

SECTION 1 — IMPORT-READY SOURCE FILE

AP World History: Modern MCQ Practice Exam 9

PART A — QUESTIONS

APWH-MCQ9-001

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 1 — The Global Tapestry

Period: c. 1200–1450

Theme: GOV — Governance

Skill: Sourcing and Situation

Prompt:

Originalized temple inscription, Bagan, Myanmar, c. 1220: “The king grants rice fields and palm groves to support the monastery. Scribes record the boundaries, monks chant blessings for the realm, and village headmen must keep the irrigation channels clear.” What was the most likely purpose of the inscription?

- A) To promote the end of Buddhist monastic influence
 - B) To present the ruler as a patron of religion, agriculture, and local order
 - C) To announce the replacement of agrarian taxation by factory wages
 - D) To argue that Bagan had no written administration
- A) To promote the end of Buddhist monastic influence
 - B) To present the ruler as a patron of religion, agriculture, and local order
 - C) To announce the replacement of agrarian taxation by factory wages
 - D) To argue that Bagan had no written administration

APWH-MCQ9-002

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 1 — The Global Tapestry

Period: c. 1200–1450

Theme: CDI — Cultural Developments and Interactions

Skill: Claims and Evidence in Sources

Prompt:

Originalized temple inscription, Bagan, Myanmar, c. 1220: “The king grants rice fields and palm groves to support the monastery. Scribes record the boundaries, monks chant blessings for the realm, and village headmen must keep the irrigation channels clear.” Which phrase best supports the claim that Buddhist institutions helped legitimize rule?

- A) “Monks chant blessings for the realm”
 - B) “Village headmen”
 - C) “Irrigation channels”
 - D) “Record the boundaries”
- A) “Monks chant blessings for the realm”
 - B) “Village headmen”
 - C) “Irrigation channels”
 - D) “Record the boundaries”

APWH-MCQ9-003

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 1 — The Global Tapestry

Period: c. 1200–1450

Theme: ENV — Humans and the Environment

Skill: Contextualization

Prompt:

Originalized temple inscription, Bagan, Myanmar, c. 1220: “The king grants rice fields and palm groves to support the monastery. Scribes record the boundaries, monks chant blessings for the realm, and village headmen must keep the irrigation channels clear.” Which broader context best explains the reference to irrigation channels?

- A) Mainland Southeast Asian states often depended on water management for rice agriculture.
 - B) Bagan’s rulers abandoned farming after 1200.
 - C) Irrigation was used only in Atlantic plantation colonies.
 - D) Southeast Asia lacked organized village agriculture.
- A) Mainland Southeast Asian states often depended on water management for rice agriculture.
 - B) Bagan’s rulers abandoned farming after 1200.
 - C) Irrigation was used only in Atlantic plantation colonies.
 - D) Southeast Asia lacked organized village agriculture.

APWH-MCQ9-004

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 1 — The Global Tapestry

Period: c. 1200–1450

Theme: SIO — Social Interactions and Organization

Skill: Making Connections / Historical Reasoning

Prompt:

Originalized temple inscription, Bagan, Myanmar, c. 1220: “The king grants rice fields and palm groves to support the monastery. Scribes record the boundaries, monks chant blessings for the realm, and village headmen must keep the irrigation channels clear.” The inscription most directly suggests which social arrangement?

- A) A society without religious specialists or local leaders
 - B) A political order linking ruler, monks, scribes, village headmen, and cultivators
 - C) A merchant republic independent of religious authority
 - D) A nomadic confederation without settled agriculture
- A) A society without religious specialists or local leaders
 - B) A political order linking ruler, monks, scribes, village headmen, and cultivators
 - C) A merchant republic independent of religious authority
 - D) A nomadic confederation without settled agriculture

APWH-MCQ9-005

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 1 — The Global Tapestry

Period: c. 1200–1450

Theme: ENV — Humans and the Environment

Skill: Visual / Material Culture Analysis

Prompt:

Secondary-source description of Norse settlements in Greenland, c. 1200–1400: “Stone farm buildings, church ruins, cattle byres, and imported European objects appear alongside evidence of shortened growing seasons, dependence on hay, and limited adaptation to Arctic marine resources.” Which interpretation is best supported by the description?

- A) Norse Greenlanders adapted perfectly to Arctic conditions without difficulty.
- B) Norse settlements combined European cultural practices with environmental vulnerability in the North Atlantic.
- C) Greenland settlements were founded by industrial fishing companies.
- D) Norse Greenland had no connection to Europe after settlement.
- A) Norse Greenlanders adapted perfectly to Arctic conditions without difficulty.
- B) Norse settlements combined European cultural practices with environmental vulnerability in the North Atlantic.
- C) Greenland settlements were founded by industrial fishing companies.
- D) Norse Greenland had no connection to Europe after settlement.

APWH-MCQ9-006

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 2 — Networks of Exchange

Period: c. 1200–1450

Theme: ECN — Economic Systems

Skill: Claims and Evidence in Sources

Prompt:

Secondary-source description of Norse settlements in Greenland, c. 1200–1400: “Stone farm buildings, church ruins, cattle byres, and imported European objects appear alongside evidence of shortened growing seasons, dependence on hay, and limited adaptation to Arctic marine resources.” Which evidence best supports the claim that Greenland settlements remained connected to wider exchange networks?

- A) “Imported European objects”
- B) “Cattle byres”
- C) “Shortened growing seasons”
- D) “Arctic marine resources”
- A) “Imported European objects”
- B) “Cattle byres”
- C) “Shortened growing seasons”
- D) “Arctic marine resources”

APWH-MCQ9-007

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 2 — Networks of Exchange

Period: c. 1200–1450

Theme: ENV — Humans and the Environment

Skill: Making Connections / Historical Reasoning

Prompt:

Secondary-source description of Norse settlements in Greenland, c. 1200–1400: “Stone farm buildings, church ruins, cattle byres, and imported European objects appear alongside evidence of shortened growing seasons, dependence on hay, and limited adaptation to Arctic marine resources.” The settlement pattern most directly illustrates which broader relationship?

- A) Long-distance settlement could be limited by environmental conditions and subsistence choices.
- B) Trade networks eliminated all environmental constraints.
- C) Arctic regions were easier for agrarian settlement than temperate regions.
- D) Imported goods always guaranteed political stability.
- A) Long-distance settlement could be limited by environmental conditions and subsistence choices.
- B) Trade networks eliminated all environmental constraints.

- C) Arctic regions were easier for agrarian settlement than temperate regions.
- D) Imported goods always guaranteed political stability.

APWH-MCQ9-008

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 2 — Networks of Exchange

Period: c. 1200–1450

Theme: CDI — Cultural Developments and Interactions

Skill: Contextualization

Prompt:

Secondary-source description of Norse settlements in Greenland, c. 1200–1400: “Stone farm buildings, church ruins, cattle byres, and imported European objects appear alongside evidence of shortened growing seasons, dependence on hay, and limited adaptation to Arctic marine resources.” Which broader cultural context best explains the presence of church ruins?

- A) Norse settlers brought Christian institutions and European cultural practices into North Atlantic communities.
- B) Buddhism became the main religion of Greenland before 1450.
- C) Greenland settlements rejected all connections to European identity.
- D) Christian institutions appeared in Greenland only after 1900.
- A) Norse settlers brought Christian institutions and European cultural practices into North Atlantic communities.
- B) Buddhism became the main religion of Greenland before 1450.
- C) Greenland settlements rejected all connections to European identity.
- D) Christian institutions appeared in Greenland only after 1900.

APWH-MCQ9-009

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 2 — Networks of Exchange

Period: c. 1200–1450

Theme: CDI — Cultural Developments and Interactions

Skill: Sourcing and Situation

Prompt:

Originalized travel account from the Maldives, c. 1350: “The islanders follow Muslim judges, yet women move freely in the markets and ships arrive with rice from India, cloth from the west, and cowrie shells gathered for export. The ruler honors the qadi when merchants dispute contracts.” Which audience would most likely have found this account useful?

- A) Merchants, scholars, and officials interested in Indian Ocean island societies
- B) Factory inspectors regulating industrial labor
- C) Spanish officials governing Andean mining districts
- D) Cold War generals planning proxy conflicts
- A) Merchants, scholars, and officials interested in Indian Ocean island societies
- B) Factory inspectors regulating industrial labor
- C) Spanish officials governing Andean mining districts
- D) Cold War generals planning proxy conflicts

APWH-MCQ9-010

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 2 — Networks of Exchange

Period: c. 1200–1450

Theme: ECN — Economic Systems

Skill: Claims and Evidence in Sources

Prompt:

Originalized travel account from the Maldives, c. 1350: “The islanders follow Muslim judges, yet women move freely in the markets and ships arrive with rice from India, cloth from the west, and cowrie shells gathered for export. The ruler honors the qadi when merchants dispute contracts.” Which phrase best supports the claim that the Maldives participated in regional exchange?

- A) “Women move freely”
- B) “Muslim judges”
- C) “Cowrie shells gathered for export”
- D) “The ruler honors the qadi”
- A) “Women move freely”
- B) “Muslim judges”
- C) “Cowrie shells gathered for export”
- D) “The ruler honors the qadi”

APWH-MCQ9-011

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 3 — Land-Based Empires

Period: c. 1450–1750

Theme: GOV — Governance

Skill: Sourcing and Situation

Prompt:

Originalized Durrani Afghan royal order, c. 1760: “The chiefs shall bring horsemen when summoned, and the tax farmers shall send revenue from Kandahar and Kabul to the royal camp. Tribal honor is respected, but no road toll may be taken without the shah’s seal.” What was the most likely purpose of the order?

- A) To abolish tribal authority throughout Afghanistan
- B) To coordinate tribal military service, taxation, and royal authority
- C) To replace cavalry with industrial rail transport
- D) To end all trade through Afghan routes
- A) To abolish tribal authority throughout Afghanistan
- B) To coordinate tribal military service, taxation, and royal authority
- C) To replace cavalry with industrial rail transport
- D) To end all trade through Afghan routes

APWH-MCQ9-012

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 3 — Land-Based Empires

Period: c. 1450–1750

Theme: SIO — Social Interactions and Organization

Skill: Claims and Evidence in Sources

Prompt:

Originalized Durrani Afghan royal order, c. 1760: “The chiefs shall bring horsemen when summoned, and the tax farmers shall send revenue from Kandahar and Kabul to the royal camp. Tribal honor is respected, but no road toll may be taken without the shah’s seal.” Which phrase best supports the claim that the ruler tried to limit local autonomy?

- A) “Chiefs shall bring horsemen”

- B) "Tribal honor is respected"
- C) "No road toll may be taken without the shah's seal"
- D) "Kandahar and Kabul"
- A) "Chiefs shall bring horsemen"
- B) "Tribal honor is respected"
- C) "No road toll may be taken without the shah's seal"
- D) "Kandahar and Kabul"

APWH-MCQ9-013

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 3 — Land-Based Empires

Period: c. 1450–1750

Theme: ECN — Economic Systems

Skill: Contextualization

Prompt:

Originalized Durrani Afghan royal order, c. 1760: "The chiefs shall bring horsemen when summoned, and the tax farmers shall send revenue from Kandahar and Kabul to the royal camp. Tribal honor is respected, but no road toll may be taken without the shah's seal." Which broader context best explains the importance of road tolls?

- A) Afghan rulers sought to control revenue from routes linking Central, South, and Southwest Asia.
- B) Afghanistan had no overland trade routes before 1900.
- C) Road tolls were a feature only of Atlantic maritime empires.
- D) Industrial factories replaced caravan routes by 1500.
- A) Afghan rulers sought to control revenue from routes linking Central, South, and Southwest Asia.
- B) Afghanistan had no overland trade routes before 1900.
- C) Road tolls were a feature only of Atlantic maritime empires.
- D) Industrial factories replaced caravan routes by 1500.

APWH-MCQ9-014

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 3 — Land-Based Empires

Period: c. 1450–1750

Theme: GOV — Governance

Skill: Argumentation / Claim-Evidence

Prompt:

Originalized Durrani Afghan royal order, c. 1760: "The chiefs shall bring horsemen when summoned, and the tax farmers shall send revenue from Kandahar and Kabul to the royal camp. Tribal honor is respected, but no road toll may be taken without the shah's seal." Which statement best evaluates the political system described?

- A) It depended on balancing tribal elites with attempts at royal centralization.
- B) It eliminated military obligations for regional chiefs.
- C) It rejected all taxation as illegitimate.
- D) It was a democratic republic based on universal suffrage.
- A) It depended on balancing tribal elites with attempts at royal centralization.
- B) It eliminated military obligations for regional chiefs.
- C) It rejected all taxation as illegitimate.
- D) It was a democratic republic based on universal suffrage.

APWH-MCQ9-015

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 3 — Land-Based Empires

Period: c. 1450–1750

Theme: GOV — Governance

Skill: Quantitative, Map, or Data Interpretation

Prompt:

Table: Polish-Lithuanian Commonwealth, simplified political pattern

Institution or group | Role

Elected king | Required noble consent for major decisions

Sejm | Noble assembly with legislative influence

Magnate families | Controlled large estates and private forces

Which conclusion is best supported by the table?

- A) The Commonwealth combined monarchy with powerful noble institutions.
 - B) The king ruled without elite constraints.
 - C) Peasants controlled the Sejm through universal suffrage.
 - D) Magnate families were excluded from politics.
- A) The Commonwealth combined monarchy with powerful noble institutions.
 - B) The king ruled without elite constraints.
 - C) Peasants controlled the Sejm through universal suffrage.
 - D) Magnate families were excluded from politics.

APWH-MCQ9-016

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 3 — Land-Based Empires

Period: c. 1450–1750

Theme: SIO — Social Interactions and Organization

Skill: Claims and Evidence in Sources

Prompt:

Table: Polish-Lithuanian Commonwealth, simplified political pattern

Institution or group | Role

Elected king | Required noble consent for major decisions

Sejm | Noble assembly with legislative influence

Magnate families | Controlled large estates and private forces

Which evidence best supports the claim that aristocratic elites limited royal power?

- A) “Elected king”
 - B) “Required noble consent for major decisions”
 - C) “Large estates”
 - D) “Private forces”
- A) “Elected king”
 - B) “Required noble consent for major decisions”
 - C) “Large estates”
 - D) “Private forces”

APWH-MCQ9-017

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 3 — Land-Based Empires

Period: c. 1450–1750

Theme: ECN — Economic Systems

Skill: Making Connections / Historical Reasoning

Prompt:

Table: Polish-Lithuanian Commonwealth, simplified political pattern

Institution or group | Role

Elected king | Required noble consent for major decisions

Sejm | Noble assembly with legislative influence

Magnate families | Controlled large estates and private forces

Which economic pattern most directly strengthened magnate power in this period?

A) Large grain estates worked by dependent peasants for export through Baltic routes

B) Oil concessions controlled by foreign companies

C) Cash-crop plantations in the Caribbean

D) Industrial steel production in state-owned factories

A) Large grain estates worked by dependent peasants for export through Baltic routes

B) Oil concessions controlled by foreign companies

C) Cash-crop plantations in the Caribbean

D) Industrial steel production in state-owned factories

APWH-MCQ9-018

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 4 — Transoceanic Interconnections

Period: c. 1450–1750

Theme: ECN — Economic Systems

Skill: Sourcing and Situation

Prompt:

Originalized Dutch report from Recife, Brazil, c. 1640: “The company’s profits depend on repairing sugar mills, securing credit for planters, and allowing merchants of several faiths to trade under protection. Enslaved laborers remain essential to the cane fields, while soldiers guard the harbor.”

What was the most likely purpose of the report?

A) To describe how company rule attempted to revive and protect a sugar-export economy

B) To abolish plantation agriculture in Brazil

C) To argue that enslaved labor was unnecessary in sugar production

D) To make Recife independent from Atlantic commerce

A) To describe how company rule attempted to revive and protect a sugar-export economy

B) To abolish plantation agriculture in Brazil

C) To argue that enslaved labor was unnecessary in sugar production

D) To make Recife independent from Atlantic commerce

APWH-MCQ9-019

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 4 — Transoceanic Interconnections

Period: c. 1450–1750

Theme: SIO — Social Interactions and Organization

Skill: Claims and Evidence in Sources

Prompt:

Originalized Dutch report from Recife, Brazil, c. 1640: “The company’s profits depend on repairing sugar mills, securing credit for planters, and allowing merchants of several faiths to trade under protection. Enslaved laborers remain essential to the cane fields, while soldiers guard the harbor.”

Which phrase best supports the claim that coercive labor remained central to the economy?

- A) “Repairing sugar mills”
- B) “Merchants of several faiths”
- C) “Enslaved laborers remain essential”
- D) “Soldiers guard the harbor”
- A) “Repairing sugar mills”
- B) “Merchants of several faiths”
- C) “Enslaved laborers remain essential”
- D) “Soldiers guard the harbor”

APWH-MCQ9-020

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 4 — Transoceanic Interconnections

Period: c. 1450–1750

Theme: CDI — Cultural Developments and Interactions

Skill: Contextualization

Prompt:

Originalized Dutch report from Recife, Brazil, c. 1640: “The company’s profits depend on repairing sugar mills, securing credit for planters, and allowing merchants of several faiths to trade under protection. Enslaved laborers remain essential to the cane fields, while soldiers guard the harbor.” Which broader context best explains the reference to “merchants of several faiths”?

- A) Atlantic port cities could include religiously diverse merchant communities tied to credit and trade.
- B) Brazil rejected all foreign merchants after 1600.
- C) Plantation colonies had no connection to finance.
- D) Religious diversity disappeared from Atlantic commerce.
- A) Atlantic port cities could include religiously diverse merchant communities tied to credit and trade.
- B) Brazil rejected all foreign merchants after 1600.
- C) Plantation colonies had no connection to finance.
- D) Religious diversity disappeared from Atlantic commerce.

APWH-MCQ9-021

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 4 — Transoceanic Interconnections

Period: c. 1450–1750

Theme: GOV — Governance

Skill: Argumentation / Claim-Evidence

Prompt:

Originalized Dutch report from Recife, Brazil, c. 1640: “The company’s profits depend on repairing sugar mills, securing credit for planters, and allowing merchants of several faiths to trade under protection. Enslaved laborers remain essential to the cane fields, while soldiers guard the harbor.” Which argument is best supported by the report?

- A) Chartered companies could combine military protection, credit systems, and plantation labor to pursue profits.
- B) Dutch Brazil was isolated from Atlantic commercial networks.
- C) Company rule ended the relationship between slavery and sugar.
- D) Religious tolerance had no possible connection to trade.
- A) Chartered companies could combine military protection, credit systems, and plantation labor to pursue profits.

- B) Dutch Brazil was isolated from Atlantic commercial networks.
- C) Company rule ended the relationship between slavery and sugar.
- D) Religious tolerance had no possible connection to trade.

APWH-MCQ9-022

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 4 — Transoceanic Interconnections

Period: c. 1450–1750

Theme: ENV — Humans and the Environment

Skill: Quantitative, Map, or Data Interpretation

Prompt:

Described map: “A map of the North Pacific c. 1740–1800 shows Russian posts in Kamchatka and Alaska, Aleut sea routes, sea otter hunting areas, and shipping paths carrying pelts toward Chinese markets.” Which conclusion is best supported by the map?

- A) North Pacific expansion connected fur extraction, Indigenous maritime knowledge, and Asian luxury markets.
- B) Russian expansion was limited to the Baltic Sea.
- C) Sea otter pelts had no role in Pacific commerce.
- D) Alaska was settled only after industrial steamships appeared.
- A) North Pacific expansion connected fur extraction, Indigenous maritime knowledge, and Asian luxury markets.
- B) Russian expansion was limited to the Baltic Sea.
- C) Sea otter pelts had no role in Pacific commerce.
- D) Alaska was settled only after industrial steamships appeared.

APWH-MCQ9-023

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 4 — Transoceanic Interconnections

Period: c. 1450–1750

Theme: SIO — Social Interactions and Organization

Skill: Claims and Evidence in Sources

Prompt:

Described map: “A map of the North Pacific c. 1740–1800 shows Russian posts in Kamchatka and Alaska, Aleut sea routes, sea otter hunting areas, and shipping paths carrying pelts toward Chinese markets.” Which feature best supports the claim that Indigenous knowledge shaped the trade?

- A) “Aleut sea routes”
- B) “Chinese markets”
- C) “Russian posts”
- D) “Pelts”
- A) “Aleut sea routes”
- B) “Chinese markets”
- C) “Russian posts”
- D) “Pelts”

APWH-MCQ9-024

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 4 — Transoceanic Interconnections

Period: c. 1450–1750

Theme: ECN — Economic Systems

Skill: Making Connections / Historical Reasoning

Prompt:

Described map: “A map of the North Pacific c. 1740–1800 shows Russian posts in Kamchatka and Alaska, Aleut sea routes, sea otter hunting areas, and shipping paths carrying pelts toward Chinese markets.” The pattern shown most directly illustrates which broader process?

- A) The creation of new transoceanic commodity chains outside the Atlantic world
 - B) The end of Asian demand for luxury goods
 - C) The disappearance of Indigenous labor from maritime economies
 - D) The isolation of Pacific trade from global markets
- A) The creation of new transoceanic commodity chains outside the Atlantic world
 - B) The end of Asian demand for luxury goods
 - C) The disappearance of Indigenous labor from maritime economies
 - D) The isolation of Pacific trade from global markets

APWH-MCQ9-025

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 5 — Revolutions

Period: c. 1750–1900

Theme: CDI — Cultural Developments and Interactions

Skill: Sourcing and Situation

Prompt:

Originalized speech by Giuseppe Mazzini, c. 1830s: “A nation is not a prince’s estate but a people joined by duty, memory, and liberty. Let young Italians educate, print, and organize so that the peninsula may rise from fragments into a free fatherland.” Which audience was the speech most likely intended to influence?

- A) Italian nationalists and reformers seeking unity and constitutional freedom
 - B) Portuguese naval commanders enforcing licenses in the Indian Ocean
 - C) Plantation owners seeking credit in Recife
 - D) Soviet planners relocating factories during World War II
- A) Italian nationalists and reformers seeking unity and constitutional freedom
 - B) Portuguese naval commanders enforcing licenses in the Indian Ocean
 - C) Plantation owners seeking credit in Recife
 - D) Soviet planners relocating factories during World War II

APWH-MCQ9-026

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 5 — Revolutions

Period: c. 1750–1900

Theme: GOV — Governance

Skill: Claims and Evidence in Sources

Prompt:

Originalized speech by Giuseppe Mazzini, c. 1830s: “A nation is not a prince’s estate but a people joined by duty, memory, and liberty. Let young Italians educate, print, and organize so that the peninsula may rise from fragments into a free fatherland.” Which phrase best supports the claim that the speaker rejected dynastic rule?

- A) “Educate, print, and organize”
- B) “The peninsula”
- C) “Not a prince’s estate”

- D) “Duty, memory, and liberty”
- A) “Educate, print, and organize”
- B) “The peninsula”
- C) “Not a prince’s estate”
- D) “Duty, memory, and liberty”

APWH-MCQ9-027

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 5 — Revolutions

Period: c. 1750–1900

Theme: TEC — Technology and Innovation

Skill: Making Connections / Historical Reasoning

Prompt:

Originalized speech by Giuseppe Mazzini, c. 1830s: “A nation is not a prince’s estate but a people joined by duty, memory, and liberty. Let young Italians educate, print, and organize so that the peninsula may rise from fragments into a free fatherland.” The reference to “print” most directly connects nationalism to which development?

- A) The spread of newspapers, pamphlets, and literacy that helped circulate political ideas
- B) The decline of public political communication after 1800
- C) The replacement of nationalism by medieval manuscript copying
- D) The use of radio broadcasting during the Cold War
- A) The spread of newspapers, pamphlets, and literacy that helped circulate political ideas
- B) The decline of public political communication after 1800
- C) The replacement of nationalism by medieval manuscript copying
- D) The use of radio broadcasting during the Cold War

APWH-MCQ9-028

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 5 — Revolutions

Period: c. 1750–1900

Theme: SIO — Social Interactions and Organization

Skill: Argumentation / Claim-Evidence

Prompt:

Originalized speech by Giuseppe Mazzini, c. 1830s: “A nation is not a prince’s estate but a people joined by duty, memory, and liberty. Let young Italians educate, print, and organize so that the peninsula may rise from fragments into a free fatherland.” Which statement best evaluates the speaker’s argument?

- A) The speaker defines national identity as shared civic duty and collective political action.
- B) The speaker argues that monarchy is the only legitimate form of government.
- C) The speaker rejects education as a tool of political change.
- D) The speaker claims that regional fragmentation is necessary for liberty.
- A) The speaker defines national identity as shared civic duty and collective political action.
- B) The speaker argues that monarchy is the only legitimate form of government.
- C) The speaker rejects education as a tool of political change.
- D) The speaker claims that regional fragmentation is necessary for liberty.

APWH-MCQ9-029

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 5 — Revolutions
Period: c. 1750–1900
Theme: GOV — Governance
Skill: Sourcing and Situation
Prompt:

Originalized Ottoman constitutionalist article, c. 1876: “The empire cannot be preserved by palace order alone. A chamber with deputies from the provinces will bind Muslim, Christian, and Jewish subjects to a common law, while schools teach loyalty to the homeland.” What was the most likely purpose of the article?

- A) To abolish the Ottoman Empire immediately
 - B) To defend absolutism against all reform
 - C) To promote constitutionalism and shared imperial citizenship
 - D) To separate all religious communities into independent states
- A) To abolish the Ottoman Empire immediately
 - B) To defend absolutism against all reform
 - C) To promote constitutionalism and shared imperial citizenship
 - D) To separate all religious communities into independent states

APWH-MCQ9-030

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 5 — Revolutions

Period: c. 1750–1900

Theme: SIO — Social Interactions and Organization

Skill: Claims and Evidence in Sources

Prompt:

Originalized Ottoman constitutionalist article, c. 1876: “The empire cannot be preserved by palace order alone. A chamber with deputies from the provinces will bind Muslim, Christian, and Jewish subjects to a common law, while schools teach loyalty to the homeland.” Which phrase best supports the claim that the author hoped to integrate diverse communities?

- A) “Palace order”
 - B) “A chamber”
 - C) “Muslim, Christian, and Jewish subjects”
 - D) “Schools teach”
- A) “Palace order”
 - B) “A chamber”
 - C) “Muslim, Christian, and Jewish subjects”
 - D) “Schools teach”

APWH-MCQ9-031

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 5 — Revolutions

Period: c. 1750–1900

Theme: CDI — Cultural Developments and Interactions

Skill: Contextualization

Prompt:

Originalized Ottoman constitutionalist article, c. 1876: “The empire cannot be preserved by palace order alone. A chamber with deputies from the provinces will bind Muslim, Christian, and Jewish subjects to a common law, while schools teach loyalty to the homeland.” Which broader context best explains the article?

- A) Ottoman reformers sought new forms of citizenship and constitutional government in response to internal and external pressures.
- B) The Ottoman Empire had no religious diversity after 1750.
- C) Constitutional ideas disappeared from the Middle East before 1876.
- D) Ottoman rulers rejected all educational reform in the nineteenth century.
- A) Ottoman reformers sought new forms of citizenship and constitutional government in response to internal and external pressures.
- B) The Ottoman Empire had no religious diversity after 1750.
- C) Constitutional ideas disappeared from the Middle East before 1876.
- D) Ottoman rulers rejected all educational reform in the nineteenth century.

APWH-MCQ9-032

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 5 — Revolutions

Period: c. 1750–1900

Theme: GOV — Governance

Skill: Argumentation / Claim-Evidence

Prompt:

Originalized Ottoman constitutionalist article, c. 1876: “The empire cannot be preserved by palace order alone. A chamber with deputies from the provinces will bind Muslim, Christian, and Jewish subjects to a common law, while schools teach loyalty to the homeland.” Which statement best evaluates the author’s argument?

- A) The author argues that constitutional representation could strengthen, rather than destroy, the empire.
- B) The author claims that only one religious community should have legal rights.
- C) The author rejects the use of schools for political loyalty.
- D) The author believes provincial deputies would weaken all common law.
- A) The author argues that constitutional representation could strengthen, rather than destroy, the empire.
- B) The author claims that only one religious community should have legal rights.
- C) The author rejects the use of schools for political loyalty.
- D) The author believes provincial deputies would weaken all common law.

APWH-MCQ9-033

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 6 — Consequences of Industrialization

Period: c. 1750–1900

Theme: ECN — Economic Systems

Skill: Quantitative, Map, or Data Interpretation

Prompt:

Table: Niger Delta palm oil commerce, simplified pattern

Period | Export pattern | Political development

1820s | Palm oil exports increase as British demand for industrial lubricants and soap grows | Local merchant houses expand

1860s | British consuls intervene in commercial disputes | Treaties pressure rulers to accept foreign arbitration

1880s | Charter and colonial claims expand | Local autonomy declines

Which conclusion is best supported by the table?

- A) Industrial demand helped expand palm oil exports and foreign political intervention.

- B) Palm oil exports declined because industrial demand disappeared.
- C) British consuls avoided commercial disputes in West Africa.
- D) Local merchant houses had no role in nineteenth-century trade.
- A) Industrial demand helped expand palm oil exports and foreign political intervention.
- B) Palm oil exports declined because industrial demand disappeared.
- C) British consuls avoided commercial disputes in West Africa.
- D) Local merchant houses had no role in nineteenth-century trade.

APWH-MCQ9-034

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 6 — Consequences of Industrialization

Period: c. 1750–1900

Theme: GOV — Governance

Skill: Claims and Evidence in Sources

Prompt:

Table: Niger Delta palm oil commerce, simplified pattern

Period | Export pattern | Political development

1820s | Palm oil exports increase as British demand for industrial lubricants and soap grows | Local merchant houses expand

1860s | British consuls intervene in commercial disputes | Treaties pressure rulers to accept foreign arbitration

1880s | Charter and colonial claims expand | Local autonomy declines

Which evidence best supports the claim that commercial relationships became political interventions?

- A) “Palm oil exports increase”
- B) “British consuls intervene in commercial disputes”
- C) “Industrial lubricants and soap”
- D) “Local merchant houses expand”
- A) “Palm oil exports increase”
- B) “British consuls intervene in commercial disputes”
- C) “Industrial lubricants and soap”
- D) “Local merchant houses expand”

APWH-MCQ9-035

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 6 — Consequences of Industrialization

Period: c. 1750–1900

Theme: TEC — Technology and Innovation

Skill: Contextualization

Prompt:

Table: Niger Delta palm oil commerce, simplified pattern

Period | Export pattern | Political development

1820s | Palm oil exports increase as British demand for industrial lubricants and soap grows | Local merchant houses expand

1860s | British consuls intervene in commercial disputes | Treaties pressure rulers to accept foreign arbitration

1880s | Charter and colonial claims expand | Local autonomy declines

Which broader context best explains the increase in British demand for palm oil?

- A) Industrial production created demand for raw materials used in manufacturing and machinery.

- B) Palm oil was used mainly to fuel medieval caravans.
- C) Industrialization reduced all demand for tropical commodities.
- D) Palm oil was unrelated to nineteenth-century manufacturing.
- A) Industrial production created demand for raw materials used in manufacturing and machinery.
- B) Palm oil was used mainly to fuel medieval caravans.
- C) Industrialization reduced all demand for tropical commodities.
- D) Palm oil was unrelated to nineteenth-century manufacturing.

APWH-MCQ9-036

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 6 — Consequences of Industrialization

Period: c. 1750–1900

Theme: SIO — Social Interactions and Organization

Skill: Argumentation / Claim-Evidence

Prompt:

Table: Niger Delta palm oil commerce, simplified pattern

Period | Export pattern | Political development

1820s | Palm oil exports increase as British demand for industrial lubricants and soap grows | Local merchant houses expand

1860s | British consuls intervene in commercial disputes | Treaties pressure rulers to accept foreign arbitration

1880s | Charter and colonial claims expand | Local autonomy declines

Which argument is best supported by the table?

- A) Export commerce could become a pathway from trade influence to imperial control.
- B) Industrial capitalism reduced European involvement in African politics.
- C) West African rulers gained increasing autonomy from treaties in the late nineteenth century.
- D) Commercial disputes had no political consequences.
- A) Export commerce could become a pathway from trade influence to imperial control.
- B) Industrial capitalism reduced European involvement in African politics.
- C) West African rulers gained increasing autonomy from treaties in the late nineteenth century.
- D) Commercial disputes had no political consequences.

APWH-MCQ9-037

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 6 — Consequences of Industrialization

Period: c. 1750–1900

Theme: GOV — Governance

Skill: Sourcing and Situation

Prompt:

Originalized Mahdist proclamation, Sudan, c. 1881: “The foreign-backed officials tax the poor, seize grain, and mock the law of God. Those who follow the Mahdi must cleanse the land of corruption and restore justice against the armies sent from the Nile.” What was the most likely purpose of the proclamation?

- A) To mobilize religious and political resistance against Egyptian-British influence
- B) To invite British officers to rule Sudan directly
- C) To defend foreign-backed taxation as legitimate
- D) To end all Islamic political language in Sudan
- A) To mobilize religious and political resistance against Egyptian-British influence
- B) To invite British officers to rule Sudan directly

- C) To defend foreign-backed taxation as legitimate
- D) To end all Islamic political language in Sudan

APWH-MCQ9-038

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 6 — Consequences of Industrialization

Period: c. 1750–1900

Theme: CDI — Cultural Developments and Interactions

Skill: Claims and Evidence in Sources

Prompt:

Originalized Mahdist proclamation, Sudan, c. 1881: “The foreign-backed officials tax the poor, seize grain, and mock the law of God. Those who follow the Mahdi must cleanse the land of corruption and restore justice against the armies sent from the Nile.” Which phrase best supports the claim that religious legitimacy shaped the resistance?

- A) “Tax the poor”
- B) “Seize grain”
- C) “Armies sent”
- D) “Follow the Mahdi”
- A) “Tax the poor”
- B) “Seize grain”
- C) “Armies sent”
- D) “Follow the Mahdi”

APWH-MCQ9-039

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 6 — Consequences of Industrialization

Period: c. 1750–1900

Theme: ECN — Economic Systems

Skill: Making Connections / Historical Reasoning

Prompt:

Originalized Mahdist proclamation, Sudan, c. 1881: “The foreign-backed officials tax the poor, seize grain, and mock the law of God. Those who follow the Mahdi must cleanse the land of corruption and restore justice against the armies sent from the Nile.” The proclamation most directly connects resistance to which grievance?

- A) The end of all local agriculture
- B) Taxation and grain seizure by foreign-backed authorities
- C) The spread of factory wages in Sudan
- D) The decline of all religious movements
- A) The end of all local agriculture
- B) Taxation and grain seizure by foreign-backed authorities
- C) The spread of factory wages in Sudan
- D) The decline of all religious movements

APWH-MCQ9-040

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 6 — Consequences of Industrialization

Period: c. 1750–1900

Theme: GOV — Governance

Skill: Argumentation / Claim-Evidence

Prompt:

Originalized Mahdist proclamation, Sudan, c. 1881: “The foreign-backed officials tax the poor, seize grain, and mock the law of God. Those who follow the Mahdi must cleanse the land of corruption and restore justice against the armies sent from the Nile.” Which statement best evaluates the proclamation’s argument?

- A) It frames anti-imperial resistance as both a response to material exploitation and a religious duty.
 - B) It rejects the idea that taxation can cause political unrest.
 - C) It argues that foreign-backed officials should expand their authority.
 - D) It treats religion as irrelevant to political mobilization.
- A) It frames anti-imperial resistance as both a response to material exploitation and a religious duty.
 - B) It rejects the idea that taxation can cause political unrest.
 - C) It argues that foreign-backed officials should expand their authority.
 - D) It treats religion as irrelevant to political mobilization.

APWH-MCQ9-041

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 7 — Global Conflict

Period: c. 1900–present

Theme: GOV — Governance

Skill: Quantitative, Map, or Data Interpretation

Prompt:

Described map: “A map of the Balkans, 1912–1913, shows Ottoman territory shrinking, Serbian, Bulgarian, Greek, and Montenegrin advances, contested Macedonian zones, and refugee routes moving toward major cities.” Which conclusion is best supported by the map?

- A) The Balkan Wars contributed to territorial change, nationalist conflict, and population displacement.
 - B) Ottoman power expanded across the Balkans after 1913.
 - C) Nationalist movements had no role in Balkan conflict.
 - D) Civilian populations were unaffected by the wars.
- A) The Balkan Wars contributed to territorial change, nationalist conflict, and population displacement.
 - B) Ottoman power expanded across the Balkans after 1913.
 - C) Nationalist movements had no role in Balkan conflict.
 - D) Civilian populations were unaffected by the wars.

APWH-MCQ9-042

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 7 — Global Conflict

Period: c. 1900–present

Theme: SIO — Social Interactions and Organization

Skill: Claims and Evidence in Sources

Prompt:

Described map: “A map of the Balkans, 1912–1913, shows Ottoman territory shrinking, Serbian, Bulgarian, Greek, and Montenegrin advances, contested Macedonian zones, and refugee routes moving toward major cities.” Which map feature best supports the claim that the wars affected civilians?

- A) “Ottoman territory shrinking”
- B) “Contested Macedonian zones”

- C) “Serbian, Bulgarian, Greek, and Montenegrin advances”
- D) “Refugee routes moving toward major cities”
- A) “Ottoman territory shrinking”
- B) “Contested Macedonian zones”
- C) “Serbian, Bulgarian, Greek, and Montenegrin advances”
- D) “Refugee routes moving toward major cities”

APWH-MCQ9-043

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 7 — Global Conflict

Period: c. 1900–present

Theme: CDI — Cultural Developments and Interactions

Skill: Contextualization

Prompt:

Described map: “A map of the Balkans, 1912–1913, shows Ottoman territory shrinking, Serbian, Bulgarian, Greek, and Montenegrin advances, contested Macedonian zones, and refugee routes moving toward major cities.” Which broader context best explains the conflicts shown?

- A) The decline of imperial rule and the rise of competing nationalisms in southeastern Europe
- B) The spread of decolonization in sub-Saharan Africa after 1945
- C) The growth of Indian Ocean spice monopolies
- D) The formation of the Mongol Empire
- A) The decline of imperial rule and the rise of competing nationalisms in southeastern Europe
- B) The spread of decolonization in sub-Saharan Africa after 1945
- C) The growth of Indian Ocean spice monopolies
- D) The formation of the Mongol Empire

APWH-MCQ9-044

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 7 — Global Conflict

Period: c. 1900–present

Theme: TEC — Technology and Innovation

Skill: Sourcing and Situation

Prompt:

Originalized medical report from the Western Front, 1917: “Men arrive coughing blood after clouds drifted over the trench. Masks saved some, but panic spread when the wind shifted. The doctors write that the new weapons turn air itself into a battlefield.” What was the most likely purpose of the report?

- A) To describe the medical and psychological effects of chemical warfare
- B) To argue that World War I was fought without new technology
- C) To promote poison gas as harmless to soldiers
- D) To show that trenches eliminated the need for medical care
- A) To describe the medical and psychological effects of chemical warfare
- B) To argue that World War I was fought without new technology
- C) To promote poison gas as harmless to soldiers
- D) To show that trenches eliminated the need for medical care

APWH-MCQ9-045

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 7 — Global Conflict

Period: c. 1900–present

Theme: ENV — Humans and the Environment

Skill: Argumentation / Claim-Evidence

Prompt:

Originalized medical report from the Western Front, 1917: “Men arrive coughing blood after clouds drifted over the trench. Masks saved some, but panic spread when the wind shifted. The doctors write that the new weapons turn air itself into a battlefield.” Which statement best evaluates the report’s argument?

- A) It shows that modern warfare could weaponize environmental conditions such as wind and air.
 - B) It claims that weather had no effect on chemical weapons.
 - C) It argues that gas masks made chemical warfare irrelevant.
 - D) It presents chemical warfare as a purely economic policy.
- A) It shows that modern warfare could weaponize environmental conditions such as wind and air.
 - B) It claims that weather had no effect on chemical weapons.
 - C) It argues that gas masks made chemical warfare irrelevant.
 - D) It presents chemical warfare as a purely economic policy.

APWH-MCQ9-046

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 8 — Cold War and Decolonization

Period: c. 1900–present

Theme: GOV — Governance

Skill: Sourcing and Situation

Prompt:

Originalized speech by Mohammad Mossadegh, Iran, 1951: “The oil beneath our soil cannot remain a private kingdom outside the nation’s law. We seek friendship with all countries, but revenue from our labor must build Iranian schools, roads, and dignity.” What was the most likely purpose of the speech?

- A) To defend foreign company control over Iranian oil
 - B) To justify nationalizing oil as an act of sovereignty and development
 - C) To reject all diplomatic relations with other countries
 - D) To argue that natural resources should not support public projects
- A) To defend foreign company control over Iranian oil
 - B) To justify nationalizing oil as an act of sovereignty and development
 - C) To reject all diplomatic relations with other countries
 - D) To argue that natural resources should not support public projects

APWH-MCQ9-047

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 8 — Cold War and Decolonization

Period: c. 1900–present

Theme: ECN — Economic Systems

Skill: Claims and Evidence in Sources

Prompt:

Originalized speech by Mohammad Mossadegh, Iran, 1951: “The oil beneath our soil cannot remain a private kingdom outside the nation’s law. We seek friendship with all countries, but revenue from our labor must build Iranian schools, roads, and dignity.” Which phrase best supports the claim that the speaker linked resource control to development?

- A) “The oil beneath our soil”
- B) “Friendship with all countries”
- C) “Revenue from our labor must build Iranian schools, roads, and dignity”
- D) “Nation’s law”
- A) “The oil beneath our soil”
- B) “Friendship with all countries”
- C) “Revenue from our labor must build Iranian schools, roads, and dignity”
- D) “Nation’s law”

APWH-MCQ9-048

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 8 — Cold War and Decolonization

Period: c. 1900–present

Theme: CDI — Cultural Developments and Interactions

Skill: Contextualization

Prompt:

Originalized speech by Mohammad Mossadegh, Iran, 1951: “The oil beneath our soil cannot remain a private kingdom outside the nation’s law. We seek friendship with all countries, but revenue from our labor must build Iranian schools, roads, and dignity.” Which broader context best explains the speech?

- A) Postwar states used resource nationalism to challenge foreign economic power during the Cold War era.
- B) Middle Eastern oil had no international significance after 1945.
- C) Decolonization ended all disputes over natural resources.
- D) Iran became a formal colony of the United Nations in 1951.
- A) Postwar states used resource nationalism to challenge foreign economic power during the Cold War era.
- B) Middle Eastern oil had no international significance after 1945.
- C) Decolonization ended all disputes over natural resources.
- D) Iran became a formal colony of the United Nations in 1951.

APWH-MCQ9-049

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 8 — Cold War and Decolonization

Period: c. 1900–present

Theme: ECN — Economic Systems

Skill: Quantitative, Map, or Data Interpretation

Prompt:

Table: Oil-producing states and economic coordination, simplified pattern

Period | Development

1960 | Several oil-producing states form a producers’ organization

1970s | Members press for greater control over prices and production

Late 1970s | Oil revenue funds state development projects but also increases global economic tensions

Which conclusion is best supported by the table?

- A) Oil-producing states attempted to increase bargaining power within the global economy.
- B) Oil producers avoided cooperation after 1960.
- C) Oil revenue had no connection to state development.
- D) Energy politics disappeared during the Cold War.

- A) Oil-producing states attempted to increase bargaining power within the global economy.
- B) Oil producers avoided cooperation after 1960.
- C) Oil revenue had no connection to state development.
- D) Energy politics disappeared during the Cold War.

APWH-MCQ9-050

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 8 — Cold War and Decolonization

Period: c. 1900–present

Theme: GOV — Governance

Skill: Making Connections / Historical Reasoning

Prompt:

Table: Oil-producing states and economic coordination, simplified pattern

Period | Development

1960 | Several oil-producing states form a producers' organization

1970s | Members press for greater control over prices and production

Late 1970s | Oil revenue funds state development projects but also increases global economic tensions

The pattern in the table most directly reflects which broader postcolonial goal?

- A) Reducing state control over natural resources
- B) Increasing economic sovereignty in a world economy shaped by powerful companies and industrial states
- C) Eliminating all international commodity markets
- D) Restoring direct colonial rule over oil fields
- A) Reducing state control over natural resources
- B) Increasing economic sovereignty in a world economy shaped by powerful companies and industrial states
- C) Eliminating all international commodity markets
- D) Restoring direct colonial rule over oil fields

APWH-MCQ9-051

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 9 — Globalization

Period: c. 1900–present

Theme: ENV — Humans and the Environment

Skill: Sourcing and Situation

Prompt:

Originalized speech by a Kenyan environmental activist, c. 1980s: “When women plant trees, they plant fuel, soil, water, and courage. The forest is not separate from democracy, for a government that sells the land also silences the people who live from it.” What was the most likely purpose of the speech?

- A) To connect environmental restoration with women's organizing and democratic activism
- B) To argue that deforestation improves rural life
- C) To separate environmental issues from political participation
- D) To promote state control over all local associations
- A) To connect environmental restoration with women's organizing and democratic activism
- B) To argue that deforestation improves rural life
- C) To separate environmental issues from political participation
- D) To promote state control over all local associations

APWH-MCQ9-052

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 9 — Globalization

Period: c. 1900–present

Theme: SIO — Social Interactions and Organization

Skill: Claims and Evidence in Sources

Prompt:

Originalized speech by a Kenyan environmental activist, c. 1980s: “When women plant trees, they plant fuel, soil, water, and courage. The forest is not separate from democracy, for a government that sells the land also silences the people who live from it.” Which phrase best supports the claim that environmental activism had social and gender dimensions?

- A) “Women plant trees”
 - B) “The forest”
 - C) “Government that sells the land”
 - D) “Democracy”
- A) “Women plant trees”
 - B) “The forest”
 - C) “Government that sells the land”
 - D) “Democracy”

APWH-MCQ9-053

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 9 — Globalization

Period: c. 1900–present

Theme: GOV — Governance

Skill: Argumentation / Claim-Evidence

Prompt:

Originalized speech by a Kenyan environmental activist, c. 1980s: “When women plant trees, they plant fuel, soil, water, and courage. The forest is not separate from democracy, for a government that sells the land also silences the people who live from it.” Which statement best evaluates the activist’s argument?

- A) The activist frames environmental protection as linked to community rights and political accountability.
 - B) The activist claims that tree planting should replace all political action.
 - C) The activist argues that forests are unrelated to rural livelihoods.
 - D) The activist rejects women’s participation in public life.
- A) The activist frames environmental protection as linked to community rights and political accountability.
 - B) The activist claims that tree planting should replace all political action.
 - C) The activist argues that forests are unrelated to rural livelihoods.
 - D) The activist rejects women’s participation in public life.

APWH-MCQ9-054

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 9 — Globalization

Period: c. 1900–present

Theme: TEC — Technology and Innovation

Skill: Visual / Material Culture Analysis

Prompt:

Described social media campaign image, c. 2010s: “A collage shows protesters in several countries holding phones, QR codes linking to donation pages, and hashtags calling for labor rights, anti-corruption reform, and climate action. Corporate logos and government buildings appear in the background.” Which interpretation is best supported by the image?

- A) Digital platforms became tools for transnational activism and rapid political communication.
 - B) Social movements after 2000 avoided online communication.
 - C) Hashtags were used only by governments to prevent protest.
 - D) Digital activism ended all local organizing.
- A) Digital platforms became tools for transnational activism and rapid political communication.
 - B) Social movements after 2000 avoided online communication.
 - C) Hashtags were used only by governments to prevent protest.
 - D) Digital activism ended all local organizing.

APWH-MCQ9-055

Section: MCQ

Type: mcq

Unit: Unit 9 — Globalization

Period: c. 1900–present

Theme: CDI — Cultural Developments and Interactions

Skill: Making Connections / Historical Reasoning

Prompt:

Described social media campaign image, c. 2010s: “A collage shows protesters in several countries holding phones, QR codes linking to donation pages, and hashtags calling for labor rights, anti-corruption reform, and climate action. Corporate logos and government buildings appear in the background.” The image most directly reflects which broader feature of globalization?

- A) Activist messages, images, and fundraising tools could circulate across borders through digital networks.
 - B) Political movements became disconnected from global communication.
 - C) Consumer technology prevented collective action.
 - D) Governments and corporations disappeared from public debate.
- A) Activist messages, images, and fundraising tools could circulate across borders through digital networks.
 - B) Political movements became disconnected from global communication.
 - C) Consumer technology prevented collective action.
 - D) Governments and corporations disappeared from public debate.

PART B — ANSWER KEY + EXPLANATIONS

APWH-MCQ9-001 — Correct: B — Correct Answer: To present the ruler as a patron of religion, agriculture, and local order — Explanation: The inscription links royal authority to monasteries, land grants, scribes, monks, village headmen, and irrigation.

APWH-MCQ9-002 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: “Monks chant blessings for the realm” — Explanation: This phrase directly connects Buddhist religious authority to the legitimacy of the realm.

APWH-MCQ9-003 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: Mainland Southeast Asian states often depended on water management for rice agriculture. — Explanation: Irrigation channels and rice fields reflect environmental management for agriculture.

APWH-MCQ9-004 — Correct: B — Correct Answer: A political order linking ruler, monks, scribes, village headmen, and cultivators — Explanation: The inscription shows a layered society organized around religious, administrative, and agricultural roles.

APWH-MCQ9-005 — Correct: B — Correct Answer: Norse settlements combined European cultural practices with environmental vulnerability in the North Atlantic. — Explanation: Churches, byres, and imported goods show European practices, while short growing seasons and limited adaptation show vulnerability.

APWH-MCQ9-006 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: “Imported European objects” — Explanation: Imported objects provide direct evidence of continued exchange beyond Greenland.

APWH-MCQ9-007 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: Long-distance settlement could be limited by environmental conditions and subsistence choices. — Explanation: Short seasons, hay dependence, and limited adaptation show how environment shaped settlement survival.

APWH-MCQ9-008 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: Norse settlers brought Christian institutions and European cultural practices into North Atlantic communities. — Explanation: Church ruins show the transfer of Christian institutions to North Atlantic settlements.

APWH-MCQ9-009 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: Merchants, scholars, and officials interested in Indian Ocean island societies — Explanation: The account describes trade, legal practices, contracts, and island social life.

APWH-MCQ9-010 — Correct: C — Correct Answer: “Cowrie shells gathered for export” — Explanation: Cowrie shells gathered for export directly show participation in regional trade.

APWH-MCQ9-011 — Correct: B — Correct Answer: To coordinate tribal military service, taxation, and royal authority — Explanation: The order links chiefs, horsemen, tax farmers, revenue, roads, tolls, and the shah’s seal.

APWH-MCQ9-012 — Correct: C — Correct Answer: “No road toll may be taken without the shah’s seal” — Explanation: This phrase shows the shah limiting local control over revenue collection.

APWH-MCQ9-013 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: Afghan rulers sought to control revenue from routes linking Central, South, and Southwest Asia. — Explanation: Road tolls mattered because Afghan territories sat along important overland routes.

APWH-MCQ9-014 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: It depended on balancing tribal elites with attempts at royal centralization. — Explanation: The order respects tribal honor but asserts royal control over tolls, military service, and revenue.

APWH-MCQ9-015 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: The Commonwealth combined monarchy with powerful noble institutions. — Explanation: The elected king, Sejm, noble consent, and magnate power show monarchy constrained by aristocratic institutions.

APWH-MCQ9-016 — Correct: B — Correct Answer: “Required noble consent for major decisions” — Explanation: Noble consent directly shows elite limits on royal power.

APWH-MCQ9-017 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: Large grain estates worked by dependent peasants for export through Baltic routes — Explanation: Magnate wealth often rested on estates producing grain for Baltic export.

APWH-MCQ9-018 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: To describe how company rule attempted to revive and protect a sugar-export economy — Explanation: The report discusses company profits, sugar mills, credit, planters, enslaved labor, and harbor defense.

APWH-MCQ9-019 — Correct: C — Correct Answer: “Enslaved laborers remain essential” — Explanation: This phrase directly shows the importance of coerced labor.

APWH-MCQ9-020 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: Atlantic port cities could include religiously diverse merchant communities tied to credit and trade. — Explanation: Merchants of several faiths and credit for planters suggest religiously diverse Atlantic commercial networks.

APWH-MCQ9-021 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: Chartered companies could combine military protection, credit systems, and plantation labor to pursue profits. — Explanation: Soldiers, credit, company profits, sugar mills, and enslaved labor appear together in the report.

APWH-MCQ9-022 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: North Pacific expansion connected fur extraction, Indigenous maritime knowledge, and Asian luxury markets. — Explanation: Russian posts, Aleut routes, hunting areas, and Chinese markets show a North Pacific commodity chain.

APWH-MCQ9-023 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: “Aleut sea routes” — Explanation: Aleut sea routes indicate Indigenous maritime knowledge and participation.

APWH-MCQ9-024 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: The creation of new transoceanic commodity chains outside the Atlantic world — Explanation: The map shows pelts moving through North Pacific routes toward Asian markets.

APWH-MCQ9-025 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: Italian nationalists and reformers seeking unity and constitutional freedom — Explanation: The speech calls on young Italians to organize for a free and unified fatherland.

APWH-MCQ9-026 — Correct: C — Correct Answer: “Not a prince’s estate” — Explanation: This phrase directly rejects dynastic ownership of the nation.

APWH-MCQ9-027 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: The spread of newspapers, pamphlets, and literacy that helped circulate political ideas — Explanation: Print culture helped spread nationalist and reformist ideas in the nineteenth century.

APWH-MCQ9-028 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: The speaker defines national identity as shared civic duty and collective political action. — Explanation: The speech links people, duty, memory, liberty, education, print, and organization.

APWH-MCQ9-029 — Correct: C — Correct Answer: To promote constitutionalism and shared imperial citizenship — Explanation: The article supports deputies, common law, schools, and loyalty across religious communities.

APWH-MCQ9-030 — Correct: C — Correct Answer: “Muslim, Christian, and Jewish subjects” — Explanation: This phrase directly shows the author addressing diverse imperial communities.

APWH-MCQ9-031 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: Ottoman reformers sought new forms of citizenship and constitutional government in response to internal and external pressures. — Explanation: Deputies, common law, schools, and loyalty reflect Ottoman constitutional reform.

APWH-MCQ9-032 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: The author argues that constitutional representation could strengthen, rather than destroy, the empire. — Explanation: The article claims a chamber and common law would preserve the empire.

APWH-MCQ9-033 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: Industrial demand helped expand palm oil exports and foreign political intervention. — Explanation: The table links British industrial demand, palm oil exports, consular intervention, treaties, and declining autonomy.

APWH-MCQ9-034 — Correct: B — Correct Answer: “British consuls intervene in commercial disputes” — Explanation: This phrase directly connects commerce to political intervention.

APWH-MCQ9-035 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: Industrial production created demand for raw materials used in manufacturing and machinery. — Explanation: Palm oil was used for soap and industrial lubricants, linking it to industrial demand.

APWH-MCQ9-036 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: Export commerce could become a pathway from trade influence to imperial control. — Explanation: The table moves from export growth to consular intervention, treaties, charter claims, and declining autonomy.

APWH-MCQ9-037 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: To mobilize religious and political resistance against Egyptian-British influence — Explanation: The proclamation criticizes foreign-backed officials, taxation, grain seizure, and calls for Mahdist resistance.

APWH-MCQ9-038 — Correct: D — Correct Answer: “Follow the Mahdi” — Explanation: The phrase directly shows religious leadership and legitimacy shaping resistance.

APWH-MCQ9-039 — Correct: B — Correct Answer: Taxation and grain seizure by foreign-backed authorities — Explanation: The proclamation identifies taxes and grain seizure as grievances.

APWH-MCQ9-040 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: It frames anti-imperial resistance as both a response to material exploitation and a religious duty. — Explanation: The proclamation combines economic grievances with religious language about the Mahdi and justice.

APWH-MCQ9-041 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: The Balkan Wars contributed to territorial change, nationalist conflict, and population displacement. — Explanation: The map shows Ottoman losses, nationalist armies, contested Macedonia, and refugee routes.

APWH-MCQ9-042 — Correct: D — Correct Answer: “Refugee routes moving toward major cities” — Explanation: Refugee routes show the civilian impact of the wars.

APWH-MCQ9-043 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: The decline of imperial rule and the rise of competing nationalisms in southeastern Europe — Explanation: The Balkan Wars reflected Ottoman decline and rival nationalist territorial claims.

APWH-MCQ9-044 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: To describe the medical and psychological effects of chemical warfare — Explanation: The report describes coughing blood, gas clouds, masks, panic, wind shifts, and air as battlefield.

APWH-MCQ9-045 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: It shows that modern warfare could weaponize environmental conditions such as wind and air. — Explanation: The report connects gas clouds, wind shifts, masks, panic, and the air itself as a weapon.

APWH-MCQ9-046 — Correct: B — Correct Answer: To justify nationalizing oil as an act of sovereignty and development — Explanation: Mossadegh links oil, national law, revenue, development, schools, roads, and dignity.

APWH-MCQ9-047 — Correct: C — Correct Answer: “Revenue from our labor must build Iranian schools, roads, and dignity” — Explanation: This phrase directly connects resource revenue to development.

APWH-MCQ9-048 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: Postwar states used resource nationalism to challenge foreign economic power during the Cold War era. — Explanation: The speech fits postwar resource nationalism and challenges foreign company control.

APWH-MCQ9-049 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: Oil-producing states attempted to increase bargaining power within the global economy. — Explanation: The table shows producers organizing, controlling prices and production, and using revenue for development.

APWH-MCQ9-050 — Correct: B — Correct Answer: Increasing economic sovereignty in a world economy shaped by powerful companies and industrial states — Explanation: Producer coordination sought greater control over natural resources and global pricing.

APWH-MCQ9-051 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: To connect environmental restoration with women’s organizing and democratic activism — Explanation: The speech links tree planting, women, fuel, soil, water, courage, land, and democracy.

APWH-MCQ9-052 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: “Women plant trees” — Explanation: This phrase directly shows the gendered and social dimensions of the activism.

APWH-MCQ9-053 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: The activist frames environmental protection as linked to community rights and political accountability. — Explanation: The speech connects forests, land sales, silencing people, democracy, and community livelihoods.

APWH-MCQ9-054 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: Digital platforms became tools for transnational activism and rapid political communication. — Explanation: Phones, QR codes, hashtags, donations, and international protesters show digital activism.

APWH-MCQ9-055 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: Activist messages, images, and fundraising tools could circulate across borders through digital networks. — Explanation: The campaign image shows cross-border activism using phones, hashtags, QR codes, and online fundraising.

SECTION 2 — SERIES DO-NOT-REPEAT BANK UPDATE — DO NOT IMPORT

SERIES DO-NOT-REPEAT BANK UPDATE — APWH-MCQ9

- APWH-MCQ9-001–004: Unit 1; c. 1200–1450; Bagan/Myanmar/mainland Southeast Asia; original temple inscription; royal land grants to monasteries, scribes, monks, village headmen, irrigation channels; reasoning paths include purpose, Buddhist legitimacy evidence, water-management context, social hierarchy; source type: temple inscription; misconception targeted: treating Buddhist Southeast Asian states as non-agrarian or non-bureaucratic.

- APWH-MCQ9-005–008: Units 1 and 2; c. 1200–1450; Norse Greenland/North Atlantic; secondary-source settlement description; stone farms, church ruins, cattle byres, imported European objects, shortened growing seasons, hay dependence, limited Arctic adaptation; reasoning paths include environmental vulnerability, exchange evidence, settlement-environment limits, Christian cultural transfer; source type: archaeological settlement interpretation; misconception targeted: assuming long-distance settlement overcame environmental constraints automatically.

- APWH-MCQ9-009–010: Unit 2; c. 1200–1450; Maldives/Indian Ocean; original travel account; Muslim judges, women in markets, Indian rice, western cloth, cowrie shells, qadi and contract disputes; reasoning paths include audience and export evidence; source type: travel account; misconception targeted: treating island societies as peripheral or disconnected from Indian Ocean legal-commercial networks.

- APWH-MCQ9-011–014: Unit 3; c. 1450–1750; Durrani Afghanistan/Central-Southwest-South Asian crossroads; original royal order; tribal chiefs, horsemen, tax farmers, Kandahar, Kabul, royal camp, road tolls, shah's seal; reasoning paths include purpose, limitation of local autonomy evidence, route-revenue context, royal centralization versus tribal elites; source type: royal administrative order; misconception targeted: treating Afghan state-building as either fully centralized or purely tribal.

- APWH-MCQ9-015–017: Unit 3; c. 1450–1750; Polish-Lithuanian Commonwealth/Eastern Europe; political structure table; elected king, noble consent, Sejm, magnate estates and private forces; reasoning paths include data/table interpretation, aristocratic constraint evidence, grain-estate economic base; table type: political institution table; misconception targeted: assuming all early modern monarchies were absolutist.

- APWH-MCQ9-018–021: Unit 4; c. 1450–1750; Dutch Brazil/Recife/Atlantic world; original company report; sugar mills, credit for planters, merchants of several faiths, enslaved laborers, harbor soldiers; reasoning paths include purpose, coerced labor evidence, religious diversity and credit context, company-military-plantation argument; source type: chartered company report; misconception targeted: separating Atlantic plantation production from credit, religiously diverse merchants, and company military power.

- APWH-MCQ9-022–024: Unit 4; c. 1450–1750; North Pacific/Kamchatka, Alaska, Aleut routes, Chinese markets; described commodity map; Russian posts, sea otter hunting, Indigenous maritime routes, pelts shipped to China; reasoning paths include map interpretation, Indigenous knowledge evidence, transoceanic commodity chain beyond Atlantic; map type: North Pacific fur-route map; misconception targeted: treating transoceanic commerce as Atlantic-only or ignoring Indigenous maritime participation.

- APWH-MCQ9-025–028: Unit 5; c. 1750–1900; Italy/Italian nationalism; original Mazzini-style speech; nation as people, duty, memory, liberty, youth organizing, education, print, fragmented peninsula; reasoning paths include audience, anti-dynastic evidence, print-nationalism connection, civic national identity argument; source type: nationalist speech; misconception targeted: reducing nationalism to ethnicity alone or ignoring print and civic mobilization.

- APWH-MCQ9-029–032: Unit 5; c. 1750–1900; Ottoman Empire; original constitutionalist article; palace order, chamber of deputies, Muslim/Christian/Jewish subjects, common law, schools, homeland loyalty; reasoning paths include purpose, diversity integration evidence, reform context, constitutional representation as imperial preservation; source type: constitutionalist newspaper/article; misconception targeted: assuming constitutionalism only destroyed empires or excluded multi-religious citizenship.

- APWH-MCQ9-033–036: Unit 6; c. 1750–1900; Niger Delta/West Africa; palm oil commerce table; British industrial demand, local merchant houses, consuls, treaties, foreign arbitration, charter and colonial claims, declining autonomy; reasoning paths include data interpretation, commercial-political intervention evidence, industrial raw-material demand context, trade-to-imperial-control argument; table type: export commodity and political intervention table; misconception targeted: treating imperial control as beginning only with formal conquest.

- APWH-MCQ9-037–040: Unit 6; c. 1750–1900; Sudan/Mahdist movement; original proclamation; foreign-backed officials, taxation, grain seizure, law of God, Mahdi, corruption, armies from the Nile; reasoning paths include purpose, religious legitimacy evidence, economic grievance, material exploitation plus religious duty argument; source type: anti-imperial religious proclamation; misconception targeted: separating religious mobilization from material anti-imperial grievances.

- APWH-MCQ9-041–043: Unit 7; c. 1900–present; Balkans/southeastern Europe; described Balkan Wars map; Ottoman territorial contraction, Serbian/Bulgarian/Greek/Montenegrin advances, contested Macedonia, refugee routes; reasoning paths include map interpretation, civilian displacement evidence, imperial decline and nationalism context; map type: territorial-conflict and refugee-route map; misconception targeted: viewing pre-WWI Balkan conflict as purely diplomatic or non-civilian.

- APWH-MCQ9-044–045: Unit 7; c. 1900–present; Western Front/World War I; original medical report; chemical gas clouds, coughing blood, masks, panic, wind shifts, air as battlefield; reasoning paths include purpose and argument about weaponizing environmental conditions; source type: wartime medical report; misconception targeted: treating modern warfare technology as detached from environment and psychological effects.

- APWH-MCQ9-046–048: Unit 8; c. 1900–present; Iran/Mossadegh/oil nationalization; original nationalist speech; oil beneath soil, national law, friendship, revenue, schools, roads, dignity; reasoning paths include purpose, development evidence, Cold War-era resource nationalism context; source type: resource-nationalist speech; misconception targeted: treating resource nationalization as isolationism or unrelated to development.

- APWH-MCQ9-049–050: Unit 8; c. 1900–present; oil-producing states/OPEC-style coordination; economic coordination table; producer organization, price and production control, oil revenue, state development, global economic tensions; reasoning paths include data interpretation and economic sovereignty goal; table type: oil producer coordination chronology; misconception targeted: assuming postcolonial states lacked leverage in global commodity markets.

- APWH-MCQ9-051–053: Unit 9; c. 1900–present; Kenya/Green Belt-style environmental activism; original environmental activist speech; women planting trees, fuel, soil, water, courage, forests, democracy, land sales, silenced people; reasoning paths include purpose, gender-social evidence, environmental protection as community rights and accountability; source type: activist speech; misconception targeted: treating environmental activism as separate from gender, democracy, and local livelihoods.

· APWH-MCQ9-054–055: Unit 9; c. 1900–present; global social media activism; described digital campaign image; protesters in multiple countries, phones, QR donation codes, hashtags, labor rights, anti-corruption, climate action, corporate logos, government buildings; reasoning paths include visual interpretation and digital cross-border activism; visual type: social media campaign collage; misconception targeted: assuming digital activism replaces all local organizing or cannot connect transnational causes.