047

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 8 — Cold War and Decolonization

Period: c. 1900–present

Theme: ECN — Economic Systems

Skill: Claims and Evidence in Sources

Prompt:

Originalized Vietnamese declaration, 1945: “For decades our rice, mines, and taxes served another flag. Now the people declare that independence must bring schools, land reform, and freedom from hunger. We ask the world to recognize that a nation cannot be ruled forever by force.” Which phrase best supports the claim that colonial rule involved economic extraction?

- A) “Served another flag”
- B) “Our rice, mines, and taxes”
- C) “The people declare”
- D) “Recognize”

APWH-MCQ7-048

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 8 — Cold War and Decolonization

Period: c. 1900–present

Theme: SIO — Social Interactions and Organization

Skill: Contextualization

Prompt:

Originalized Vietnamese declaration, 1945: “For decades our rice, mines, and taxes served another flag. Now the people declare that independence must bring schools, land reform, and freedom from hunger. We ask the world to recognize that a nation cannot be ruled forever by force.” Which broader context best explains the declaration?

- A) The post-World War II growth of anticolonial nationalism in Asia
- B) The collapse of all nationalist movements after 1919
- C) The creation of maritime spice monopolies in the seventeenth century
- D) The rise of European feudalism after 1450

APWH-MCQ7-049

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 8 — Cold War and Decolonization

Period: c. 1900–present

Theme: GOV — Governance

Skill: Quantitative, Map, or Data Interpretation

Prompt:

Described map: “A map of Angola, c. 1975–1988, marks three rival movements controlling different regions, Soviet and Cuban support flowing to one side, United States and South African support flowing to another, and oil and diamond zones near contested areas.” Which conclusion is best supported by the map?

- A) Decolonization and Cold War rivalries could combine in proxy conflicts over territory and resources.
- B) Angola’s independence ended all foreign involvement immediately.
- C) The Cold War had no influence in Africa.
- D) Natural resources were absent from Angola’s conflict.

APWH-MCQ7-050

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 8 — Cold War and Decolonization

Period: c. 1900–present

Theme: CDI — Cultural Developments and Interactions

Skill: Making Connections / Historical Reasoning

Prompt:

Described map: “A map of Angola, c. 1975–1988, marks three rival movements controlling different regions, Soviet and Cuban support flowing to one side, United States and South African support flowing to another, and oil and diamond zones near contested areas.” The map most directly reflects which broader pattern?

- A) The disappearance of ideological conflict after decolonization
- B) The use of newly independent states as arenas for competing Cold War alliances and development models
- C) The end of resource politics in postcolonial Africa
- D) The replacement of all African political parties by European monarchies

APWH-MCQ7-051

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 9 — Globalization

Period: c. 1900–present

Theme: TEC — Technology and Innovation

Skill: Quantitative, Map, or Data Interpretation

Prompt:

Table: Global internet connectivity, simplified pattern

Indicator | c. 1995 | c. 2020

Estimated internet users | Fewer than 50 million | More than 4 billion

Major data routes | Concentrated in North America, Europe, and East Asia | Expanded undersea cable routes across most ocean basins

Online services | Email and basic web pages | Streaming, mobile apps, cloud services, e-commerce

Which conclusion is best supported by the table?

- A) Digital networks expanded dramatically and became central to global communication and commerce.
- B) Internet use declined after 1995.
- C) Undersea cable routes disappeared after mobile phones spread.
- D) Online services remained unchanged from 1995 to 2020.

APWH-MCQ7-052

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 9 — Globalization

Period: c. 1900–present

Theme: ECN — Economic Systems

Skill: Developments and Processes

Prompt:

Table: Global internet connectivity, simplified pattern

Indicator | c. 1995 | c. 2020

Estimated internet users | Fewer than 50 million | More than 4 billion

Major data routes | Concentrated in North America, Europe, and East Asia | Expanded undersea cable routes across most ocean basins

Online services | Email and basic web pages | Streaming, mobile apps, cloud services, e-commerce

The pattern shown most directly contributed to which development?

- A) The end of transnational business activity
- B) The expansion of digital markets, remote services, and platform-based commerce
- C) The disappearance of information inequality
- D) The return to preindustrial communication systems

APWH-MCQ7-053

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 9 — Globalization

Period: c. 1900–present

Theme: SIO — Social Interactions and Organization

Skill: Claims and Evidence in Sources

Prompt:

Table: Global internet connectivity, simplified pattern

Indicator | c. 1995 | c. 2020

Estimated internet users | Fewer than 50 million | More than 4 billion

Major data routes | Concentrated in North America, Europe, and East Asia | Expanded undersea cable routes across most ocean basins

Online services | Email and basic web pages | Streaming, mobile apps, cloud services, e-commerce

Which evidence best supports the claim that internet access became much more widespread?

- A) “Email and basic web pages”
- B) “Fewer than 50 million” compared with “More than 4 billion”
- C) “Cloud services”
- D) “North America, Europe, and East Asia”

APWH-MCQ7-054

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 9 — Globalization

Period: c. 1900–present

Theme: CDI — Cultural Developments and Interactions

Skill: Making Connections / Historical Reasoning

Prompt:

Table: Global internet connectivity, simplified pattern

Indicator | c. 1995 | c. 2020

Estimated internet users | Fewer than 50 million | More than 4 billion

Major data routes | Concentrated in North America, Europe, and East Asia | Expanded undersea cable routes across most ocean basins

Online services | Email and basic web pages | Streaming, mobile apps, cloud services, e-commerce

Which cultural effect was most directly facilitated by the trend shown?

- A) The end of cross-cultural communication
- B) The rapid circulation of music, video, political messages, and online communities across borders
- C) The disappearance of all local languages
- D) The replacement of literacy by oral tradition only

APWH-MCQ7-055

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 9 — Globalization

Period: c. 1900–present

Theme: ENV — Humans and the Environment

Skill: Argumentation / Claim-Evidence

Prompt:

Secondary-source interpretation of digital globalization: “The internet made services, entertainment, and finance more mobile, but its material base remained physical: data centers consumed electricity, cables crossed ocean floors, and discarded devices created new waste streams.” Which statement best evaluates this interpretation?

- A) It argues that digital globalization had no environmental effects.
- B) It shows that digital networks combined virtual exchange with physical infrastructure and environmental costs.
- C) It claims that online services ended global inequality.
- D) It denies that technology shaped globalization after 1995.

PART B — ANSWER KEY + EXPLANATIONS

APWH-MCQ7-001 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: To portray the king as protector of religion, agriculture, commerce, and military security — Explanation: The poem links the king to temples, irrigation, warriors, markets, and trade duties.

APWH-MCQ7-002 — Correct: C — Correct Answer: “Temple towers rise above the market streets” — Explanation: The phrase connects religious institutions to the public and political life of the city.

APWH-MCQ7-003 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: South Indian states often invested in water management to support agriculture in monsoon-influenced environments. — Explanation: Irrigation channels feeding rice fields reflect environmental management for agrarian production.

APWH-MCQ7-004 — Correct: B — Correct Answer: Commercial activity could help support state revenue and urban life. — Explanation: Duties on horses, gems, and cloth suggest that trade helped fund and sustain the state.

APWH-MCQ7-005 — Correct: B — Correct Answer: Pacific voyagers used specialized maritime knowledge and technology to cross large ocean distances. — Explanation: Double-hulled canoes, stars, swell patterns, birds, and memorized island chains show sophisticated maritime technology and knowledge.

APWH-MCQ7-006 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: Technologies and knowledge moved across Afro-Eurasian networks and were adapted in new regions. — Explanation: The table shows paper-making, mathematical notation, and gunpowder knowledge spreading and being adapted across regions.

APWH-MCQ7-007 — Correct: B — Correct Answer: “Mathematical notation | South Asia and Islamic lands” — Explanation: This entry directly shows Islamic lands as part of the transmission of mathematical knowledge.

APWH-MCQ7-008 — Correct: B — Correct Answer: The growth of interconnected trade routes, scholarly centers, and imperial networks across Afro-Eurasia — Explanation: Trade, scholarship, and imperial connections helped move technologies and ideas across Afro-Eurasia.

APWH-MCQ7-009 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: Geographic chokepoints could make Southeast Asian ports important centers of exchange. — Explanation: The narrow Strait of Malacca linked the South China Sea and Indian Ocean, making port control valuable.

APWH-MCQ7-010 — Correct: B — Correct Answer: Tax shipping, protect harbors, and negotiate with merchant communities — Explanation: Controlling chokepoints required taxation, harbor security, and cooperation with merchants.

APWH-MCQ7-011 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: To coordinate military reform, religious legitimacy, and control over trans-Saharan revenue — Explanation: The decree links musketeers, treasury payments, caravan duties, religious lineage, and Saharan gold routes.

APWH-MCQ7-012 — Correct: D — Correct Answer: “Descent from the Prophet” — Explanation: Claiming descent from the Prophet provided religious legitimacy for the ruler.

APWH-MCQ7-013 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: The use of gunpowder weapons by states seeking to expand or defend authority — Explanation: Musketeers indicate the use of gunpowder military technology in early modern state-building.

APWH-MCQ7-014 — Correct: B — Correct Answer: Early modern state-building could combine military technology, sacred legitimacy, and control of trade revenue. — Explanation: The decree combines musketeers, prophetic descent, and caravan duties.

APWH-MCQ7-015 — Correct: B — Correct Answer: The ruler claimed authority over religious, administrative, military, and labor hierarchies. — Explanation: The panel shows the king above officials, monks, chiefs, labor service, military duty, and tribute.

APWH-MCQ7-016 — Correct: B — Correct Answer: “Labor service for canal repair” — Explanation: Labor service shows the state organizing social obligations for public works.

APWH-MCQ7-017 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: Southeast Asian states often linked political power to control of wet-rice agriculture and water systems. — Explanation: Canal repair and rice tribute show the connection between state authority, water control, and agriculture.

APWH-MCQ7-018 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: The Cape became a strategic provisioning point linking Atlantic and Indian Ocean routes. — Explanation: The map shows a company settlement, gardens, cattle routes, and sea lanes between two oceanic systems.

APWH-MCQ7-019 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: “Gardens supplying passing ships” — Explanation: Supplying ships shows the Cape’s function as a provisioning station for maritime commerce.

APWH-MCQ7-020 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: Chartered European companies established strategic posts to support long-distance oceanic trade. — Explanation: The fortified company settlement helped support ships moving between the Atlantic and Indian Oceans.

APWH-MCQ7-021 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: Transoceanic commerce reshaped local relationships at strategic coastal nodes. — Explanation: The map shows company settlement, ship provisioning, sea lanes, and cattle trade with local communities.

APWH-MCQ7-022 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: Colonial society in New Spain represented ancestry and status through visual categories and material culture. — Explanation: Labels, clothing, ancestry, porcelain, and local goods all point to colonial status classification.

APWH-MCQ7-023 — Correct: C — Correct Answer: Imported porcelain beside local woven goods — Explanation: Imported and local goods together show material blending in colonial culture.

APWH-MCQ7-024 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: It can reveal elite colonial ideas about classification, but it may not accurately represent lived experiences of all mixed-ancestry people. — Explanation: Casta paintings are valuable for studying elite classification, but they are limited as evidence for everyday lived experience.

APWH-MCQ7-025 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: To strengthen the state through administrative, educational, and labor reforms — Explanation: Salaried officials, clerk training, and reduced corvée obligations reflect state-strengthening reforms.

APWH-MCQ7-026 — Correct: B — Correct Answer: “Train clerks in numbers, maps, and foreign languages” — Explanation: This phrase directly shows technical and bureaucratic education.

APWH-MCQ7-027 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: Siamese rulers pursued modernization to preserve independence amid European imperial pressure in Southeast Asia. — Explanation: Siam’s reforms were partly intended to strengthen the state and avoid direct colonization.

APWH-MCQ7-028 — Correct: B — Correct Answer: It argues that state centralization and selective modernization can strengthen sovereignty. — Explanation: The decree links administrative reform, education, labor reduction, and national strength.

APWH-MCQ7-029 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: Revolutionary legislators and readers debating the meaning of citizenship — Explanation: The petition addresses rights, citizenship, law, education, and taxation in revolutionary France.

APWH-MCQ7-030 — Correct: B — Correct Answer: “Wives remain minors before the law” — Explanation: This phrase directly criticizes women’s unequal legal status.

APWH-MCQ7-031 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: The use of Enlightenment language to challenge gender hierarchy — Explanation: The petition applies reason, nature, rights, and citizenship to challenge women’s exclusion.

APWH-MCQ7-032 — Correct: C — Correct Answer: It exposes a contradiction between universal rights language and women’s legal exclusion. — Explanation: The petition argues that universal rights language conflicts with women’s limited legal and civic status.

APWH-MCQ7-033 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: Colonial policies could reorganize agriculture to serve export production. — Explanation: Villages were required to plant export crops, increasing coffee and sugar output.

APWH-MCQ7-034 — Correct: C — Correct Answer: “Pressure on village labor increased” — Explanation: This phrase directly indicates the burden placed on ordinary villagers.

APWH-MCQ7-035 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: The conversion of land and labor toward cash crops for industrial-era global markets — Explanation: The system diverted land and labor to export crops like coffee and sugar.

APWH-MCQ7-036 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: Colonial extraction could increase export revenue while intensifying local social and environmental stress. — Explanation: The table shows export growth alongside labor pressure, food land diversion, shortages, and grievances.

APWH-MCQ7-037 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: Imperial culture often justified empire by linking conquest to commerce, science, and claims of civilization. — Explanation: The poster links imperial routes to commerce, science, civilization, raw materials, and progress.

APWH-MCQ7-038 — Correct: C — Correct Answer: “Colonized figures carrying raw materials” — Explanation: This detail directly connects empire to the extraction of raw materials.

APWH-MCQ7-039 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: British visitors and consumers at an imperial exhibition — Explanation: The poster was designed to shape public support among exhibition visitors in Britain.

APWH-MCQ7-040 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: It presents imperial hierarchy as benevolent progress while minimizing coercion and colonial inequality. — Explanation: The poster portrays empire as progress while depicting colonized peoples as subordinate resource bearers.

APWH-MCQ7-041 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: World War I disrupted food systems and civilian economies as well as armies. — Explanation: The table shows shortages, rationing, black markets, and famine conditions.

APWH-MCQ7-042 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: Military conflict could weaponize access to food, transport, and resources. — Explanation: Blockades and disruptions of transport and imports show food and resources becoming tools of war.

APWH-MCQ7-043 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: To document mechanisms of mass violence and warn international officials — Explanation: The report identifies radio propaganda, identity cards, roadblocks, militias, officials, and civilian flight.

APWH-MCQ7-044 — Correct: C — Correct Answer: “Radio messages named neighbors as enemies” — Explanation: This phrase directly shows media being used to intensify violence.

APWH-MCQ7-045 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: It shows that genocide can involve propaganda, identity classification, local institutions, and militia violence. — Explanation: The report links radio propaganda, identity checks, local officials, militias, and civilians seeking refuge.

APWH-MCQ7-046 — Correct: B — Correct Answer: To claim national independence and link it to social reform — Explanation: The declaration calls for independence along with schools, land reform, and freedom from hunger.

APWH-MCQ7-047 — Correct: B — Correct Answer: “Our rice, mines, and taxes” — Explanation: Rice, mines, and taxes directly identify economic resources extracted under colonial rule.

APWH-MCQ7-048 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: The post-World War II growth of anticolonial nationalism in Asia — Explanation: The 1945 declaration fits the postwar surge of anticolonial claims in Asia.

APWH-MCQ7-049 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: Decolonization and Cold War rivalries could combine in proxy conflicts over territory and resources. — Explanation: The map shows rival movements, foreign Cold War support, and contested oil and diamond zones.

APWH-MCQ7-050 — Correct: B — Correct Answer: The use of newly independent states as arenas for competing Cold War alliances and development models — Explanation: Angola’s civil conflict involved rival movements, foreign backing, and competing political-economic visions.

APWH-MCQ7-051 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: Digital networks expanded dramatically and became central to global communication and commerce. — Explanation: Internet users increased from fewer than 50 million to more than 4 billion, while services and cable routes expanded.

APWH-MCQ7-052 — Correct: B — Correct Answer: The expansion of digital markets, remote services, and platform-based commerce — Explanation: Streaming, mobile apps, cloud services, and e-commerce indicate new digital economic systems.

APWH-MCQ7-053 — Correct: B — Correct Answer: “Fewer than 50 million” compared with “More than 4 billion” — Explanation: This comparison directly shows the dramatic expansion of internet access.

APWH-MCQ7-054 — Correct: B — Correct Answer: The rapid circulation of music, video, political messages, and online communities across borders — Explanation: Expanded internet connectivity accelerated cross-border cultural circulation.

APWH-MCQ7-055 — Correct: B — Correct Answer: It shows that digital networks combined virtual exchange with physical infrastructure and environmental costs. — Explanation: The interpretation highlights data centers, electricity use, undersea cables, discarded devices, and digital exchange.

SECTION 2 — SERIES DO-NOT-REPEAT BANK UPDATE — DO NOT IMPORT

SERIES DO-NOT-REPEAT BANK UPDATE — APWH-MCQ7

· APWH-MCQ7-001–004: Unit 1; c. 1200–1450; Vijayanagara/South India; original court poem; temple towers, irrigation channels, rice fields, warriors, passes, merchant duties on horses/gems/cloth; reasoning paths include purpose, religious legitimacy evidence, environmental water-management context, commerce-state revenue; source type: court praise poem; misconception targeted: treating South Indian state power as noncommercial or disconnected from temple patronage and irrigation.

· APWH-MCQ7-005: Unit 1; c. 1200–1450; Polynesia/Oceania; secondary-source description of navigation; double-hulled canoes, stars, swell patterns, bird flight, memorized island chains; reasoning path includes maritime technology and environmental knowledge; visual/material type: described navigation technology; misconception targeted: assuming Pacific settlement required European ships.

· APWH-MCQ7-006–008: Unit 2; c. 1200–1450; Afro-Eurasia; technology and knowledge transmission table; paper-making, mathematical notation, gunpowder knowledge, China, South Asia, Islamic lands, Mediterranean, Europe, Africa; reasoning paths include data interpretation, Islamic intermediary evidence, interconnected scholarly/trade networks; table type: technology transmission table; misconception targeted: assuming innovation flowed only from Europe or that exchange networks moved only goods.

· APWH-MCQ7-009–010: Unit 2; c. 1200–1450; Strait of Malacca/Southeast Asia; described chokepoint map; narrow sea lanes, Sumatra, Malay Peninsula, spices, ceramics, textiles, forest products, river-mouth ports; reasoning paths include geographic chokepoint interpretation and ruler strategy for taxing/protecting harbors; map type: maritime chokepoint and port map; misconception targeted: treating Southeast Asian ports as peripheral rather than central to interregional sea-lane commerce.

· APWH-MCQ7-011–014: Unit 3; c. 1450–1750; Saadi Morocco/North Africa and Sahara; original royal decree; musketeers, treasury, caravan duties, desert towns, sharifian descent, gold routes; reasoning paths include purpose, religious lineage evidence, gunpowder development, state-building argument combining sacred legitimacy and trade revenue; source type: royal decree; misconception targeted: separating gunpowder state-building from religious legitimacy and Saharan commerce.

· APWH-MCQ7-015–017: Unit 3; c. 1450–1750; Ayutthaya/Siam/mainland Southeast Asia; described royal law tablet; ranked officials, monks, provincial chiefs, labor service, canal repair, military duty, rice tribute; reasoning paths include visual/material analysis, social obligations evidence, wet-rice and water-system context; visual/material type: royal law tablet; misconception targeted: assuming Southeast Asian monarchies depended only on maritime trade or lacked structured labor obligations.

· APWH-MCQ7-018–021: Unit 4; c. 1450–1750; Cape of Good Hope/southern Africa/Atlantic-Indian Ocean link; described strategic map; fortified company settlement, gardens, cattle-trade routes with Khoikhoi, sea lanes; reasoning paths include map interpretation, maritime provisioning evidence, chartered-company context, local relationship transformation; map type: provisioning station and sea-lane map; misconception targeted: treating the Cape as isolated or purely European-to-European maritime infrastructure.

· APWH-MCQ7-022–024: Unit 4; c. 1450–1750; New Spain/Spanish America; described casta painting; Spanish man, Indigenous woman, mixed-ancestry child, ancestry labels, clothing status differences, imported porcelain, local woven goods; reasoning paths include visual social hierarchy interpretation, global-local material culture evidence, source limitation; visual type: casta painting; misconception targeted: treating colonial social categories as either absent or perfectly representative of lived experience.

- APWH-MCQ7-025–028: Unit 5; c. 1750–1900; Siam/Thailand; original royal reform decree; salaried officials, treasury, schools, clerks, numbers/maps/foreign languages, reduced corvée; reasoning paths include purpose, technical education evidence, modernization under imperial pressure, sovereignty-through-reform argument; source type: royal reform decree; misconception targeted: assuming Southeast Asian states either fully colonized or rejected modernization.

- APWH-MCQ7-029–032: Unit 5; c. 1750–1900; France/French Revolution; original women’s rights petition; reason, rights, wives as legal minors, daughters’ education, citizenship, taxation; reasoning paths include audience, unequal legal status evidence, Enlightenment gender challenge, contradiction in universal rights; source type: rights petition; misconception targeted: assuming revolutionary rights language automatically included women.

- APWH-MCQ7-033–036: Unit 6; c. 1750–1900; Java/Dutch colonial rule; Cultivation System table; required export crops, coffee, sugar, quota rewards, village labor pressure, food-land diversion, shortages, grievances; reasoning paths include quantitative/table interpretation, villager burden evidence, cash-crop environmental-economic context, extraction argument; table type: forced cultivation policy-result table; misconception targeted: treating colonial export growth as socially neutral or non-coercive.

- APWH-MCQ7-037–040: Unit 6; c. 1750–1900; Britain and global empire; described imperial exhibition poster; Britain-centered map, India/Africa/Pacific routes, commerce/science/civilization figures, colonized raw-material bearers, “Progress follows the flag”; reasoning paths include visual imperial ideology, raw-material evidence, audience, argument evaluation; visual type: imperial exhibition poster; misconception targeted: accepting “civilizing mission” rhetoric without recognizing hierarchy and extraction.

- APWH-MCQ7-041–042: Unit 7; c. 1900–present; Germany, Austria-Hungary, Ottoman eastern provinces; World War I food disruption table; import dependence, naval blockade, rail disruption, rationing, black markets, famine conditions; reasoning paths include data interpretation and total-war food/resource weaponization; table type: wartime food disruption table; misconception targeted: viewing World War I as only battlefield combat rather than civilian economic disruption.

- APWH-MCQ7-043–045: Unit 7; c. 1900–present; Rwanda; original United Nations field report; radio propaganda, identity cards, roadblocks, churches/schools as refuge, local officials, militias, fear; reasoning paths include purpose, media technology evidence, genocide mechanism evaluation; source type: international field report; misconception targeted: treating genocide as only army combat or ignoring propaganda and local administrative mechanisms.

- APWH-MCQ7-046–048: Unit 8; c. 1900–present; Vietnam/Southeast Asia; original 1945 independence declaration; rice, mines, taxes, foreign flag, schools, land reform, freedom from hunger, recognition; reasoning paths include purpose, colonial extraction evidence, post-WWII Asian anticolonial context; source type: nationalist declaration; misconception targeted: separating national independence from social and economic reform claims.

- APWH-MCQ7-049–050: Unit 8; c. 1900–present; Angola/Central Africa; described Cold War proxy-conflict map; rival movements, Soviet/Cuban support, U.S./South African support, oil and diamond zones; reasoning paths include map interpretation and Cold War/decolonization proxy pattern; map type: postcolonial proxy-war and resource map; misconception targeted: assuming decolonization ended foreign involvement or that African Cold War conflicts lacked resource dimensions.

· APWH-MCQ7-051–055: Unit 9; c. 1900–present; global digital networks; internet connectivity table plus secondary-source interpretation; internet users, undersea cable routes, streaming, mobile apps, cloud services, e-commerce, data centers, electricity, e-waste; reasoning paths include quantitative interpretation, digital economy process, access evidence, cultural circulation, environmental cost evaluation; table/source type: digital globalization data and interpretation; misconception targeted: treating digital globalization as immaterial, environmentally cost-free, or culturally insignificant.