

SECTION 1 — IMPORT-READY SOURCE FILE

AP World History: Modern MCQ Practice Exam 8

PART A — QUESTIONS

APWH-MCQ8-001

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 1 — The Global Tapestry

Period: c. 1200–1450

Theme: GOV — Governance

Skill: Sourcing and Situation

Prompt:

Originalized oral praise text, Ife, West Africa, c. 1300: “The oni sits where the sacred grove meets the market road. Bronze workers cast the ruler’s calm face, priests guard the old rites, and traders bring beads and cloth to the city gates.” What was the most likely purpose of this praise text?

- A) To show that Ife was governed by foreign merchants
- B) To argue that West African cities lacked artistic production
- C) To present the ruler as a sacred and political figure connected to urban prosperity
- D) To describe an industrial factory town

- A) To show that Ife was governed by foreign merchants
- B) To argue that West African cities lacked artistic production
- C) To present the ruler as a sacred and political figure connected to urban prosperity
- D) To describe an industrial factory town

APWH-MCQ8-002

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 1 — The Global Tapestry

Period: c. 1200–1450

Theme: CDI — Cultural Developments and Interactions

Skill: Claims and Evidence in Sources

Prompt:

Originalized oral praise text, Ife, West Africa, c. 1300: “The oni sits where the sacred grove meets the market road. Bronze workers cast the ruler’s calm face, priests guard the old rites, and traders bring beads and cloth to the city gates.” Which phrase best supports the claim that religion was linked to political authority?

- A) “The sacred grove meets the market road”
- B) “Traders bring beads”
- C) “Bronze workers cast”
- D) “City gates”

- A) “The sacred grove meets the market road”
- B) “Traders bring beads”
- C) “Bronze workers cast”
- D) “City gates”

APWH-MCQ8-003

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 1 — The Global Tapestry

Period: c. 1200–1450

Theme: TEC — Technology and Innovation

Skill: Visual / Material Culture Analysis

Prompt:

Originalized oral praise text, Ife, West Africa, c. 1300: “The oni sits where the sacred grove meets the market road. Bronze workers cast the ruler’s calm face, priests guard the old rites, and traders bring beads and cloth to the city gates.” Which material object would best illustrate the political culture described?

- A) A steam locomotive built for export mining
- B) A printed revolutionary newspaper
- C) A porcelain plate from an East Asian kiln
- D) A naturalistic metal head representing royal authority

A) A steam locomotive built for export mining

B) A printed revolutionary newspaper

C) A porcelain plate from an East Asian kiln

D) A naturalistic metal head representing royal authority

APWH-MCQ8-004

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 1 — The Global Tapestry

Period: c. 1200–1450

Theme: SIO — Social Interactions and Organization

Skill: Making Connections / Historical Reasoning

Prompt:

Originalized oral praise text, Ife, West Africa, c. 1300: “The oni sits where the sacred grove meets the market road. Bronze workers cast the ruler’s calm face, priests guard the old rites, and traders bring beads and cloth to the city gates.” The passage most directly suggests which feature of Ife’s society?

- A) The absence of social specialization
- B) The interaction of rulers, priests, artisans, and merchants in an urban center
- C) The replacement of local rulers by European governors
- D) The disappearance of craft production before 1450

A) The absence of social specialization

B) The interaction of rulers, priests, artisans, and merchants in an urban center

C) The replacement of local rulers by European governors

D) The disappearance of craft production before 1450

APWH-MCQ8-005

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 1 — The Global Tapestry

Period: c. 1200–1450

Theme: ECN — Economic Systems

Skill: Contextualization

Prompt:

Secondary-source description of Kilwa, c. 1300: “Stone mosques, coral-built houses, and coinage bearing local rulers' names appeared in a coastal city whose elites claimed Islamic status while governing a Swahili-speaking population." Which broader context best explains Kilwa's growth?

- A) Swahili city-states combined local African cultures, Islamic influence, and coastal commerce.
- B) Kilwa was founded by Portuguese settlers after 1500.
- C) East African coastal cities rejected all overseas exchange.
- D) Swahili rulers depended on industrial wage labor.

- A) Swahili city-states combined local African cultures, Islamic influence, and coastal commerce.
- B) Kilwa was founded by Portuguese settlers after 1500.
- C) East African coastal cities rejected all overseas exchange.
- D) Swahili rulers depended on industrial wage labor.

APWH-MCQ8-006

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 2 — Networks of Exchange

Period: c. 1200–1450

Theme: CDI — Cultural Developments and Interactions

Skill: Claims and Evidence in Sources

Prompt:

Secondary-source description of Kilwa, c. 1300: "Stone mosques, coral-built houses, and coinage bearing local rulers' names appeared in a coastal city whose elites claimed Islamic status while governing a Swahili-speaking population." Which evidence best supports the claim that Islamic culture shaped coastal urban life?

- A) "Coral-built houses"
- B) "Coinage bearing local rulers' names"
- C) "Swahili-speaking population"
- D) "Stone mosques"

- A) "Coral-built houses"
- B) "Coinage bearing local rulers' names"
- C) "Swahili-speaking population"
- D) "Stone mosques"

APWH-MCQ8-007

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 2 — Networks of Exchange

Period: c. 1200–1450

Theme: ECN — Economic Systems

Skill: Developments and Processes

Prompt:

Secondary-source description of Kilwa, c. 1300: "Stone mosques, coral-built houses, and coinage bearing local rulers' names appeared in a coastal city whose elites claimed Islamic status while governing a Swahili-speaking population." Kilwa's coinage most directly reflects which development?

- A) The decline of monetized exchange in East Africa
- B) The use of local political authority to support regional and oceanic commerce
- C) The replacement of coastal trade by inland subsistence farming
- D) The end of elite involvement in commerce

- A) The decline of monetized exchange in East Africa
- B) The use of local political authority to support regional and oceanic commerce
- C) The replacement of coastal trade by inland subsistence farming
- D) The end of elite involvement in commerce

APWH-MCQ8-008

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 2 — Networks of Exchange

Period: c. 1200–1450

Theme: SIO — Social Interactions and Organization

Skill: Making Connections / Historical Reasoning

Prompt:

Secondary-source description of Kilwa, c. 1300: “Stone mosques, coral-built houses, and coinage bearing local rulers’ names appeared in a coastal city whose elites claimed Islamic status while governing a Swahili-speaking population.” The description most directly illustrates which effect of Indian Ocean exchange?

- A) The disappearance of local African languages
- B) The creation of societies combining local identities with wider Islamic commercial culture
- C) The elimination of coastal cities after 1200
- D) The spread of Buddhism as the main religion of East Africa

- A) The disappearance of local African languages
- B) The creation of societies combining local identities with wider Islamic commercial culture
- C) The elimination of coastal cities after 1200
- D) The spread of Buddhism as the main religion of East Africa

APWH-MCQ8-009

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 2 — Networks of Exchange

Period: c. 1200–1450

Theme: ECN — Economic Systems

Skill: Quantitative, Map, or Data Interpretation

Prompt:

Described map: “A map of the Black Sea c. 1300 shows routes linking Crimea, Constantinople, Trebizond, and Italian merchant colonies. Arrows mark grain, wax, furs, and enslaved people moving through ports into Mediterranean markets.” Which conclusion is best supported by the map?

- A) Black Sea routes linked Eurasian frontier zones to Mediterranean commercial networks.
- B) The Black Sea was isolated from long-distance trade.
- C) Italian merchants avoided all commercial activity east of the Mediterranean.
- D) Grain and furs moved only through overland Saharan routes.

- A) Black Sea routes linked Eurasian frontier zones to Mediterranean commercial networks.
- B) The Black Sea was isolated from long-distance trade.
- C) Italian merchants avoided all commercial activity east of the Mediterranean.
- D) Grain and furs moved only through overland Saharan routes.

APWH-MCQ8-010

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 2 — Networks of Exchange

Period: c. 1200–1450

Theme: GOV — Governance

Skill: Sourcing and Situation

Prompt:

Described map: “A map of the Black Sea c. 1300 shows routes linking Crimea, Constantinople, Trebizond, and Italian merchant colonies. Arrows mark grain, wax, furs, and enslaved people moving through ports into Mediterranean markets.” Which audience would most likely have used a map like this?

- A) Factory owners planning rail schedules in colonial India
- B) Merchants and officials organizing port duties, convoy routes, and commercial privileges
- C) Women petitioning revolutionary assemblies for citizenship
- D) United Nations observers during a twentieth-century genocide

A) Factory owners planning rail schedules in colonial India

B) Merchants and officials organizing port duties, convoy routes, and commercial privileges

C) Women petitioning revolutionary assemblies for citizenship

D) United Nations observers during a twentieth-century genocide

APWH-MCQ8-011

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 3 — Land-Based Empires

Period: c. 1450–1750

Theme: GOV — Governance

Skill: Sourcing and Situation

Prompt:

Originalized decree from the Deccan Sultanate of Bijapur, c. 1650: “The fort commanders shall store grain and gunpowder before the dry season. Horse dealers from the western sea must pay duties at the city gate, and poets shall praise the sultan’s justice in Persian and Dakhani verse.”

What was the most likely purpose of the decree?

- A) To abolish all military forts in the Deccan
- B) To place Bijapur under Portuguese rule
- C) To end the use of Persianate court culture
- D) To coordinate military defense, revenue collection, and court legitimacy

A) To abolish all military forts in the Deccan

B) To place Bijapur under Portuguese rule

C) To end the use of Persianate court culture

D) To coordinate military defense, revenue collection, and court legitimacy

APWH-MCQ8-012

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 3 — Land-Based Empires

Period: c. 1450–1750

Theme: TEC — Technology and Innovation

Skill: Claims and Evidence in Sources

Prompt:

Originalized decree from the Deccan Sultanate of Bijapur, c. 1650: “The fort commanders shall store grain and gunpowder before the dry season. Horse dealers from the western sea must pay duties at the city gate, and poets shall praise the sultan's justice in Persian and Dakhani verse." Which phrase best supports the claim that military technology shaped state policy?

- A) "Store grain and gunpowder"
- B) "Horse dealers"
- C) "Poets shall praise"
- D) "City gate"

- A) "Store grain and gunpowder"
- B) "Horse dealers"
- C) "Poets shall praise"
- D) "City gate"

APWH-MCQ8-013

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 3 — Land-Based Empires

Period: c. 1450–1750

Theme: CDI — Cultural Developments and Interactions

Skill: Contextualization

Prompt:

Originalized decree from the Deccan Sultanate of Bijapur, c. 1650: "The fort commanders shall store grain and gunpowder before the dry season. Horse dealers from the western sea must pay duties at the city gate, and poets shall praise the sultan's justice in Persian and Dakhani verse." Which broader cultural context best explains the reference to Persian and Dakhani verse?

- A) The Deccan courts blended Persianate literary traditions with regional South Asian languages.
- B) The Deccan sultanates rejected court poetry as politically dangerous.
- C) Persian verse was used only in European parliaments.
- D) Dakhani was a language created by industrial schools after 1900.

- A) The Deccan courts blended Persianate literary traditions with regional South Asian languages.
- B) The Deccan sultanates rejected court poetry as politically dangerous.
- C) Persian verse was used only in European parliaments.
- D) Dakhani was a language created by industrial schools after 1900.

APWH-MCQ8-014

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 3 — Land-Based Empires

Period: c. 1450–1750

Theme: ECN — Economic Systems

Skill: Making Connections / Historical Reasoning

Prompt:

Originalized decree from the Deccan Sultanate of Bijapur, c. 1650: "The fort commanders shall store grain and gunpowder before the dry season. Horse dealers from the western sea must pay duties at the city gate, and poets shall praise the sultan's justice in Persian and Dakhani verse." The reference to horse dealers from the western sea most directly reflects which connection?

- A) The isolation of Deccan states from maritime exchange
- B) The role of overseas and regional trade in supplying military needs
- C) The decline of cavalry in South Asia before 1450
- D) The replacement of trade duties by income taxes

- A) The isolation of Deccan states from maritime exchange
- B) The role of overseas and regional trade in supplying military needs
- C) The decline of cavalry in South Asia before 1450
- D) The replacement of trade duties by income taxes

APWH-MCQ8-015

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 3 — Land-Based Empires

Period: c. 1450–1750

Theme: ENV — Humans and the Environment

Skill: Quantitative, Map, or Data Interpretation

Prompt:

Described map: “A map of the Toungoo Empire, mainland Southeast Asia, c. 1550–1600, shows fortified centers along river valleys, routes through forested uplands, and arrows marking campaigns toward rice plains and port-linked regions.” Which conclusion is best supported by the map?

- A) Toungoo expansion was unrelated to river valleys or agricultural regions.
- B) Mainland Southeast Asian empires expanded by combining inland routes, fortified centers, and control over agrarian zones.
- C) The Toungoo Empire depended entirely on Atlantic plantation commerce.
- D) River valleys prevented political expansion in mainland Southeast Asia.

- A) Toungoo expansion was unrelated to river valleys or agricultural regions.
- B) Mainland Southeast Asian empires expanded by combining inland routes, fortified centers, and control over agrarian zones.
- C) The Toungoo Empire depended entirely on Atlantic plantation commerce.
- D) River valleys prevented political expansion in mainland Southeast Asia.

APWH-MCQ8-016

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 3 — Land-Based Empires

Period: c. 1450–1750

Theme: GOV — Governance

Skill: Claims and Evidence in Sources

Prompt:

Described map: “A map of the Toungoo Empire, mainland Southeast Asia, c. 1550–1600, shows fortified centers along river valleys, routes through forested uplands, and arrows marking campaigns toward rice plains and port-linked regions.” Which map feature best supports the claim that military expansion and resource control were connected?

- A) Arrows marking campaigns toward rice plains and port-linked regions
- B) The label “mainland Southeast Asia”
- C) Forested uplands
- D) The date c. 1550–1600

- A) Arrows marking campaigns toward rice plains and port-linked regions
- B) The label “mainland Southeast Asia”
- C) Forested uplands
- D) The date c. 1550–1600

APWH-MCQ8-017

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 3 — Land-Based Empires

Period: c. 1450–1750

Theme: SIO — Social Interactions and Organization

Skill: Argumentation / Claim-Evidence

Prompt:

Described map: “A map of the Toungoo Empire, mainland Southeast Asia, c. 1550–1600, shows fortified centers along river valleys, routes through forested uplands, and arrows marking campaigns toward rice plains and port-linked regions.” Which argument is best supported by the map?

- A) Mainland empires could link warfare, geography, and agrarian production in state-building.
- B) Southeast Asian empires avoided control over rice-producing areas.
- C) Port-linked regions had no political value to inland rulers.
- D) Fortified centers were used only by European maritime companies.

- A) Mainland empires could link warfare, geography, and agrarian production in state-building.
- B) Southeast Asian empires avoided control over rice-producing areas.
- C) Port-linked regions had no political value to inland rulers.
- D) Fortified centers were used only by European maritime companies.

APWH-MCQ8-018

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 4 — Transoceanic Interconnections

Period: c. 1450–1750

Theme: ECN — Economic Systems

Skill: Sourcing and Situation

Prompt:

Originalized English East India Company letter from Surat, c. 1620: “The local governor demands customs before our cloth may be sold. We must send gifts to secure the warehouse lease, yet Gujarati brokers know the buyers better than any factor newly arrived from London.” What was the most likely purpose of the letter?

- A) To argue that European companies controlled Indian commerce without local cooperation
- B) To report the practical challenges of trading within an established Asian commercial system
- C) To announce the end of textile commerce in India
- D) To request the abolition of all customs duties in Europe

- A) To argue that European companies controlled Indian commerce without local cooperation
- B) To report the practical challenges of trading within an established Asian commercial system
- C) To announce the end of textile commerce in India
- D) To request the abolition of all customs duties in Europe

APWH-MCQ8-019

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 4 — Transoceanic Interconnections

Period: c. 1450–1750

Theme: GOV — Governance

Skill: Claims and Evidence in Sources

Prompt:

Originalized English East India Company letter from Surat, c. 1620: “The local governor demands customs before our cloth may be sold. We must send gifts to secure the warehouse lease, yet Gujarati brokers know the buyers better than any factor newly arrived from London.” Which phrase best supports the claim that local political authority constrained European merchants?

- A) “The local governor demands customs”
- B) “Our cloth”
- C) “London”
- D) “Gujarati brokers”

- A) “The local governor demands customs”
- B) “Our cloth”
- C) “London”
- D) “Gujarati brokers”

APWH-MCQ8-020

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 4 — Transoceanic Interconnections

Period: c. 1450–1750

Theme: SIO — Social Interactions and Organization

Skill: Contextualization

Prompt:

Originalized English East India Company letter from Surat, c. 1620: “The local governor demands customs before our cloth may be sold. We must send gifts to secure the warehouse lease, yet Gujarati brokers know the buyers better than any factor newly arrived from London.” Which broader context best explains the role of Gujarati brokers?

- A) Indian Ocean trade involved experienced local merchant communities before European companies arrived.
- B) European companies eliminated all Asian merchants by 1600.
- C) Gujarati brokers were agents of the Spanish monarchy in Mexico.
- D) South Asian textile commerce began only after British industrialization.

- A) Indian Ocean trade involved experienced local merchant communities before European companies arrived.
- B) European companies eliminated all Asian merchants by 1600.
- C) Gujarati brokers were agents of the Spanish monarchy in Mexico.
- D) South Asian textile commerce began only after British industrialization.

APWH-MCQ8-021

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 4 — Transoceanic Interconnections

Period: c. 1450–1750

Theme: ECN — Economic Systems

Skill: Argumentation / Claim-Evidence

Prompt:

Originalized English East India Company letter from Surat, c. 1620: “The local governor demands customs before our cloth may be sold. We must send gifts to secure the warehouse lease, yet Gujarati brokers know the buyers better than any factor newly arrived from London.” Which statement best evaluates the commercial situation described?

- A) European merchants immediately dominated South Asian trade without negotiation.
- B) European companies relied on local officials, leases, brokers, and established markets to operate in Asian ports.
- C) Indian merchants withdrew from trade after European arrival.
- D) Company factories functioned as independent sovereign states in 1620.

- A) European merchants immediately dominated South Asian trade without negotiation.
- B) European companies relied on local officials, leases, brokers, and established markets to operate in Asian ports.
- C) Indian merchants withdrew from trade after European arrival.
- D) Company factories functioned as independent sovereign states in 1620.

APWH-MCQ8-022

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 4 — Transoceanic Interconnections

Period: c. 1450–1750

Theme: GOV — Governance

Skill: Quantitative, Map, or Data Interpretation

Prompt:

Described map: “A map of southern Chile c. 1550–1650 shows Spanish towns north of the Biobío River, Mapuche-controlled territories to the south, frontier forts, and arrows marking raids, negotiations, and prisoner exchanges.” Which conclusion is best supported by the map?

- A) The Mapuche maintained resistance and frontier diplomacy against Spanish expansion.
- B) Spanish rule quickly eliminated all Indigenous political autonomy in southern Chile.
- C) The Biobío frontier was unrelated to conflict or negotiation.
- D) Mapuche territory was governed directly from Madrid after 1550.

- A) The Mapuche maintained resistance and frontier diplomacy against Spanish expansion.
- B) Spanish rule quickly eliminated all Indigenous political autonomy in southern Chile.
- C) The Biobío frontier was unrelated to conflict or negotiation.
- D) Mapuche territory was governed directly from Madrid after 1550.

APWH-MCQ8-023

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 4 — Transoceanic Interconnections

Period: c. 1450–1750

Theme: CDI — Cultural Developments and Interactions

Skill: Claims and Evidence in Sources

Prompt:

Described map: “A map of southern Chile c. 1550–1650 shows Spanish towns north of the Biobío River, Mapuche-controlled territories to the south, frontier forts, and arrows marking raids, negotiations, and prisoner exchanges.” Which map feature best supports the claim that the frontier involved both conflict and diplomacy?

- A) Spanish towns north of the river
- B) The coastline of southern Chile
- C) Arrows marking raids, negotiations, and prisoner exchanges
- D) Mapuche-controlled territory

- A) Spanish towns north of the river
- B) The coastline of southern Chile
- C) Arrows marking raids, negotiations, and prisoner exchanges
- D) Mapuche-controlled territory

APWH-MCQ8-024

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 4 — Transoceanic Interconnections

Period: c. 1450–1750

Theme: SIO — Social Interactions and Organization

Skill: Making Connections / Historical Reasoning

Prompt:

Described map: “A map of southern Chile c. 1550–1650 shows Spanish towns north of the Biobío River, Mapuche-controlled territories to the south, frontier forts, and arrows marking raids, negotiations, and prisoner exchanges.” The pattern shown most directly illustrates which broader feature of European expansion in the Americas?

- A) Indigenous peoples always lost political autonomy immediately.
- B) Frontier zones could involve prolonged Indigenous resistance, adaptation, and negotiated boundaries.
- C) European colonization occurred without military conflict.
- D) Indigenous communities had no role in shaping colonial frontiers.

- A) Indigenous peoples always lost political autonomy immediately.
- B) Frontier zones could involve prolonged Indigenous resistance, adaptation, and negotiated boundaries.
- C) European colonization occurred without military conflict.
- D) Indigenous communities had no role in shaping colonial frontiers.

APWH-MCQ8-025

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 5 — Revolutions

Period: c. 1750–1900

Theme: GOV — Governance

Skill: Sourcing and Situation

Prompt:

Originalized speech by a German liberal nationalist, Frankfurt, 1848: “A people divided into jealous courts cannot defend liberty. Let a parliament write rights into law, let censorship fall, and let Germans be citizens of a nation rather than subjects of princes.” Which audience was the speech most likely intended to influence?

- A) Merchants seeking access to Indian Ocean ports
- B) Delegates and readers debating constitutional nationalism in German lands
- C) Plantation overseers defending coerced labor
- D) Cold War officials negotiating a proxy conflict

- A) Merchants seeking access to Indian Ocean ports
- B) Delegates and readers debating constitutional nationalism in German lands
- C) Plantation overseers defending coerced labor
- D) Cold War officials negotiating a proxy conflict

APWH-MCQ8-026

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 5 — Revolutions

Period: c. 1750–1900

Theme: CDI — Cultural Developments and Interactions

Skill: Claims and Evidence in Sources

Prompt:

Originalized speech by a German liberal nationalist, Frankfurt, 1848: “A people divided into jealous courts cannot defend liberty. Let a parliament write rights into law, let censorship fall, and let Germans be citizens of a nation rather than subjects of princes.” Which phrase best supports the claim that the speaker connected nationalism to constitutional rights?

- A) “A people divided”
- B) “Parliament write rights into law”
- C) “Subjects of princes”
- D) “Jealous courts”

- A) “A people divided”
- B) “Parliament write rights into law”
- C) “Subjects of princes”
- D) “Jealous courts”

APWH-MCQ8-027

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 5 — Revolutions

Period: c. 1750–1900

Theme: SIO — Social Interactions and Organization

Skill: Contextualization

Prompt:

Originalized speech by a German liberal nationalist, Frankfurt, 1848: “A people divided into jealous courts cannot defend liberty. Let a parliament write rights into law, let censorship fall, and let Germans be citizens of a nation rather than subjects of princes.” Which broader context best explains the speech?

- A) The spread of liberal and nationalist movements during the revolutions of 1848
- B) The disappearance of print politics in nineteenth-century Europe
- C) The restoration of feudal serfdom across all German states
- D) The rise of decolonization movements in Southeast Asia

- A) The spread of liberal and nationalist movements during the revolutions of 1848
- B) The disappearance of print politics in nineteenth-century Europe
- C) The restoration of feudal serfdom across all German states
- D) The rise of decolonization movements in Southeast Asia

APWH-MCQ8-028

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 5 — Revolutions

Period: c. 1750–1900

Theme: GOV — Governance

Skill: Argumentation / Claim-Evidence

Prompt:

Originalized speech by a German liberal nationalist, Frankfurt, 1848: “A people divided into jealous courts cannot defend liberty. Let a parliament write rights into law, let censorship fall, and let Germans be citizens of a nation rather than subjects of princes.” Which statement best evaluates the speaker’s argument?

- A) The speaker defends dynastic fragmentation as the best protection for liberty.
- B) The speaker argues that national unity, constitutional government, and civil rights should reinforce one another.
- C) The speaker rejects citizenship in favor of hereditary subjecthood.
- D) The speaker claims censorship is necessary for political freedom.

- A) The speaker defends dynastic fragmentation as the best protection for liberty.
- B) The speaker argues that national unity, constitutional government, and civil rights should reinforce one another.
- C) The speaker rejects citizenship in favor of hereditary subjecthood.
- D) The speaker claims censorship is necessary for political freedom.

APWH-MCQ8-029

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 5 — Revolutions

Period: c. 1750–1900

Theme: SIO — Social Interactions and Organization

Skill: Sourcing and Situation

Prompt:

Originalized proclamation from Cuban rebels, 1868: “The island cannot be free while men and women labor in chains. We call on planters, free people of color, and enslaved workers to join a nation where liberty is not reserved for those born white or wealthy.” What was the most likely purpose of the proclamation?

- A) To defend Spanish colonial rule and plantation slavery
- B) To separate independence from questions of race and labor
- C) To mobilize support for independence by linking nationalism and abolition
- D) To abolish all export agriculture immediately

- A) To defend Spanish colonial rule and plantation slavery
- B) To separate independence from questions of race and labor
- C) To mobilize support for independence by linking nationalism and abolition
- D) To abolish all export agriculture immediately

APWH-MCQ8-030

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 5 — Revolutions

Period: c. 1750–1900

Theme: SIO — Social Interactions and Organization

Skill: Claims and Evidence in Sources

Prompt:

Originalized proclamation from Cuban rebels, 1868: “The island cannot be free while men and women labor in chains. We call on planters, free people of color, and enslaved workers to join a nation where liberty is not reserved for those born white or wealthy.” Which phrase best supports the claim that the proclamation challenged racial hierarchy?

- A) “The island cannot be free”
- B) “Planters”
- C) “Liberty is not reserved for those born white or wealthy”
- D) “Join a nation”

- A) “The island cannot be free”
- B) “Planters”
- C) “Liberty is not reserved for those born white or wealthy”
- D) “Join a nation”

APWH-MCQ8-031

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 5 — Revolutions

Period: c. 1750–1900

Theme: ECN — Economic Systems

Skill: Making Connections / Historical Reasoning

Prompt:

Originalized proclamation from Cuban rebels, 1868: “The island cannot be free while men and women labor in chains. We call on planters, free people of color, and enslaved workers to join a nation where liberty is not reserved for those born white or wealthy.” The proclamation most directly connects political revolution to which economic institution?

- A) Chattel slavery in a plantation economy
- B) Industrial wage labor in textile mills
- C) Caravan taxation in the Sahara
- D) State ownership of oil resources

- A) Chattel slavery in a plantation economy
- B) Industrial wage labor in textile mills
- C) Caravan taxation in the Sahara
- D) State ownership of oil resources

APWH-MCQ8-032

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 5 — Revolutions

Period: c. 1750–1900

Theme: CDI — Cultural Developments and Interactions

Skill: Argumentation / Claim-Evidence

Prompt:

Originalized proclamation from Cuban rebels, 1868: “The island cannot be free while men and women labor in chains. We call on planters, free people of color, and enslaved workers to join a nation where liberty is not reserved for those born white or wealthy.” Which statement best evaluates the proclamation’s argument?

- A) It treats slavery as unrelated to national independence.
- B) It defines liberty as compatible with racial exclusion.
- C) It rejects the participation of enslaved workers in politics.
- D) It argues that national freedom must include emancipation and a broader definition of citizenship.

- A) It treats slavery as unrelated to national independence.
- B) It defines liberty as compatible with racial exclusion.
- C) It rejects the participation of enslaved workers in politics.
- D) It argues that national freedom must include emancipation and a broader definition of citizenship.

APWH-MCQ8-033

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 6 — Consequences of Industrialization

Period: c. 1750–1900

Theme: ECN — Economic Systems

Skill: Quantitative, Map, or Data Interpretation

Prompt:

Table: Treaty-port trade in China after the First Opium War, simplified pattern

Feature | Reported change

Ports open to foreign merchants | Increased from one main legal port to several treaty ports

Tariff control | Limited by treaty agreements

Foreign residence | Allowed in designated port districts

Which conclusion is best supported by the table?

- A) Treaty arrangements expanded foreign commercial access and weakened Qing control over trade policy.
- B) China gained full tariff autonomy after the First Opium War.
- C) Foreign merchants were banned from all Chinese ports after 1842.
- D) Treaty ports ended European interest in Chinese markets.

- A) Treaty arrangements expanded foreign commercial access and weakened Qing control over trade policy.
- B) China gained full tariff autonomy after the First Opium War.
- C) Foreign merchants were banned from all Chinese ports after 1842.
- D) Treaty ports ended European interest in Chinese markets.

APWH-MCQ8-034

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 6 — Consequences of Industrialization

Period: c. 1750–1900

Theme: GOV — Governance

Skill: Claims and Evidence in Sources

Prompt:

Table: Treaty-port trade in China after the First Opium War, simplified pattern

Feature | Reported change

Ports open to foreign merchants | Increased from one main legal port to several treaty ports

Tariff control | Limited by treaty agreements

Foreign residence | Allowed in designated port districts

Which evidence best supports the claim that Qing sovereignty over trade was restricted?

- A) “Several treaty ports”
- B) “Limited by treaty agreements”
- C) “Foreign residence”
- D) “Ports open”

- A) “Several treaty ports”
- B) “Limited by treaty agreements”
- C) “Foreign residence”
- D) “Ports open”

APWH-MCQ8-035

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 6 — Consequences of Industrialization

Period: c. 1750–1900

Theme: TEC — Technology and Innovation

Skill: Contextualization

Prompt:

Table: Treaty-port trade in China after the First Opium War, simplified pattern

Feature | Reported change

Ports open to foreign merchants | Increased from one main legal port to several treaty ports

Tariff control | Limited by treaty agreements

Foreign residence | Allowed in designated port districts

Which broader context best explains the treaty-port system?

- A) European states and merchants used industrial-era military and naval power to force commercial concessions.
- B) Qing rulers invited foreign merchants to govern inland provinces freely.
- C) Chinese trade policy was unaffected by imperial conflict.
- D) Treaty ports were created by anticolonial independence movements.

- A) European states and merchants used industrial-era military and naval power to force commercial concessions.
- B) Qing rulers invited foreign merchants to govern inland provinces freely.
- C) Chinese trade policy was unaffected by imperial conflict.
- D) Treaty ports were created by anticolonial independence movements.

APWH-MCQ8-036

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 6 — Consequences of Industrialization

Period: c. 1750–1900

Theme: GOV — Governance

Skill: Argumentation / Claim-Evidence

Prompt:

Table: Treaty-port trade in China after the First Opium War, simplified pattern

Feature | Reported change

Ports open to foreign merchants | Increased from one main legal port to several treaty ports

Tariff control | Limited by treaty agreements

Foreign residence | Allowed in designated port districts

Which argument is best supported by the table?

- A) Imperialism could operate through unequal treaties and commercial privileges rather than direct annexation alone.
- B) Treaty ports made China a settler colony.
- C) Foreign commercial privileges strengthened Qing control over tariffs.
- D) Industrial-era imperialism avoided legal agreements.

- A) Imperialism could operate through unequal treaties and commercial privileges rather than direct annexation alone.
- B) Treaty ports made China a settler colony.
- C) Foreign commercial privileges strengthened Qing control over tariffs.
- D) Industrial-era imperialism avoided legal agreements.

APWH-MCQ8-037

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 6 — Consequences of Industrialization

Period: c. 1750–1900

Theme: CDI — Cultural Developments and Interactions

Skill: Visual / Material Culture Analysis

Prompt:

Described French colonial school poster, Indochina, c. 1905: “A teacher points to a map of France while Vietnamese children sit at desks beneath a sign reading ‘Work, Obedience, Progress.’ Outside the school window, a village elder watches from a distance.” Which interpretation is best supported by the poster?

- A) Colonial education was presented as a tool of cultural assimilation and social discipline.
- B) French colonial rule rejected schooling as a political tool.
- C) Vietnamese society controlled the French curriculum without interference.
- D) Colonial schools were unrelated to imperial ideology.

- A) Colonial education was presented as a tool of cultural assimilation and social discipline.
- B) French colonial rule rejected schooling as a political tool.
- C) Vietnamese society controlled the French curriculum without interference.
- D) Colonial schools were unrelated to imperial ideology.

APWH-MCQ8-038

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 6 — Consequences of Industrialization

Period: c. 1750–1900

Theme: SIO — Social Interactions and Organization

Skill: Claims and Evidence in Sources

Prompt:

Described French colonial school poster, Indochina, c. 1905: “A teacher points to a map of France while Vietnamese children sit at desks beneath a sign reading ‘Work, Obedience, Progress.’ Outside the school window, a village elder watches from a distance.” Which detail most directly supports the claim that the poster promoted obedience to imperial authority?

- A) “Vietnamese children”
- B) “A map of France”
- C) “‘Work, Obedience, Progress’”
- D) “A village elder watches”

- A) “Vietnamese children”
- B) “A map of France”
- C) “‘Work, Obedience, Progress’”
- D) “A village elder watches”

APWH-MCQ8-039

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 6 — Consequences of Industrialization

Period: c. 1750–1900

Theme: GOV — Governance

Skill: Sourcing and Situation

Prompt:

Described French colonial school poster, Indochina, c. 1905: “A teacher points to a map of France while Vietnamese children sit at desks beneath a sign reading ‘Work, Obedience, Progress.’ Outside the school window, a village elder watches from a distance.” Which audience was the poster most likely designed to influence?

- A) Colonial officials, settlers, and metropolitan viewers who supported a “civilizing mission”
- B) Buddhist monks compiling Silk Road manuscripts
- C) Revolutionary delegates in Frankfurt in 1848
- D) Merchants negotiating customs duties in Surat

- A) Colonial officials, settlers, and metropolitan viewers who supported a “civilizing mission”
- B) Buddhist monks compiling Silk Road manuscripts
- C) Revolutionary delegates in Frankfurt in 1848
- D) Merchants negotiating customs duties in Surat

APWH-MCQ8-040

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 6 — Consequences of Industrialization

Period: c. 1750–1900

Theme: CDI — Cultural Developments and Interactions

Skill: Making Connections / Historical Reasoning

Prompt:

Described French colonial school poster, Indochina, c. 1905: “A teacher points to a map of France while Vietnamese children sit at desks beneath a sign reading ‘Work, Obedience, Progress.’ Outside the school window, a village elder watches from a distance.” The poster most directly reflects which broader process?

- A) The use of education to impose imperial cultural values and create colonial intermediaries
- B) The disappearance of all resistance to colonial rule
- C) The replacement of schools by plantation labor in Southeast Asia
- D) The end of European cultural influence in Asia before 1900

- A) The use of education to impose imperial cultural values and create colonial intermediaries
- B) The disappearance of all resistance to colonial rule
- C) The replacement of schools by plantation labor in Southeast Asia
- D) The end of European cultural influence in Asia before 1900

APWH-MCQ8-041

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 7 — Global Conflict

Period: c. 1900–present

Theme: ENV — Humans and the Environment

Skill: Quantitative, Map, or Data Interpretation

Prompt:

Table: Influenza and wartime movement, simplified global pattern, 1918–1919

Context | Effect on disease spread

Troop camps and ships | Crowded conditions accelerated transmission

Colonial labor units and ports | Connected distant regions to outbreak zones

Postwar demobilization | Returned infected people to home communities

Which conclusion is best supported by the table?

A) Global conflict and mass movement helped spread epidemic disease.

B) Influenza spread only through isolated rural communities.

C) World War I prevented disease from crossing oceans.

D) Demobilization ended disease transmission immediately.

A) Global conflict and mass movement helped spread epidemic disease.

B) Influenza spread only through isolated rural communities.

C) World War I prevented disease from crossing oceans.

D) Demobilization ended disease transmission immediately.

APWH-MCQ8-042

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 7 — Global Conflict

Period: c. 1900–present

Theme: SIO — Social Interactions and Organization

Skill: Claims and Evidence in Sources

Prompt:

Table: Influenza and wartime movement, simplified global pattern, 1918–1919

Context | Effect on disease spread

Troop camps and ships | Crowded conditions accelerated transmission

Colonial labor units and ports | Connected distant regions to outbreak zones

Postwar demobilization | Returned infected people to home communities

Which evidence best supports the claim that imperial networks contributed to disease spread?

A) “Postwar demobilization”

B) “Troop camps and ships”

C) “Colonial labor units and ports”

D) “Crowded conditions”

A) “Postwar demobilization”

B) “Troop camps and ships”

C) “Colonial labor units and ports”

D) “Crowded conditions”

APWH-MCQ8-043

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 7 — Global Conflict

Period: c. 1900–present

Theme: TEC — Technology and Innovation

Skill: Making Connections / Historical Reasoning

Prompt:

Table: Influenza and wartime movement, simplified global pattern, 1918–1919

Context | Effect on disease spread

Troop camps and ships | Crowded conditions accelerated transmission
Colonial labor units and ports | Connected distant regions to outbreak zones
Postwar demobilization | Returned infected people to home communities
The table most directly illustrates which feature of early twentieth-century globalization?
A) Increased transportation networks could intensify the spread of both people and pathogens.
B) Modern transport eliminated epidemic disease.
C) Disease transmission became unrelated to warfare.
D) Colonial units avoided all contact with global transport systems.

A) Increased transportation networks could intensify the spread of both people and pathogens.
B) Modern transport eliminated epidemic disease.
C) Disease transmission became unrelated to warfare.
D) Colonial units avoided all contact with global transport systems.

APWH-MCQ8-044

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 7 — Global Conflict

Period: c. 1900–present

Theme: GOV — Governance

Skill: Visual / Material Culture Analysis

Prompt:

Described cartoon, Geneva, early 1930s: “A small figure labeled ‘Disarmament Conference’ tries to tie a knot around several giant cannons labeled ‘national pride,’ ‘fear,’ and ‘revenge.’ Diplomats applaud politely while arms manufacturers watch from the balcony.” Which interpretation is best supported by the cartoon?

A) Interwar disarmament efforts faced obstacles from nationalism, insecurity, and economic interests.
B) International conferences ended military competition before World War II.
C) Arms manufacturers opposed all military spending.
D) Interwar diplomacy had no relationship to nationalism.

A) Interwar disarmament efforts faced obstacles from nationalism, insecurity, and economic interests.
B) International conferences ended military competition before World War II.
C) Arms manufacturers opposed all military spending.
D) Interwar diplomacy had no relationship to nationalism.

APWH-MCQ8-045

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 7 — Global Conflict

Period: c. 1900–present

Theme: GOV — Governance

Skill: Argumentation / Claim-Evidence

Prompt:

Described cartoon, Geneva, early 1930s: “A small figure labeled ‘Disarmament Conference’ tries to tie a knot around several giant cannons labeled ‘national pride,’ ‘fear,’ and ‘revenge.’ Diplomats applaud politely while arms manufacturers watch from the balcony.” Which statement best evaluates the cartoon’s argument?

A) It claims that disarmament failed because citizens rejected nationalism completely.

- B) It suggests that polite diplomacy was too weak to overcome the forces driving rearmament.
- C) It argues that arms manufacturers had no interest in military policy.
- D) It shows that interwar governments had eliminated fear of war.

- A) It claims that disarmament failed because citizens rejected nationalism completely.
- B) It suggests that polite diplomacy was too weak to overcome the forces driving rearmament.
- C) It argues that arms manufacturers had no interest in military policy.
- D) It shows that interwar governments had eliminated fear of war.

APWH-MCQ8-046

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 8 — Cold War and Decolonization

Period: c. 1900–present

Theme: GOV — Governance

Skill: Sourcing and Situation

Prompt:

Originalized speech by Kwame Nkrumah, Ghana, 1957: “Our flag is raised, but the work of freedom begins now. Cocoa and gold must build schools and roads, not merely enrich distant companies. Africa’s liberty will be incomplete while any people remains ruled by another.” What was the most likely purpose of the speech?

- A) To reject independence in favor of restored colonial rule
- B) To define independence as political sovereignty, economic development, and pan-African solidarity
- C) To argue that resource wealth should remain under foreign companies
- D) To deny connections between Ghana and other African struggles

- A) To reject independence in favor of restored colonial rule
- B) To define independence as political sovereignty, economic development, and pan-African solidarity
- C) To argue that resource wealth should remain under foreign companies
- D) To deny connections between Ghana and other African struggles

APWH-MCQ8-047

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 8 — Cold War and Decolonization

Period: c. 1900–present

Theme: ECN — Economic Systems

Skill: Claims and Evidence in Sources

Prompt:

Originalized speech by Kwame Nkrumah, Ghana, 1957: “Our flag is raised, but the work of freedom begins now. Cocoa and gold must build schools and roads, not merely enrich distant companies. Africa’s liberty will be incomplete while any people remains ruled by another.” Which phrase best supports the claim that economic development was central to the speaker’s view of independence?

- A) “Our flag is raised”
- B) “The work of freedom begins now”
- C) “Cocoa and gold must build schools and roads”
- D) “Any people remains ruled”

- A) “Our flag is raised”
- B) “The work of freedom begins now”
- C) “Cocoa and gold must build schools and roads”
- D) “Any people remains ruled”

APWH-MCQ8-048

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 8 — Cold War and Decolonization

Period: c. 1900–present

Theme: CDI — Cultural Developments and Interactions

Skill: Contextualization

Prompt:

Originalized speech by Kwame Nkrumah, Ghana, 1957: “Our flag is raised, but the work of freedom begins now. Cocoa and gold must build schools and roads, not merely enrich distant companies. Africa’s liberty will be incomplete while any people remains ruled by another.” Which broader context best explains the speech?

- A) The spread of African decolonization and pan-African political ideas after World War II
- B) The restoration of European empires without resistance after 1945
- C) The decline of all nationalist movements in Africa after independence
- D) The replacement of anticolonial activism by chartered companies

- A) The spread of African decolonization and pan-African political ideas after World War II
- B) The restoration of European empires without resistance after 1945
- C) The decline of all nationalist movements in Africa after independence
- D) The replacement of anticolonial activism by chartered companies

APWH-MCQ8-049

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 8 — Cold War and Decolonization

Period: c. 1900–present

Theme: SIO — Social Interactions and Organization

Skill: Visual / Material Culture Analysis

Prompt:

Described anti-apartheid poster, South Africa, 1980s: “A Black student raises a book in one hand and a broken passbook in the other. Behind the student, factory workers and church leaders march beneath a banner reading ‘Education, Work, Freedom.’ Police vehicles appear at the edge of the poster.” Which interpretation is best supported by the poster?

- A) Anti-apartheid activism linked education, labor, religious groups, and resistance to pass laws.
- B) Apartheid policies expanded equal citizenship for all South Africans.
- C) Anti-apartheid activism avoided mass organizing.
- D) The poster supports police enforcement of racial segregation.

- A) Anti-apartheid activism linked education, labor, religious groups, and resistance to pass laws.
- B) Apartheid policies expanded equal citizenship for all South Africans.
- C) Anti-apartheid activism avoided mass organizing.
- D) The poster supports police enforcement of racial segregation.

APWH-MCQ8-050

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 8 — Cold War and Decolonization

Period: c. 1900–present

Theme: GOV — Governance

Skill: Making Connections / Historical Reasoning

Prompt:

Described anti-apartheid poster, South Africa, 1980s: “A Black student raises a book in one hand and a broken passbook in the other. Behind the student, factory workers and church leaders march beneath a banner reading ‘Education, Work, Freedom.’ Police vehicles appear at the edge of the poster.” The poster most directly reflects which broader late twentieth-century process?

A) The global decline of human-rights activism

B) The growth of domestic and international movements against racial segregation and minority rule

C) The spread of colonial pass laws to every independent state

D) The disappearance of student politics after 1945

A) The global decline of human-rights activism

B) The growth of domestic and international movements against racial segregation and minority rule

C) The spread of colonial pass laws to every independent state

D) The disappearance of student politics after 1945

APWH-MCQ8-051

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 9 — Globalization

Period: c. 1900–present

Theme: ENV — Humans and the Environment

Skill: Quantitative, Map, or Data Interpretation

Prompt:

Table: Global plastic production and waste, simplified pattern

Indicator | c. 1970 | c. 2020

Annual plastic production | Tens of millions of tons | Hundreds of millions of tons

Single-use packaging | Expanding | Widespread in global retail

Plastic waste in waterways | Reported locally | Reported across many ocean basins

Which conclusion is best supported by the table?

A) Plastic production and waste became a global environmental issue tied to consumer markets.

B) Plastic waste disappeared as production increased.

C) Plastic production remained limited to one region after 1970.

D) Single-use packaging declined before global retail expanded.

A) Plastic production and waste became a global environmental issue tied to consumer markets.

B) Plastic waste disappeared as production increased.

C) Plastic production remained limited to one region after 1970.

D) Single-use packaging declined before global retail expanded.

APWH-MCQ8-052

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 9 — Globalization

Period: c. 1900–present

Theme: ECN — Economic Systems

Skill: Claims and Evidence in Sources

Prompt:

Table: Global plastic production and waste, simplified pattern

Indicator | c. 1970 | c. 2020

Annual plastic production | Tens of millions of tons | Hundreds of millions of tons

Single-use packaging | Expanding | Widespread in global retail

Plastic waste in waterways | Reported locally | Reported across many ocean basins

Which evidence best supports the claim that consumer markets contributed to plastic waste?

A) “Reported locally”

B) “Tens of millions of tons”

C) “Single-use packaging”

D) “Ocean basins”

A) “Reported locally”

B) “Tens of millions of tons”

C) “Single-use packaging”

D) “Ocean basins”

APWH-MCQ8-053

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 9 — Globalization

Period: c. 1900–present

Theme: GOV — Governance

Skill: Sourcing and Situation

Prompt:

Originalized statement by an international environmental coalition, c. 2022: “A bottle used for minutes may travel across borders as waste for decades. Producers, governments, and consumers must be accountable, for the ocean does not sort pollution by flag.” What was the most likely purpose of the statement?

A) To argue that plastic pollution is a shared transnational problem requiring coordinated action

B) To deny that consumer behavior affects the environment

C) To promote unrestricted dumping of plastic waste

D) To return environmental policy to colonial governments

A) To argue that plastic pollution is a shared transnational problem requiring coordinated action

B) To deny that consumer behavior affects the environment

C) To promote unrestricted dumping of plastic waste

D) To return environmental policy to colonial governments

APWH-MCQ8-054

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 9 — Globalization

Period: c. 1900–present

Theme: SIO — Social Interactions and Organization

Skill: Argumentation / Claim-Evidence

Prompt:

Originalized statement by an international environmental coalition, c. 2022: “A bottle used for minutes may travel across borders as waste for decades. Producers, governments, and consumers must be accountable, for the ocean does not sort pollution by flag.” Which statement best evaluates the coalition’s argument?

- A) It treats pollution as a purely local issue with no global connections.
- B) It argues that responsibility for plastic pollution crosses national, corporate, and consumer boundaries.
- C) It claims that oceans prevent waste from moving internationally.
- D) It rejects public accountability for environmental problems.

- A) It treats pollution as a purely local issue with no global connections.
- B) It argues that responsibility for plastic pollution crosses national, corporate, and consumer boundaries.
- C) It claims that oceans prevent waste from moving internationally.
- D) It rejects public accountability for environmental problems.

APWH-MCQ8-055

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 9 — Globalization

Period: c. 1900–present

Theme: CDI — Cultural Developments and Interactions

Skill: Making Connections / Historical Reasoning

Prompt:

Originalized statement by an international environmental coalition, c. 2022: “A bottle used for minutes may travel across borders as waste for decades. Producers, governments, and consumers must be accountable, for the ocean does not sort pollution by flag.” The statement most directly reflects which broader feature of globalization?

- A) Environmental activism increasingly frames consumption, production, and waste as interconnected global issues.
- B) Global consumer culture eliminated environmental criticism.
- C) International organizations ended all marine pollution by 2000.
- D) Waste became disconnected from trade after 1970.

- A) Environmental activism increasingly frames consumption, production, and waste as interconnected global issues.
- B) Global consumer culture eliminated environmental criticism.
- C) International organizations ended all marine pollution by 2000.
- D) Waste became disconnected from trade after 1970.

PART B — ANSWER KEY + EXPLANATIONS

APWH-MCQ8-001 — Correct: C — Correct Answer: To present the ruler as a sacred and political figure connected to urban prosperity — Explanation: The praise text links the oni to sacred space, market roads, artisans, priests, and traders.

APWH-MCQ8-002 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: “The sacred grove meets the market road” — Explanation: This phrase connects sacred geography with the ruler’s urban and political setting.

APWH-MCQ8-003 — Correct: D — Correct Answer: A naturalistic metal head representing royal authority — Explanation: Ife is known for sophisticated metal portraiture associated with royal and elite authority.

APWH-MCQ8-004 — Correct: B — Correct Answer: The interaction of rulers, priests, artisans, and merchants in an urban center — Explanation: The text describes the oni, priests, bronze workers, traders, and the city gates.

APWH-MCQ8-005 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: Swahili city-states combined local African cultures, Islamic influence, and coastal commerce. — Explanation: Kilwa's mosques, local coinage, rulers, and Swahili-speaking population show local and Islamic coastal urban culture.

APWH-MCQ8-006 — Correct: D — Correct Answer: "Stone mosques" — Explanation: Stone mosques most directly show Islamic influence in coastal urban life.

APWH-MCQ8-007 — Correct: B — Correct Answer: The use of local political authority to support regional and oceanic commerce — Explanation: Coinage bearing local rulers' names reflects political authority connected to commerce.

APWH-MCQ8-008 — Correct: B — Correct Answer: The creation of societies combining local identities with wider Islamic commercial culture — Explanation: Kilwa combined Swahili language and local rule with Islamic status and Indian Ocean commerce.

APWH-MCQ8-009 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: Black Sea routes linked Eurasian frontier zones to Mediterranean commercial networks. — Explanation: The map shows Crimea, Constantinople, Trebizond, Italian colonies, and commodities moving into Mediterranean markets.

APWH-MCQ8-010 — Correct: B — Correct Answer: Merchants and officials organizing port duties, convoy routes, and commercial privileges — Explanation: The map would be useful to people coordinating maritime trade, taxes, and privileges.

APWH-MCQ8-011 — Correct: D — Correct Answer: To coordinate military defense, revenue collection, and court legitimacy — Explanation: The decree covers forts, gunpowder, horse duties, city gates, poetry, and sultanic justice.

APWH-MCQ8-012 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: "Store grain and gunpowder" — Explanation: Gunpowder storage directly shows military technology shaping policy.

APWH-MCQ8-013 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: The Deccan courts blended Persianate literary traditions with regional South Asian languages. — Explanation: Persian and Dakhani verse together show cultural blending in Deccan court culture.

APWH-MCQ8-014 — Correct: B — Correct Answer: The role of overseas and regional trade in supplying military needs — Explanation: Horse dealers from the western sea show maritime and regional trade supporting cavalry warfare.

APWH-MCQ8-015 — Correct: B — Correct Answer: Mainland Southeast Asian empires expanded by combining inland routes, fortified centers, and control over agrarian zones. — Explanation: The map shows fortified centers, river valleys, upland routes, rice plains, and port-linked regions.

APWH-MCQ8-016 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: Arrows marking campaigns toward rice plains and port-linked regions — Explanation: These arrows directly connect military campaigns with economically valuable regions.

APWH-MCQ8-017 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: Mainland empires could link warfare, geography, and agrarian production in state-building. — Explanation: The map links campaigns, river valleys, forts, rice plains, and port-linked areas.

APWH-MCQ8-018 — Correct: B — Correct Answer: To report the practical challenges of trading within an established Asian commercial system — Explanation: The letter mentions local customs, warehouse leases, gifts, Gujarati brokers, and London factors.

APWH-MCQ8-019 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: “The local governor demands customs” — Explanation: This phrase shows local political authority regulating European trade.

APWH-MCQ8-020 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: Indian Ocean trade involved experienced local merchant communities before European companies arrived. — Explanation: Gujarati brokers’ knowledge of buyers reflects established local commercial networks.

APWH-MCQ8-021 — Correct: B — Correct Answer: European companies relied on local officials, leases, brokers, and established markets to operate in Asian ports. — Explanation: The letter shows European dependence on local political and commercial systems.

APWH-MCQ8-022 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: The Mapuche maintained resistance and frontier diplomacy against Spanish expansion. — Explanation: The map shows Spanish towns, Mapuche-controlled territories, forts, raids, negotiations, and prisoner exchanges.

APWH-MCQ8-023 — Correct: C — Correct Answer: Arrows marking raids, negotiations, and prisoner exchanges — Explanation: These arrows directly show both conflict and diplomacy.

APWH-MCQ8-024 — Correct: B — Correct Answer: Frontier zones could involve prolonged Indigenous resistance, adaptation, and negotiated boundaries. — Explanation: The Biobío frontier shows long-term resistance and negotiation rather than immediate conquest.

APWH-MCQ8-025 — Correct: B — Correct Answer: Delegates and readers debating constitutional nationalism in German lands — Explanation: The speech addresses parliament, rights, censorship, citizenship, nationhood, and princes.

APWH-MCQ8-026 — Correct: B — Correct Answer: “Parliament write rights into law” — Explanation: The phrase directly links constitutional institutions to rights.

APWH-MCQ8-027 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: The spread of liberal and nationalist movements during the revolutions of 1848 — Explanation: The speech reflects the 1848 wave of liberal nationalism and constitutional demands.

APWH-MCQ8-028 — Correct: B — Correct Answer: The speaker argues that national unity, constitutional government, and civil rights should reinforce one another. — Explanation: The speaker connects unity, parliament, rights, censorship, citizenship, and opposition to princely rule.

APWH-MCQ8-029 — Correct: C — Correct Answer: To mobilize support for independence by linking nationalism and abolition — Explanation: The proclamation links Cuban national freedom to ending slavery and broadening liberty.

APWH-MCQ8-030 — Correct: C — Correct Answer: “Liberty is not reserved for those born white or wealthy” — Explanation: This phrase directly challenges racial and class hierarchy.

APWH-MCQ8-031 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: Chattel slavery in a plantation economy — Explanation: The reference to people laboring in chains in Cuba points to plantation slavery.

APWH-MCQ8-032 — Correct: D — Correct Answer: It argues that national freedom must include emancipation and a broader definition of citizenship. — Explanation: The proclamation defines independence as incompatible with slavery and racial exclusion.

APWH-MCQ8-033 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: Treaty arrangements expanded foreign commercial access and weakened Qing control over trade policy. — Explanation: More treaty ports, limited tariff control, and foreign residence show restricted Qing sovereignty.

APWH-MCQ8-034 — Correct: B — Correct Answer: “Limited by treaty agreements” — Explanation: Limitation of tariff control directly shows restricted sovereignty.

APWH-MCQ8-035 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: European states and merchants used industrial-era military and naval power to force commercial concessions. — Explanation: The treaty-port system followed military defeat and unequal treaties.

APWH-MCQ8-036 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: Imperialism could operate through unequal treaties and commercial privileges rather than direct annexation alone. — Explanation: The table shows commercial access and legal limitations without full territorial annexation.

APWH-MCQ8-037 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: Colonial education was presented as a tool of cultural assimilation and social discipline. — Explanation: The poster’s school, map of France, obedience slogan, and colonial setting show assimilationist education.

APWH-MCQ8-038 — Correct: C — Correct Answer: “Work, Obedience, Progress” — Explanation: The slogan explicitly promotes obedience and colonial discipline.

APWH-MCQ8-039 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: Colonial officials, settlers, and metropolitan viewers who supported a “civilizing mission” — Explanation: The poster would appeal to viewers who saw colonial schooling as proof of imperial progress.

APWH-MCQ8-040 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: The use of education to impose imperial cultural values and create colonial intermediaries — Explanation: The poster shows colonial schooling as a tool for cultural and administrative control.

APWH-MCQ8-041 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: Global conflict and mass movement helped spread epidemic disease. — Explanation: Troop camps, ships, colonial labor units, ports, and demobilization all facilitated transmission.

APWH-MCQ8-042 — Correct: C — Correct Answer: “Colonial labor units and ports” — Explanation: These show imperial networks linking distant regions to outbreaks.

APWH-MCQ8-043 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: Increased transportation networks could intensify the spread of both people and pathogens. — Explanation: Ships, ports, troop movements, and demobilization moved both people and disease.

APWH-MCQ8-044 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: Interwar disarmament efforts faced obstacles from nationalism, insecurity, and economic interests. — Explanation: Cannons labeled pride, fear, and revenge, along with arms manufacturers, show obstacles to disarmament.

APWH-MCQ8-045 — Correct: B — Correct Answer: It suggests that polite diplomacy was too weak to overcome the forces driving rearmament. — Explanation: The small conference figure and giant cannons imply weak diplomacy facing powerful militarizing forces.

APWH-MCQ8-046 — Correct: B — Correct Answer: To define independence as political sovereignty, economic development, and pan-African solidarity — Explanation: Nkrumah links the flag to development, resource use, schools, roads, and African liberation.

APWH-MCQ8-047 — Correct: C — Correct Answer: “Cocoa and gold must build schools and roads” — Explanation: This phrase links natural resources to national development.

APWH-MCQ8-048 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: The spread of African decolonization and pan-African political ideas after World War II — Explanation: The speech connects Ghanaian independence with wider African liberation.

APWH-MCQ8-049 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: Anti-apartheid activism linked education, labor, religious groups, and resistance to pass laws. — Explanation: The poster includes a student, workers, church leaders, broken passbook, and freedom slogan.

APWH-MCQ8-050 — Correct: B — Correct Answer: The growth of domestic and international movements against racial segregation and minority rule — Explanation: The poster reflects broad anti-apartheid mobilization against pass laws and state repression.

APWH-MCQ8-051 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: Plastic production and waste became a global environmental issue tied to consumer markets. — Explanation: The table shows rising production, single-use packaging, and waste across many ocean basins.

APWH-MCQ8-052 — Correct: C — Correct Answer: “Single-use packaging” — Explanation: Single-use packaging directly connects consumer markets to plastic waste.

APWH-MCQ8-053 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: To argue that plastic pollution is a shared transnational problem requiring coordinated action — Explanation: The statement stresses cross-border waste, producers, governments, consumers, and ocean pollution.

APWH-MCQ8-054 — Correct: B — Correct Answer: It argues that responsibility for plastic pollution crosses national, corporate, and consumer boundaries. — Explanation: The coalition assigns accountability to producers, governments, and consumers and rejects national boundaries as adequate.

APWH-MCQ8-055 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: Environmental activism increasingly frames consumption, production, and waste as interconnected global issues. — Explanation: The statement links consumer use, international waste movement, oceans, and shared accountability.

SECTION 2 — SERIES DO-NOT-REPEAT BANK UPDATE — DO NOT IMPORT

SERIES DO-NOT-REPEAT BANK UPDATE — APWH-MCQ8

· APWH-MCQ8-001–004: Unit 1; c. 1200–1450; Ife/Yoruba West Africa; original oral praise text; oni, sacred grove, market road, bronze workers, priests, beads, cloth, city gates; reasoning paths include purpose, religion-politics evidence, material culture of metal portraiture, social specialization; source type: oral praise text/material culture context; misconception targeted:

treating West African urban societies as lacking sacred kingship, specialized artisans, or political art.

- APWH-MCQ8-005–008: Units 1 and 2; c. 1200–1450; Kilwa/Swahili coast/East Africa; secondary-source description; stone mosques, coral houses, local coinage, Islamic status, Swahili-speaking population; reasoning paths include urban-state contextualization, Islamic cultural evidence, coinage and commerce, local-Islamic commercial synthesis; source type: archaeological/urban description; misconception targeted: treating Swahili cities as either purely foreign or isolated from Indian Ocean Islamic commerce.

- APWH-MCQ8-009–010: Unit 2; c. 1200–1450; Black Sea, Crimea, Constantinople, Trebizond, Italian colonies; described trade map; grain, wax, furs, enslaved people, port routes to Mediterranean markets; reasoning paths include map interpretation and audience for commercial navigation/port privileges; map type: Black Sea commodity-route map; misconception targeted: ignoring Black Sea connections in Afro-Eurasian exchange or assuming Italian merchants stayed only in the western Mediterranean.

- APWH-MCQ8-011–014: Unit 3; c. 1450–1750; Deccan Sultanate of Bijapur/South Asia; original decree; forts, grain, gunpowder, dry season, horse dealers from western sea, trade duties, Persian and Dakhani verse; reasoning paths include purpose, military technology evidence, Persianate-regional court culture, maritime supply of cavalry needs; source type: state decree; misconception targeted: separating Deccan land-based state power from maritime trade and courtly cultural blending.

- APWH-MCQ8-015–017: Unit 3; c. 1450–1750; Toungoo Empire/mainland Southeast Asia; described expansion map; fortified centers, river valleys, forested uplands, campaigns toward rice plains and port-linked regions; reasoning paths include map interpretation, military-resource evidence, argument about warfare/geography/agrarian production; map type: inland empire expansion map; misconception targeted: assuming mainland Southeast Asian empires were disconnected from rice zones, uplands, and port-linked regions.

- APWH-MCQ8-018–021: Unit 4; c. 1450–1750; Surat/Gujarat/English East India Company; original company letter; local governor customs, warehouse lease, gifts, Gujarati brokers, London factors; reasoning paths include purpose, local authority evidence, Asian merchant context, argument about European dependence on local systems; source type: company commercial correspondence; misconception targeted: assuming European companies immediately dominated Asian trade without negotiation or local intermediaries.

- APWH-MCQ8-022–024: Unit 4; c. 1450–1750; Mapuche and Spanish frontier/southern Chile; described frontier map; Biobío River, Spanish towns, Mapuche-controlled territories, frontier forts, raids, negotiations, prisoner exchanges; reasoning paths include map interpretation, conflict-and-diplomacy evidence, Indigenous resistance and negotiated frontier pattern; map type: colonial frontier map; misconception targeted: assuming Indigenous autonomy disappeared immediately after European arrival.

- APWH-MCQ8-025–028: Unit 5; c. 1750–1900; German lands/Frankfurt 1848; original liberal nationalist speech; divided courts, parliament, rights, censorship, citizenship, princes; reasoning paths include audience, constitutional-rights evidence, 1848 context, argument connecting nationalism and liberalism; source type: revolutionary political speech; misconception targeted: treating nationalism and liberal constitutionalism as unrelated.

- APWH-MCQ8-029–032: Unit 5; c. 1750–1900; Cuba/Caribbean; original rebel proclamation; independence, slavery, planters, free people of color, enslaved workers, racial and class liberty; reasoning paths include purpose, racial hierarchy evidence, slavery-plantation economy connection, emancipation and citizenship argument; source type: independence/abolition proclamation; misconception targeted: separating Caribbean nationalism from abolition and racial citizenship debates.

- APWH-MCQ8-033–036: Unit 6; c. 1750–1900; Qing China/treaty ports; treaty-port trade table; multiple treaty ports, limited tariff control, foreign residence districts, unequal treaties after the First Opium War; reasoning paths include data interpretation, sovereignty restriction evidence, industrial-era military/naval context, informal imperialism argument; table type: treaty-port policy table; misconception targeted: treating imperialism only as direct annexation or assuming Qing commercial sovereignty was strengthened.

- APWH-MCQ8-037–040: Unit 6; c. 1750–1900; French Indochina/Vietnam; described colonial school poster; teacher, map of France, Vietnamese children, “Work, Obedience, Progress,” village elder; reasoning paths include visual analysis, obedience evidence, audience, education as cultural imperialism and intermediary training; visual type: colonial school propaganda poster; misconception targeted: treating colonial education as neutral or unrelated to assimilation and imperial governance.

- APWH-MCQ8-041–043: Unit 7; c. 1900–present; World War I and 1918 influenza; disease-spread table; troop camps, ships, colonial labor units, ports, demobilization, home communities; reasoning paths include quantitative/data interpretation, imperial network evidence, transport-pathogen globalization; table type: wartime movement and epidemic transmission table; misconception targeted: separating war mobilization from global disease transmission.

- APWH-MCQ8-044–045: Unit 7; c. 1900–present; Geneva/interwar disarmament; described political cartoon; Disarmament Conference, giant cannons labeled national pride/fear/revenge, diplomats, arms manufacturers; reasoning paths include visual interpretation and argument evaluation about weak diplomacy versus rearmament pressures; visual type: interwar disarmament cartoon; misconception targeted: assuming interwar conferences solved militarism or that nationalism and arms interests were irrelevant.

- APWH-MCQ8-046–048: Unit 8; c. 1900–present; Ghana/West Africa; original Nkrumah independence speech; flag, cocoa, gold, schools, roads, distant companies, African liberty; reasoning paths include purpose, economic development evidence, pan-African decolonization context; source type: independence speech; misconception targeted: treating independence as only symbolic or disconnected from resource development and pan-Africanism.

- APWH-MCQ8-049–050: Unit 8; c. 1900–present; South Africa/anti-apartheid movement; described poster; Black student, book, broken passbook, workers, church leaders, “Education, Work, Freedom,” police vehicles; reasoning paths include visual interpretation and human-rights/anti-segregation movement connection; visual type: anti-apartheid poster; misconception targeted: assuming anti-apartheid activism was narrow, non-mass-based, or unrelated to education and labor.

- APWH-MCQ8-051–055: Unit 9; c. 1900–present; global plastic production and waste; plastic production/waste table plus original environmental coalition statement; single-use packaging, global retail, waterways, ocean basins, cross-border waste, producer/government/consumer accountability; reasoning paths include data interpretation, consumer-market evidence, purpose, argument evaluation, environmental activism and globalization; table/source type: plastic waste data and NGO-style statement; misconception targeted: treating pollution as local-only or disconnected from global consumption and production systems.